Through Other Continents American Literature Across Deep Time:

Through Other Continents Wai Chee Dimock, 2008-10-20 What we call American literature is quite often a shorthand a simplified name for an extended tangle of relations This is the argument of Through Other Continents Wai Chee Dimock's sustained effort to read American literature as a subset of world literature Inspired by an unorthodox archive ranging from epic traditions in Akkadian and Sanskrit to folk art paintings by Veronese and Tiepolo and the music of the Grateful Dead Dimock constructs a long history of the world a history she calls deep time The civilizations of Mesopotamia India Egypt China and West Africa as well as Europe leave their mark on American literature which looks dramatically different when it is removed from a strictly national or English language context Key authors such as Thoreau Margaret Fuller Ezra Pound Robert Lowell Gary Snyder Leslie Silko Gloria Naylor and Gerald Vizenor are transformed in this light Emerson emerges as a translator of Islamic culture Henry James's novels become long distance kin to Gilgamesh and Black English loses its ungrammaticalness when reclassified as a creole tongue meshing the input from Africa Europe and the Americas Throughout Dimock contends that American literature is answerable not to the nation state but to the human species as a whole and that it looks dramatically different when removed from a strictly national or English language context The Canonical Debate Today Liviu Papadima, David Damrosch David Damrosch, Theo D'haen Theo D'haen, 2011-03-10 The Canonical Debate Today Crossing Disciplinary and Cultural Boundaries re-enacts the canonical issues current in the 90s from a new perspective triggered by the changes that occurred worldwide in understanding the concepts and the status of theory in the legacy of literary studies within the field of humanities and in cultural production and reception During the last decade discussions of globalization mostly took into account its impact on the status of academic disciplines such as comparative literature or cultural studies or the reconfiguration of national literary fields These debates do not dispense with canonicity altogether but make it more urgent and necessary Canons seen as sets of norms or regulatory practices are central to the formation of disciplines to the recognition and transmission of values even to the articulation of discourses on identity on various levels The three sections of the volume deal with three interrelated subjects theories and applicable contexts of the canon Canons and Contexts recent transformations in the area of literary studies in response to the task of canon formation Reshaping Literary Studies and the challenges brought to the understanding of the canon's by the current process of re-defining literary and cultural boundaries Transgressing Literary and Cultural Boundaries This volume will appeal to researchers teachers and students of cultural studies comparative literature and literary theory The Cambridge Companion to the Novel Eric Bulson, 2018-06-28 This Companion focuses on the novel as a global genre with a 2 000 year history The first section includes an examination of the various genres out of which it emerged epic history romance the picaresque and the different ways in which fiction and realism magical hyper and social were developed in response to specific political social and economic forces The second section focuses on how the novel works considering how it has played a crucial role in the formation of more abstract social political and familial identities The third section considers what the novel has become and will continue to become in the twenty first century It examines the recent interest in graphic novels as well as data digitization and a global literary marketplace s role in shaping the future of the novel This book will be a key resource for students and scholars studying the novel as a genre

Incarceration and Slavery in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen,2021-10-19 People in the Middle Ages and the early modern age more often suffered from imprisonment and enslavement than we might have assumed Incarceration and Slavery in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Age approaches these topics from a wide variety of perspectives and demonstrates collectively the great relevance of the issues involved Both incarceration and slavery were and continue to be most painful experiences and no one was guaranteed exemption from it High ranking nobles and royalties were often the victims of imprisonment and at times had to wait many years until their ransom was paid Similarly slavery existed throughout Christian Europe and in the Arab world However while imprisonment occasionally proved to be the catalyst for major writings and creativity slaves in the Ottoman empire and in Egypt succeeded in rising to the highest position in society Janissaries Mamluks and others

Steinbeck's Uneasy America Barbara A. Heavilin,Susan Shillinglaw,2024 The first scholarly assessment of Steinbeck s bestselling travelogue Travels with Charley published in 1962 a narrative that blurs the lines between nonfiction and fiction Steinbeck s Uneasy America is the first collection of critical scholarship devoted to Travels with Charley in Search of America John Steinbeck s best selling late career travel memoir In 1960 Steinbeck was a renowned man of American letters Many considered him America s troubadour of ordinary people the conscience of the country But weakened by two small strokes and anxious that he had lost touch with America he embarked on a cross country road trip accompanied by his wife s standard poodle Charley Two years later he published Travels with Charley to popular acclaim and robust sales Throughout this narrative Steinbeck insists that all of our perceptions are warped by personality history and society And while this hybrid and experimental book has long been accepted as an accurate account of his journey journalists and scholars agree that the narrative is part factual part fiction America as seen through Steinbeck s particular warp The work is long overdue for scholarly assessment Steinbeck s Uneasy America explores three main topics Part 1 explores genre and form to consider the degree to which the work is fiction or nonfiction Part 2 assesses Steinbeck s increasingly bleak assessment of America almost a jeremiad that warns citizens of ecological excess and political apathy Part 3 focuses on Travels with Charley as a road text travel adventure and literary influence This volume s authors offer rich scholarly insights and a wealth of stories facts and anecdotes about Steinbeck and the adventures and misadventures he and Charley met on the road Lively and groundbreaking the collection both enlightens and enlivens discussions of Steinbeck and of the twentieth century American book world

Nicholas P Taylor The Globalization of Netherlandish Art ,2024-12-02 Is there a special place for the Low Countries in art history s current debates on global mobility How should we conceive of the globalization of Netherlandish art in the early modern period and in what ways does the distinctively worldly orientation of the Netherlands in this period contribute to early modern visual culture This volume examines how artworks produced in the wake of European expansion art produced in the Netherlands in reaction to the world outside of Europe and art made outside of Europe in reaction to encounters with the Netherlands help us better understand the cultural impacts of globalization Washington Irving and Islam Zubeda Jalalzai,2018-05-25 Washington Irving and Islam contributes to understanding the relationship between the United States and the Islamic world valuable not only for studies of Washington Irving American Literature or Islam but also for thinking through the role Islam and the Orient have played in American literature and history a critical field receiving ever increasing attention The global context of Irving s work ties these essays together as does an understanding that his writings challenge easy classification of the Muslim other and indeed challenge easy classification of Irving s own responses to that other Washington Irving bestrides opposing positions as well as distant worlds Chimeras of Form

Aarthi Vadde,2016-12-13 In the years following World War I the international emerged as a distinct scale of political and cultural focus Internationalisms proliferated in kind as writers and thinkers sought to imagine modes of cooperation that would balance transnational solidarities with national sovereignty While so called political realists across the twentieth century have regarded such attempts as wishful thinking Aarthi Vadde argues that the negotiation of wishing and thinking is at the very heart of internationalism In Chimeras of Form she shows why modernist literary form is essential to understanding the aspirational and analytical force of internationalism in and beyond Europe Major writers such as Rabindranath Tagore James Joyce Claude McKay George Lamming Michael Ondaatje and Zadie Smith use modernist strategies to reshape how readers think about the cohesion and interrelation of political communities in the wake of empire Vadde lucidly explains how their formal experiments with the novel short story poetry and political essay contribute to and sometimes even anticipate debates in postcolonial theory and cosmopolitanism She reads Joyce s use of asymmetrical narratives as a way to ask questions about international camaraderie and demonstrates how the plotless works of McKay and Lamming upturn ideas of citizenship and diasporic alienation Her analysis of twenty first century writers Smith and Shailja Patel shows how ongoing conflicts around migration displacement and global economic inequality link modernist postcolonial and contemporary traditions of literature Vadde brings these traditions together to reveal the dual nature of internationalism as an ambition possibly a chimeric one and an actual political discourse vital to understanding our present moment

American Studies, Shifting Gears Birte Christ,2010 American Studies Shifting Gears brings together contributions by younger scholars from Germany and by renowned colleagues from both sides of the Atlantic Taking the debate about the

Futures of American Studies as its point of departure the volume addresses three larger issues that are crucial to the present and the future positioning of the field first the internationalization of the American Studies scholarly community and of scholarly exchange as well as the transnationalization of the field's objects of study second interdisciplinary collaborations and transdisciplinary approaches and research and third the politics and politicalness of American Studies American Studies Shifting Gears leads the reader expertly and creatively through what's at stake for the discipline In its reflections and analyses the volume slows down at times then speeds up a little halts and finds a resting point drives down slopes and up steep inclines and in the process shifts gears

American Book Publishing Record, 2006 The Arizona Quarterly, 2011 Eastern Europe, Literature, and Post-imperial Difference Anita Starosta, 2009 Religion & Literature, 2009 Visions of Global America and the Future of Critical Reading Daniel T. O'Hara, 2009 The forces of globalization have transformed literary studies in America and not for the better The detailed critical reading of artistic texts has been replaced by newly minted catchphrases describing widely divergent snippets and anecdotes deemed mere documents regardless of the critic's expertise in the appropriate languages and cultures Visions of Global America and the Future of Critical Reading by Daniel T O Hara traces the origin of this global approach to Emerson But it also demonstrates another tragic tradition of vision from Henry James that counters the Emersonian global imagination with the hard realities of being human Building on this tradition on Lacan's insights into the Real and on Badiou's original theory of truth O Hara points to how we can and should reground literary study in critical reading In Emerson's classic essay Experience 1844 America appears in and as a symptom of the critic's self making that sacrifices the power of love to this visionary project a literary version of the American self made man O'Hara rescues critical reading using James's late work especially The Golden Bowl 1904 and builds on this vision with examinations of texts by St Paul Emerson Wallace Stevens James Purdy John Cheever James Baldwin John Ashbery and others Annual Bibliography of English Language and Literature Modern Humanities Research Association, 2007
