Montessori's Own Handbook Maria Montessori, 2016-08-20 If a preface is a light which should serve to illumine the contents of a volume I choose not words but human figures to illustrate this little book intended to enter families where children are growing up I therefore recall here as an eloquent symbol Helen Keller and Mrs Anne Sullivan Macy who are by their example both teachers to myself and before the world living documents of the miracle in education In fact Helen Keller is a marvelous example of the phenomenon common to all human beings the possibility of the liberation of the imprisoned spirit of man by the education of the senses Here lies the basis of the method of education of which the book gives a succinct idea If one only of the senses sufficed to make of Helen Keller a woman of exceptional culture and a writer who better than she proves the potency of that method of education which builds on the senses If Helen Keller attained through exquisite natural gifts to an elevated conception of the world who better than she proves that in the inmost self of man lies the spirit ready to reveal itself Helen clasp to your heart these little children since they above all others will understand you They are your younger brothers when with bandaged eyes and in silence they touch with their little hands profound impressions rise in their consciousness and they exclaim with a new form of happiness I see with my hands They alone then can fully understand the drama of the mysterious privilege your soul has known When in darkness and in silence their spirit left free to expand their intellectual energy redoubled they become able to read and write without having learnt almost as it were by intuition they only they can understand in part the ecstasy which God granted you on the luminous path of learning Maria Montessori
