Tyranny Of Niceness Unmasking The Need For Approval:

The Tyranny of Niceness Evelyn Sommers, 2005-07-02 The Tyranny of Niceness identifies and confronts our most fundamental social dysfunction niceness Psychologist Evelyn Sommers identifies and confronts our most fundamental social dysfunction niceness Nice Sharon Hodde Miller, 2019-08-20 God never called us to be nice What happens when we replace courage with compromise What happens when we replace honesty with likability What happens when we replace conviction with clichés What happens when we replace discipleship to Christ with a devotion to nice We live in a culture that prizes niceness as one of its highest virtues Niceness keeps the peace wins friends gains influence and serves our reputations well but it also takes the teeth out of our witness and the power out of our faith When we choose to be nice instead of faithful we bear fruits that are bland bitter empty and rotten to the core In this life changing book Sharon Hodde Miller explores the seemingly innocent idol that has crept into our faith and quietly corrupted it producing the bad fruits of cowardice inauthenticity shallowness and more Then she challenges readers to cultivate a better tree providing practical steps to reclaim our credibility as followers of Christ and bear better richer more life giving fruits To Be a Friend David E. Hunt, 2010-12-08 In today's busy world we may fail to realize how important our need for friendship is This book shows readers how to open the flow of friendship in their lives through activities and exercises that allow readers to discover what it is to be a friend The Price of Nice Angelina E. Castagno, 2019-10-22 How being nice in school and university settings works to reinforce racialized gendered and disability related inequities in education and society Being nice is difficult to critique Niceness is almost always portrayed and felt as a positive quality In schools nice teachers are popular among students parents and administrators And yet Niceness as a distinct set of practices and discourses is not actually good for individuals institutions or communities because of the way it maintains and reinforces educational inequity In The Price of Nice an interdisciplinary group of scholars explores Niceness in educational spaces from elementary schools through higher education to highlight how this seemingly benign quality reinforces structural inequalities Grounded in data personal narrative and theory the chapters show that Niceness as a raced gendered and classed set of behaviors functions both as a shield to save educators from having to do the hard work of dismantling inequity and as a disciplining agent for those who attempt or even consider disrupting structures and ideologies of dominance Contributors Sarah Abuwandi Arizona State U Colin Ben U of Utah Nicholas Bustamante Arizona State U Aidan Amanda J Charles Northern Arizona U Jeremiah Chin Arizona State U Sally Campbell Galman U of Massachusetts Frederick Gooding Jr Texas Christian U Deirdre Judge Tufts U Katie A Lazdowski Román Liera U of Southern California Sylvia Mac U of La Verne Lindsey Malcolm Piqueux California Institute of Technology Giselle Martinez Negrette U of Wisconsin Madison Amber Poleviyuma Arizona State U Alexis Richmond Arizona State U Frances J Riemer Northern Arizona U Jessica Sierk St Lawrence U Bailey B Smolarek U of Wisconsin Madison Jessica Solyom Arizona State U Megan Tom Arizona State U Sabina Vaught U of Oklahoma Cynthia Diana

A simple and powerful question. It demands we interrogate the unspoken rules that shape our lives often without our realizing it. It costs nothing to be nice. What a travesty of logic. Niceness is not free; it comes at a steep price. It's a velvet glove over an iron fist stifling dissent, prioritizing comfort over progress and conditioning us to accept the status quo. Niceness is one of the most insidious social constructs keeping us compliant, silent, and complicit in inequity. If we don't question it, we stay exactly where power wants us: agreeable, easy to manage, and stuck. The Price of Nice is about breaking free. Amira Barger deconstructs our cultural obsession with niceness, exposes its hidden costs, and offers a practical framework for real change. With sharp analysis and personal insight, she helps readers disrupt the narratives that keep them stuck and reclaim their power. Guided by four dimensions rooted in social psychology, think, feel, do, revisit, this book offers immediate, adaptable practices for creating change. Because breaking free isn't only what you know, it's what you do next. If you're tired of good enough, this book will challenge you to change you and call you to more. The Dundurn Group The Dundurn Group, Counting Our Losses Darcy L. Harris, 2011-01-19 This text is a valuable resource for clinicians who work with clients dealing with non-death, non-final, and ambiguous losses in their lives. It explores adjustment to change, transition, and loss from the perspective of the latest thinking in bereavement theory and research. The specific and unique aspects of different types of loss are discussed, such as infertility, aging, chronic illnesses, and degenerative conditions, divorce, and separation, immigration, adoption, loss of beliefs, and loss of employment. Harris and the contributing authors consider these from an experiential perspective rather than a developmental one in order to focus on the key elements of each loss as it may be experienced at any point in the lifespan. Concepts related to adaptation and coping with loss, such as resilience, hardiness, meaning-making, and the assumptive world, transcendence, and post-traumatic growth, are considered as part of the integration of loss into everyday life experience. Dundurn Spring/Summer 2006 Cat Dundurn Press Limited, 2006-01-01 The Dundurn Group Bernd Horn, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in Transplantation Hannah Valentine, Ifeoma Ulasi, Chloe Balleste, Paulo Martins, Maria Irene Bellini, Luciano Potena, 2024-12-10 Facing inequalities in transplantation: a call to improve access to care, outcomes, and career developments. Following the call for action launched at the opening ceremony of the 2021 ESOT congress in Milan and the mandate of the ESOT Action Day announced at the celebration of ESOT 40th anniversary on April 28, 2022, Transplant International is pleased to announce the launch of a Special Issue on Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in Transplantation. Gender disparities, minorities, discriminations, barriers related to migration, limited access to healthcare because of low income, and deprived social networks are still routinely embedded in current culture, systems, policies, and practices, perpetuating a vicious cycle of inequity. Transplant International joins the ESOT call for action to ensure equity in transplantation worldwide today and build a more sustainable future for all tomorrow The organ transplantation rate per million population in 2020 demonstrated significant variation across EU countries Despite legal frameworks existing to prevent discrimination equal access to transplantation remains a significant challenge for certain populations Ethnic minorities Comorbidities such as diabetes obesity and hepatitis B C are more prevalent in certain ethnic minority groups This negatively impacts donation and transplantation rates resulting in disproportionately high numbers of ethnic minority patients remaining on waiting lists Migrants face barriers in access to transplant services including lower awareness a lack of full healthcare coverage linguistic obstacles and cultural differences Gender bias Women donate more organs than they receive with men making up the majority of organ transplant recipients While this reflects the increased incidence of conditions that require transplantation amongst men psychological and socio economic factors also contribute Socioeconomics Patients with higher income and education have greater access to the transplant waitlist and transplantation compared with patients with lower income and minimal education Restricted groups Both children due to difficulties finding appropriately sized organs and highly sensitised individuals due to a restricted donor pool face difficulties in receiving a transplant Geography there are significant regional variations in the number of transplants performed within Europe In many countries transplant centres are not evenly distributed across their territory with wealthier areas typically having the most centres This is even more critical in emerging economies let alone least developed countries where access to transplantation is sometimes non existent The aim of this Special Issue is to publish a collection of manuscripts focusing on the evidence examining race gender biased socioeconomic and regional inequity in transplantation We welcome submissions from the whole field of transplantation science from basic to clinical and translational studies aiming to specifically tackle the structural factors resulting in inequity in transplantation We also encourage contributions as opinion personal perspective review clinical experience cohort series as well as clinical studies covering but not limited to the following issues The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005 Canadian Journal of Psychiatry ,2005 Quill & Quire ,2005
