Threshold Songs Peter Gizzi, 2012-01-01 About Threshold Songs the voices in these poems perform at the interior thresholds encountered each day where we negotiate the unfathomable proximities of knowing and not knowing the gulf of seeing and feeling the uncanny relation of grief to joy and the borderless nature of selfhood and tradition Both conceptual and haunted these poems explore the asymmetry of the body's chemistry and its effects on expression and form The poems in Threshold Songs tune us to the microtonal music of speaking and being spoken Check for the online reader's companion at <http://petergizzi.site.wesleyan.edu> University Press of New England: Fall 2012 New Titles, In Defense of Nothing

Reading and Writing through Auden Dennis Lewis, 2025-09-24 This book consists of three main parts first close readings and critical analyses of four major poetical works by W. H. Auden The Watershed The Sea and The Mirror New Year Letter and In Time of War secondly ten semi-informal letters addressed to W. H. Auden and thirdly a sequence of short and long poems which adapt the life and speeches of a major public figure in U.S. politics The issues raised in the first part poetic voice the lyric subject public rhetoric and parabolic writing are elaborated on in the correspondence with W. H. Auden The book proposes a creative writing discipline founded on self-mentorship the productive and intensive exchange between creative close reading and writing as well as reflection through letter writing to an imaginary poetic mentor Modelled partly on Auden's own poetic reading practice through its imaginary correspondence the book presents a reading practice closely attuned to the world-making possibilities of poetry Its aim is to probe the extent to which the mentor's world can be made amenable to the contemporary creative writing apprentice's needs The book addresses some key themes in contemporary literature and poetics place belonging the multiplicity of contemporary identities poetic truth and catastrophe and the lyric subject This book will interest scholars teachers and students of literature and poetics as well as creative writers particularly those grappling with remote creative writing degree programmes Nocturnals Bradford
