Has Spazz really changed for the better or will Free be forced to do something she should have done long ago: choose herself over everyone else. Though Danger seems to occupy his mind day and night, bringing her back to Dallas is the least of Stranger's worries. When Spazz decides to take business matters into his own hands, he doesn't realize he's just started a brutal war behind Stranger's back. Always the big brother, Stranger has to find a way to clean up Spazz's mess. When Sleep makes a surprise appearance in Dallas, Stranger has a full plate of grown man issues. If nothing else, Stranger is a certified boss, a man that never lets the world see him sweat. He'll go to hell and back to protect his business and his family, but little does he know it just might come down to that. Shots are sent Stranger's way from left to right, forcing him to make a life-changing decision that's been a long time coming. Desperate times call for desperate measures, and just when he thinks he has his business and personal life back on track, Stranger is dealt a shocking truth as he learns the real reason behind Sleep's visit to Dallas. Will Stranger be able to pull the ones he loves out of harm's way, or will someone have to take one for the team? Spazz wouldn't be Spazz without causing chaos wherever he goes, but he soon realizes he's met his match in Free. His plan was to make her want him, but when he realizes he needs her, he decides to do something completely different: for a change, learn how to be a gentleman to Free. Finally on the right track, Spazz likes the new direction Free is taking his life in. He's even making smarter business decisions and stepping up to help lighten the load for Stranger, at least he thinks he is, but it might be too late. Revenge is the one thing Spazz can't let go of, and when he sets out to make his foes pay for disloyalty and disrespect, he digs himself and Stranger even deeper into a savage war that only has room for a single winner. Will Spazz's out-of-control behavior cost them the war in the end? Despite his name, Sleep is anything but quiet and peaceful, and even with Stranger's retaliation, Sleep finally succeeds at catching up with his biggest money maker, Danger.
