Time Rites And Festivals In Bali:

Time, Rites and Festivals in Bali Jean Couteau, Georges Breguet, 2014-08-05 The Gregorian or Western calendar is the most widely used and recognized calendar system in the world but that doesn't mean it's the only one in use. The concept of time in Bali and the inherent importance of rites and festivals on daily life combined to create a calendar system that is bewilderingly complex but intriguing in its history. For the first time a book has been written which unravels the difficulty of the Balinese calendar system and makes it accessible to a general audience. Time Rites and Festivals in Bali written by two recognized specialists of the culture is a two part exploration of a breathtaking calendar system and includes 62 specially commissioned drawings and a selection of photographs of rites along with wooden and painted calendars from museums around the world. From a lively introduction to the distinctly Balinese concepts of time to an explanation of the two main calendars of Bali to an in depth discussion on the myth of Watugunung which is the basis for the origin of the main calendar system Time Rites and Festivals in Bali is a dynamic introduction to the spiritual and daily rituals that evolved at the core of this island nation.

Bali: Time, Rites, Art and Magic Jean Couteau, Georges Breguet, 2026-06-02 Balinese rituals art and a unique sense of time are what set Bali apart. This unique book describes the concept of time in Bali and the magical significance of religious rites and festivals that are bewilderingly complex yet endlessly intriguing. Authors Jean Couteau and Georges Breguet begin by unraveling the difficult Balinese calendar and making it accessible. This calendar forms the basis for an elaborate cycle of celebrations held at regular intervals which help the Balinese to mediate between the human realm and the unseen world of ancestors, gods, demons and spirits. Lavish purification rituals, offerings, divination, dances, music, theater, art and trance spectacles are the result, all described here in loving detail. This book is richly illustrated with 62 specially commissioned drawings by Balinese artist I Gusti Nyoman Darta and a selection of color photographs of the most important rituals along with detailed painted Balinese calendars from museum collections around the world.

Bali in the Early Nineteenth Century Helen M. Creese, 2016-05-30 In Bali in the Early Nineteenth Century Helen Creese examines the nature of the earliest sustained cross cultural encounter between the Balinese and the Dutch through the eyewitness accounts of Pierre Dubois, the first colonial official to live in Bali. From 1828 to 1831 Dubois served as Civil Administrator to the Badung court in southern Bali. He later recorded his Balinese experiences for the Batavian Society of Arts and Sciences in a series of personal letters to an anonymous correspondent. This first ethnography of Bali provides rich perceptive descriptions of early nineteenth century Balinese politics, society, religion and culture. The book includes a complete edition and translation of Dubois' Le Journal de Balie en 1830 and Sketch of Bali in 1830.

Bridges to the Ancestors David D. Harnish, 2006-01-01 Bridges to the Ancestors effectively reveals the Lingsar festival as a site of cultural struggle as Harnish explores how history, identity and power are constructed and negotiated. He addresses the fascinating interaction between music and myth and the forces of modernity, globalization, authenticity, tourism, religion, regionalism and nationalism in
