York Alex Kwok, 2014-04-11 This book is not about preaching a sermon or missionary indoctrination It is merely an effort at truthfully recording a narrative to present the subject matters that I care about with the relevant preventive means to be shared by other people as points of reference it is hoped that those who have read this book would be able to use my case study as reference in their personal life journey so that they won't feel being alone hence able to live their lives with added vitality and colors whilst reducing the incidents of unnecessary anxiety and anguish      Imagining Crime Dr Alison

Young, 1995-12-18 This book offers an original and challenging reading of the criminological complex criminology criminal justice criminal law the media and everyday experiences in the light of cultural studies and feminist theory Through an exploration of the crisis engendered by the failure of the criminological complex to solve the problems of crime and criminality Alison Young exposes the cultural dimension of its institutions and practices She analyzes the far reaching effects of the cultural value given to crime showing it to be rooted in a powerful nexus of the body language the community and everyday life Imagining Crime examines a number of key events and issues which have signalled shifts in the representation of crime These include criminology's resistance to feminist intervention the pleasures of reading detective fiction ambiguities of victimization and social justice in the city sacrificial structures in the law's response to conjugal homicide policing the ethnicity of the illegal immigrant defensive responses to the limits of representation in the Bulger affair the governmental strategies of campaigns against single mothers and the fatalism of the spectacle of HIV AIDS in criminal justice policy

Crime Detection Frank Dalton O'Sullivan, 1928      Disability in Islamic Law Vardit Rispler-Chaim, 2006-10-31 1 When I completed my book Islamic Medical Ethics in the Twentieth Century I was aware that I had omitted certain topics that I would have to return to One of these was the ethical treatment of disabilities and the disabled and of handicaps and the handicapped Since responses to burning medical dilemmas within the wide field of medical ethics was the main focus of that book it addressed ethical aspects of the doctor-patient relationship and contemporary Islamic debates on issues such as birth control and abortion artificial insemination organ transplants postmortem examinations and euthanasia The main source material was 20th century fatwas legal responses issued by various Middle Eastern muftis In this book I now wish to survey attitudes to the disabled and their disabilities as evinced by selected Sunni and Shi'i legal compilations throughout 1400

years of scholarly Islamic activity but also through contemporary fatwas The sources used for this book are a selection of medieval as well as modern legal writings medical books and articles in Arabic books and articles on medicine from an Islamic religious point of view Prophetic medicine and the Qur'an and medicine I have scrutinized all these for their consideration of people with disabilities and for the behavioral or social adjustments these people were offered mainly through legal rulings
