Journey to Tibet's Lost Lama Gaby Naher, 2005 The once in a lifetime experience of personally meeting with the Dalai Lama changed author Gaby Naher's life and started her on a personal pilgrimage to meet Tibet's second most renowned lama the 17th Karmapa In Journey to Tibet's Lost Lama Naher invites readers to join her journey far into the mountains of Northern India for a meeting with the young spiritual leader who is forced by Sino Indian politics to live in a deserted monastery as a prisoner in all but name Along the way Naher paints a vivid portrait of the multifaceted backdrop to the boy's life by skillfully weaving together the life story of the boy lama the biographies of the previous 16 and the recent history of Tibet Full of intrigue drama and miracle the story reads like colorful fiction yet holds the pain and hope of truth Annual Report of Human Rights Violations in Tibet ,2003 Tibet's True Heart Weise,2008 Learning to be Tibetan Sarah Hofstra,2007 Tibet and China in the Twenty-first Century John B. Heath,2005 The social and political realities of the Chinese occupation of Tibet are more complex than commonly acknowledged and change frequently over time John Heath s overview lends perspective to this conflict through examination of the situation as it stands as well as reviewing how it has arrived at the present state of affairs Here be Yaks Manosi Lahiri,2006 In the year 2000 a group of ordinary people undertook an extraordinary journey to one of the most isolated parts of the world Far West Tibet From Lhasa in the east they travelled west across the Tibetan plateau on the forgotten Tasam Highway They stopped at old tasams or stage posts and were charmed by the stark beauty and local folklore of the country Fighting exhaustion and High Altitude Sickness the group completed the strenuous and demanding circumambulation kora around the sacred Mount Kailash They come across a map of the region indicating two different sources of the river Sutlej That the author was convinced was a mystery she was destined to solve They noted that in the land of practising Buddhism legends about mountains streams and lakes were intertwined with observations made by early surveyors and explorers When they reached the remote lakes Manasarovar and Rakas Tal they found the Ganga chu the stream traditionally known to join the two lakes had disappeared for long distances This fact further strengthened the resolve to find the present source of the river Sutlej The author returned to Far West Tibet with her travel companions once more in the Year of the Horse 2002 They found that Lhasa had changed visibly in two years and their sojourn there was marked by nervous tension as the group was split But the journey to the Far West was more magical than the previous one In a strange trick of nature while standing on the ground they saw the tops of the Himalayan peaks from above Apprehensive and hallucinating they walked the hidden inner kora path of Mount Kailash and kora of Lake Manasarovar following the footsteps of past sages and monks Finally when the group reached the Lost Guge Kingdom in the heart of a barren land they were surprised to find an abandoned citadel carved out of a hill on the banks of the Sutlej They were concerned that the river was being dammed at the Zada gorge and its possible impact downstream in India But they were astonished and enchanted at the vibrancy of the fine art and rich colours of the chapels in Tsaparang and the Toling monastery The unusual name of the book is derived from the idea of early navigation maps In olden times when there were vast expanses left unexplored cartographers marked uncharted lands and seas with the words Here Be Dragons This was a warning to travellers of potential dangers In a similar vein Here Be Yaks forewarns the reader of a journey to a land that is yet to be fully explored and is full of unexpected happenings It is also the land of the yak As China Meets the World Susanne Weigelin-Schwiedrzik, Agnes S. Schick-Chen, Sascha Klotzbu cher, 2006 As China Meets the World is a selection of papers that were presented at an international conference held in Vienna in 2004 under the same title Aiming at a better understanding of China's emergence as one of the world powers of tomorrow as well as addressing issues such as the Taiwan crisis and China EU diplomacy the anthology traces China's encounters with the international community its institutions and legal foundations during the 20th century The volume focuses on China's integration into and cooperation with international organizations including the League of Nations and the UN This examination especially in view of its historical dimension has revealed that internal developments in China cannot be understood without taking external factors into consideration Still the contributors to this volume from both China and the West go one important step further in their evaluation of recent developments and the present situation They state that the outside world has not only been a challenge to China's transformation process but that China is also a challenge to the world The Middle Way ,2003 India Today ,2003

 The Georgia Review ,2010 The Publishers Weekly ,2003
