Love Across the Atlantic Brickman Barbara Jane Brickman,2020-02-14 Winston Churchill famously described the political alliance between the US and UK as a special relationship but throughout the cultural history of these two countries there have existed transatlantic special relationships of another kind affairs between British and American citizens who have fallen in love with one another but often too with the idea l of that other place across the ocean From romantic novelist Elinor Glyn in the 1920s to Prince Harry and Meghan Markle today this collection examines some of the history contemporary manifestations and enduring appeal of US UK romance across popular culture Looking at both historical and contemporary case studies drawn from across film television music literature news and politics this is a timely intervention into the popular romantic discourse of US UK relations at a critical and transitional moment in the ongoing viability of the special relationship Adventures of a Nice Young Man Aix (pseud.),1908 Go West, Young Women! Hilary Hallett,2013-01-15 In the early part of the twentieth century migrants made their way from rural homes to cities in record numbers and many traveled west

Los Angeles became a destination Women flocked to the growing town to join the film industry as workers and spectators creating a New Woman Their efforts transformed filmmaking from a marginal business to a cosmopolitan glamorous and bohemian one By 1920 Los Angeles had become the only western city where women outnumbered men In Go West Young Women Hilary A Hallett explores these relatively unknown new western women and their role in the development of Los Angeles and the nascent film industry From Mary Pickford s rise to become perhaps the most powerful woman of her age to the racist moral panics of the post World War I years that culminated in Hollywood s first sex scandal Hallett describes how the path through early Hollywood presaged the struggles over modern gender roles that animated the century to come
