A Christian Perspective of Postmodern Existentialism John D. Carter, 2021-06-08 The Western Humanism originating in classical Greek philosophy where the capacity of human reason became the dominant means for perceiving a worldview based in reality reigned in Western philosophy until the onset of Postmodern Existentialism in the mid twentieth century Plato's Theory of Forms prepared the Western gentile mind to accept the rationality of a transcendent ultimate reality and in so doing steered the gentile mind from its bent to pantheistic deities The apostle Paul boldly proclaimed to the Athenians that their unknown god was indeed the transcendent God of Abraham Isaac and Jacob Christianity prevailed in Western philosophy until the Enlightenment which was the result of the unprecedented success of the scientific method began to turn the Western mind to the existentialistic idea of the relativity of moral truth

Epistemics of Divine Reality Domenic Marbaniang, 2017-08-18 What Knowledge Claims of God Involve This book investigates the various traditions like monism polytheism pantheism panentheism and approaches such as foundationalism fideism pragmatism and rational fideism This book was originally the PhD thesis of the writer submitted to ACTS Academy in 2007

Against the Spiritual Turn Sean Creaven, 2014-04-08 The argument presented in this book is that the recent spiritual trajectory of Roy Bhaskar's work upon which he first embarked with the publication of his From East to West undermines the fundamental achievements of his earlier work The problem with Bhaskar's new philosophical system Transcendental Dialectical Critical Realism or simply Meta Reality from the critical realist Marxist perspective endorsed here is that it marks both a departure from and a negation of the earlier concerns of Bhaskar to develop a realist philosophy of science and under labour for an emancipatory materialist socio historical science The end result is a meta philosophy which is irrealist speculative under theorized internally self contradictory and which cannot provide philosophical guidance to liberatory social practices In opposition to theist ontological logics more generally including the rather more rational theism presented by Margaret Archer Andrew Collier and Doug Porpora the argument of this book is that the earth bound materialist dialectics of the classical Marxist tradition and the naturalistic humanism these dialectics under labour on the terrain of socio historical being offer a much more promising way forward for critical realist theory and for liberatory politics and ethics

Immanent Transcendence Patrice Haynes, 2012-08-23 Over the last twenty years materialist thinkers in the continental tradition have increasingly emphasized the category of immanence Yet the turn to immanence has not meant the wholesale rejection of the concept of transcendence but rather its reconfiguration in immanent or materialist terms an immanent transcendence Through an engagement with the work of Deleuze Irigaray and Adorno Patrice Haynes examines how the notion of immanent transcendence can help articulate a non reductive materialism by which to rethink politics ethics and theology in exciting new ways However she argues that contrary to what some might expect immanent accounts of matter and transcendence are ultimately unable to do justice to material finitude Indeed Haynes concludes by suggesting that a theistic understanding of divine transcendence offers ways to affirm fully material immanence thus pointing towards the idea of a theological materialism      Phänomenologische Forschungen 2023-1 Inga Römer, Thiemo Breyer, Michela Summa, 2023-09-27 Die von Thiemo Breyer Inga Römer und Michela Summa herausgegebenen Phänomenologischen Forschungen sind ein international offenes Forum für die Publikation aller im weitesten Sinne phänomenologisch orientierten Arbeiten. Foucault, Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue Henrique Pinto, 2020-11-25 Foucault, Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue develops a new model for interfaith dialogue using the work of the French historian of ideas Michel Foucault. The author argues that it is the injustice done to the Other by Roman Catholic, Protestant and other centred and unitary models of religious pluralism that allows the introduction of Foucault's de-centring of transcendence and human reason as an alternative model for understanding religious diversity and the role it ought to play in the constitution of the self and the making of society. This Foucaultian approach provides a new direction for interfaith dialogue in the modern world and leads to an ethical rather than a nihilistic position while fostering a non-unitary theology of religious pluralism and an open-textured process of self-transformation. The author's original and imaginative application and expansion of Foucault's concept of the More from The Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 makes important and original contributions to academic work on Foucault and contemporary theology.

Energy Justice Across Borders Gunter Bombaerts, Kirsten Jenkins, Yekeen A. Sanusi, Wang Guoyu, 2019-10-18 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license. We must find new and innovative ways of conceptualizing transboundary energy issues of embedding concerns of ethics or justice into energy policy and of operationalizing response to them. This book stems from the emergent gap, the need for comparative approaches to energy justice and for those that consider ethical traditions that go beyond the classical Western approach. This edited volume unites the fields of energy justice and comparative philosophy to provide an overarching global perspective and approach to applying energy ethics. We contribute to this purpose in four sections: setting the scene, practice applying theory to practice and theoretical approaches. Through the chapters featured in the volume, we position the book as one that contributes to energy justice scholarship across borders of nations, borders of ways of thinking and borders of disciplines. The outcome will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students studying energy justice, ethics and environment as well as energy scholars, policy makers and energy analysts.

The Reconstruction of the Christian Revelation Claim Stuart C. Hackett, 2009-01-07 Dr Hackett provides in digestible form a comprehensive systematic and pervasively philosophical apologetic for the Christian revelation claim. Although the approach is seriously philosophical, the text is free as possible of the earmarks of technical scholarship, reflecting the author's aspiration to reach the common person who has a deep interest in such questions. Thus, although positions arguments and counter arguments are discussed, of necessity these are set forth without distracting encumbrances. Specifically, this book is designed as a substantial textbook for college and seminary courses in apologetics. In his thorough introduction Philosophical Prolegomena, a firm base for the whole study is established.

by initiating the reader firmly in epistemology and the concept of revelation The main divisions are Christianity and the Revelation Cosmos A Philosophical Case for a Theistic Metaphysic Christianity and the Revelational Person An Historical Critical Case for the Incarnation of God in Jesus Christ Christianity and the Revelational Word The Propositional Expression of Revelation in Scripture Dr Hackett includes on every page parallel marginal summaries and outlines to guide the reader and to facilitate ready reference

The Infinity of God Benedikt Paul Göcke, Christian Tapp, 2018-12-30 Two questions regarding contemporary theological and philosophical studies are often overlooked Is God infinite or finite and What does it mean to say that God is infinite In The Infinity of God Benedikt Paul Göcke and Christian Tapp bring together prominent scholars to discuss God's infinitude from philosophical and theological perspectives Each contributor deals with a particular aspect of the infinity of God employing the methods of analytic theology and analytic philosophy The essays in the first section examine historical issues from a systematic point of view The contributors focus on the Cappadocian Fathers Thomas Aquinas Leibniz Kant Hegel Bolzano and Cantor The second section deals with particular issues concerning the relation between God's infinity and both the finitude of the world and the classical attributes of God eternity simplicity omnipresence omnipotence omniscience and moral perfection There are some books that deal with the notion of infinity in mathematics and in general philosophy but no single text brings together the best analytic philosophers and theologians tackling the various aspects of the infinity of God and the correlated problems This book will interest students and scholars in philosophy of religion theology and metaphysics Contributors Benedikt Paul Göcke Christian Tapp Franz Krainer Adam Drosdek William E Carroll Christina Schneider Ruben Schneider Robert M Wallace Bruce A Hedman Bernhard Lang Richard Swinburne Kenneth L Pearce William Hasker Paul Helm Brian Leftow Ken Perszyk Thomas Schrtl and Philip Clayton

Transcendental Phenomenological Psychology Jon L. James, 2011-06 From the Preface to the Revised Edition Since its publication in 2007 Transcendental Phenomenological Psychology has been sold on every continent except Antarctica and is in the collections of research libraries in North America Europe and Asia Even so its presentation to the academic community rightly provoked many comments corrections suggestions and criticisms Such input while mostly welcome provided the impetus to publish a revised edition A phenomenological explanation of human consciousness has long been sought in regions of psychology since the discipline was first carved out of philosophical concepts and theories about the human condition In its earliest years Western psychology was faced with two possible directions for this explanation an empirical naturalistic approach along with physics and biology or a non empirical eidetic approach along with logic and mathematics Edmund Husserl took up the latter His phenomenological tradition of inquiry successfully spanned nearly forty years until suddenly stopped and largely suppressed during the Second World War This book recovers Husserl s revolutionary approach toward the human sciences just as it was developed and just as it is presented for further study Here the author systematically gathers what Husserl calls the leading clues in the phenomenological method proper for a psychology of affective inner experience and then for the first time applies Husserl s own methodology for introducing a phenomenological psychology in the transcendental register of human consciousness Unlike contemporary phenomenological psychology in the existential register transcendental phenomenological psychology is presented as an eidetic non empirical act psychology in Husserl s mature genetic phenomenology This novel approach takes in the full range of solipsistic and transcendental subjectivity in Husserl s theories of human consciousness and follows Husserl s lead in presenting phenomenological psychology as an applied geometry of intentional experience within a step wise theory of inquiry This book is unique in human science today not only in its presentation of the development and applications of Husserl s key concepts for the discipline of psychology but also for introducing a psychology that could be intuitively grasped as self evidently valid wherever one's interest might lie
