Thunder Over Kandahar:

Thunder Over Kandahar Sharon McKay, 2010-08-01 Best friends Tamanna and Yasmine cannot believe their good fortune when a school is set up in their Afghan village however their dreams for the future are shattered when the Taliban burns down the school and threatens the teacher and students with death As Tamanna faces an arranged marriage to an older man and the Taliban targets Yasmine's western educated family the girls realize they must flee Traveling through the heart of Taliban territory the two unaccompanied young women find themselves in mortal danger After suffering grave injuries Tamanna from a fall and Yasmine from a suicide bombing the girls are left without the one thing that has helped them survive each other Filled with tension and drama THUNDER OVER KANDAHAR paints a vivid portrait of the perils of contemporary Afghanistan Thunder Over Kandahar Sharon E McKay, 2018 The Critical Merits of Young Adult Literature

Crag Hill, 2014-03-05 This examination of the literary effectiveness of young adult literature from a critical research oriented perspective answers two key questions asked by many teachers and scholars in the field Does young adult literature stand up on its own as literature Is it worthy of close study The treatment is both conceptual and pragmatic Each chapter discusses a topical text set of YA novels in a conceptual framework how these novels contribute to or deconstruct conventional wisdom about key topics from identity formation to awareness of world issues while also providing a springboard in secondary and college classrooms for critical discussion of these novels Uncloaking many of the issues that have been essentially invisible in discussions of YA literature these essays can then guide the design of curriculum through which adolescent readers hone the necessary skills to unpack the ideologies embedded in YA narratives The annotated bibliography provides supplementary articles and books germane to all the issues discussed Closing End Points highlight and reinforce cross cutting themes throughout the book and tie the essays together Supporting Reading in Grades 6-12 Sybil M. Farwell, Nancy L. Teger, 2012-06-11 This book presents a curricular framework for students grades 6-12 that school librarians and teachers can use collaboratively to enhance reading skill development promote literature appreciation and motivate young people to incorporate reading into their lives beyond the required schoolwork Supporting Reading Grades 6-12 A Guide addresses head on the disturbing trend of declining leisure reading among students and demonstrates how school librarians can contribute to the development of lifelong reading habits as well as improve students motivation and test scores The book provides a comprehensive framework for achieving this the READS curriculum which stands for Read as a personal activity Explore characteristics history and awards of creative works Analyze structure and aesthetic features of creative works Develop a literary based product and Score reading progress Each of these five components is explained thoroughly describing how school librarians can encourage students to read as individuals in groups and as school communities support classroom teachers instruction and connect students to today's constantly evolving technologies Used in combination with an inquiry information skills model the READS curriculum enables school librarians to deliver a dynamic balanced library
