Early Literacy in Preschool and Kindergarten Janice J. Beaty, Linda Pratt, 2003. For introductory courses in Early Childhood literacy. To answer the question of what reading and writing activities are best for young children, a well-known early childhood author has joined forces with a literacy expert to explore the development of literacy in the preschool environment and its ongoing support through kindergarten. The result is a pragmatic research-based text whose paradigm shift focuses future teachers on the use of cultural characters from picture books as the keys to an entire curriculum of literacy activities. Based on the latest theories of naturally emergent literacy, this text examines ways to create a literacy-friendly learning environment using music and art as natural languages and even strengthening finger muscles for writing through other hands-on activities. Everything for Winter Kathy Charner, 1997. Reenergize winter classrooms with these fun-filled activities for December, January, and February.

Plant the Tiny Seed Christie Matheson, 2017-01-24. How do you make a garden grow? In this playful companion to the popular Tap the Magic Tree and Touch the Brightest Star, you will see how tiny seeds bloom into beautiful flowers. And by tapping, clapping, waving, and more, young readers can join in the action. Christie Matheson masterfully combines the wonder of the natural world with the interactivity of reading. Beautiful collage and watercolor art follows the seed through its entire life cycle as it grows into a zinnia in a garden full of buzzing bees, curious hummingbirds, and colorful butterflies. Children engage with the book as they wiggle their fingers to water the seeds, clap to make the sun shine after rain, and shoo away a hungry snail. Appropriate for even the youngest child, Plant the Tiny Seed is never the same book twice, no matter how many times you read it. And for curious young nature lovers, a page of facts about seeds, flowers, and the insects and animals featured in the book is included at the end. Fans of Press Here, Eric Carle, and Lois Ehlert will find their next favorite book in Plant the Tiny Seed.

Creative Thinking and Arts-based Learning Joan P. Isenberg, Mary Renck Jalongo, 2006. Creative Thinking and Arts-Based Learning prepares preservice and inservice teachers to know why children's creative thinking and play are so important, know about children's play and creative thinking, and also know how to provide these experiences within the curriculum. It contains extensive coverage of the roles, responsibilities, and strategies that lead to a more child-centered, play-based curriculum. An Applied Approach. Many instructional guidelines and classroom strategies are presented throughout the text for integrating creative thinking and play into learning. Cases about preschoolers, K-2nd graders, and 3rd-4th graders open each chapter and show readers how teachers infuse the arts into learning Meeting Standards This new feature discusses how to provide for creativity in classrooms while also meeting state and national standards Frequently Asked Questions Another new feature poses common questions about issues such as what materials and resources to use how to adapt environments for diverse learners and how to foster and assess creative thought Misconceptions are dispelled with research based answers A Theoretical Approach Solid theory underlies all of the content The authors experience as university professors and practitioners is evident in their clear presentation of relevant theory A Reflective Approach Teacher s Reflections in each chapter tell readers what other preservice and inservice teachers are thinking and doing in their classrooms relative to their experiences with the arts Resources Instructor s Manual and test Bank PowerPoint Slides
