Understanding Korean Film Jieun Kiaer,Loli Kim,2021-11-03 Film viewing presents a unique situation in which the film viewer is unwittingly placed in the role of a multimodal translator finding themselves entirely responsible for interpreting multifaceted meanings at the mercy of their own semiotic repertoire Yet researchers have made little attempt as they have for literary texts to explain the gap in translation when it comes to multimodality It is no wonder then that in an era of informed consumerism film viewers have been trying to develop their own toolboxes for the tasks that they are faced with when viewing foreign language films by sharing information online This is particularly the case with South Korean film which has drawn the interest of foreign viewers who want to understand these untranslatable meanings and even go as far as learning the Korean language to do so Understanding Korean Film A Cross Cultural Perspective breaks this long awaited ground by explaining the meaning potential of a selection of common Korean verbal and non verbal expressions in a range of contexts in South Korean film that are often untranslatable for English speaking Western viewers Through the selection of expressions provided in the text readers become familiar with a system that can be extended more generally to understanding expressions in South Korean films Formal analyses are presented in the form of in depth discursive deconstructions of verbal and non verbal expressions within the context of South Korea s Confucian traditions Our case studies thus illustrate in a more systematic way how various meaning potentials can be inferred in particular narrative contexts

Early Korean Literature David McCann,2000-09-14 Preeminent scholar and translator David R McCann presents an anthology of his own translations of works ranging across the major genres and authors of Korean writing stories legends poems historical vignettes and other works and a set of critical essays on major themes A brief history of traditional Korean literature orients the reader to the historical context of the writings thus bringing into focus this rich literary tradition The anthology of translations begins with the Samguk sagi or History of the Three Kingdoms written in 1145 and ends with The Story of Master H written in the late 1700s Three exploratory essays of particular subtlety and lucidity raise interpretive and comparative issues that provide a creative sophisticated framework for approaching the selections

Understanding Korean Americans' Mental Health Sung Seek Moon, Haein Son, Anderson Sungmin Yoon, 2021-07-12 The Korean American community is one of the major Asian ethnic subgroups in the United States Though considered among one of the model minority groups excelling academically and professionally members in this community are plagued by unaddressed mental health obstacles In Understanding Korean Americans Mental Health A Guide to Culturally Competent Practices Program Developments and Policies the editors Anderson Sungmin Yoon Sung Seek Moon and Haein Son examine a variety of mental health issues in the Korean American community including depression suicide substance abuse and trauma and convincingly connect these challenges to cultural stigma and racial prejudice The editors argue that this population and its mental health needs are neglected by current approaches in mainstream mental health services

Alarmingly the very cultural values that help make up the Korean American community are contributing to its members reluctance to seek care counting both familial and communal shame among the most pressing culprits This book supports these claims with statistical realities and seeks to gather the relatively scarce research that does exist on this topic to underscore the heightened prevalence of mental health issues among Korean Americans and the contributors make recommendations for more culturally competent practices program developments and policies Understanding Korean Christianity K. Kale Yu, 2019-10-14 The cultural landscape plays a momentous role in the transmission of Christianity Consequently the global expansion of the church has led to the increasing diversification of world Christianity As a result scholars are turning more and more to native cultures as the point of focus This study examines how this new discourse evolved as well as presenting a missional methodology based on the study of the native landscapes of Korea Kale Yu argues that the process of formulating and communicating Christianity was less consistent than is usually supposed By immersing the reader in the thought and lived experience of various Korean contexts Professor Yu recreates the diversity of cultural landscapes experienced by Korean Christians of different periods in history The result is a new interpretation of cross cultural missional interactions Crisis of Gender and the Nation in Korean Literature and Cinema Kelly Y.

Jeong, 2011-01-01 This book is about the changing constructs of modernity masculinity and gender relations and discourses in Korean literature and cinema during the crucial decades of the colonial and postcolonial era from the 1920s to the 1960s which have an enduring and wide ranging impact on Korea's cultural experiences of the past century Modern Korean

Drama Richard Nichols, 2011 Carefully selected and represented the plays in this collection showcase both the fantastic and the realistic innovations of Korean dramatists during a time of rapid social and historical change Stretching from 1962 to 2004 these seven works tackle major subjects such as the close of the Choson dynasty and the aftermath of the Korean War while delving into trenchant cultural issues such as the marginalization of students who rebel against mainstream education and the role of traditional values in a materialistic society Longtime scholar of Korea and its vibrant politically acute theater Richard Nichols opens with a general overview of modern Korean drama since 1910 and concludes with an appendix describing theater production and audience attendance in Seoul He chooses works that aren't just for Korean audiences These texts confront universal themes and situations tackling the problem of ambition the trouble with fidelity and the complexity of sexual and interpersonal relationships Nichols situates each work critically historically and culturally including brief biographies of playwrights and extensive notes A bibliography also provides alternative readings and the titles of additional plays currently available in English Primed for production these skillful translations provide Western directors with exciting new material for the stage At the same time they offer students and scholars a sophisticated survey of the modern Korean dramatic tradition

Asian Translation Traditions Eva Tsoi Hung Hung, Judy Wakabayashi, 2014-07-16

Translation Studies one of the fastest developing fields in the humanities since the early 1980s has so far been Eurocentric both in its theoretical explorations and in its historical grounding One of the major reasons for this is the unavailability of reliable data and systematic analysis of translation activities in non European cultures While a number of scholars in the Western tradition of translation studies have become increasingly aware of this bias and its problems practically indicates that the burden of addressing such deficiencies and imbalances should be on the shoulders of scholars who are conversant with the non Western translation traditions and capable of engaging in much needed basic research This book brings together eleven scholars with expertise in different Asian translation traditions who highlight language and cultural environments as well as perceptions and modes of operation often different from those in the Western tradition Their contributions enhance our understanding of the various elements that influence the transfer of knowledge across cultures and provide invaluable data for the study of translation as a force for cultural development and cultural planning Contributors include Eva Hung Judy Wakabayashi Lawrence Wong Yoshihiro Osawa Teresa Hyun Keith Taylor Rita Kothari Doris Jedamski Raniela Barbaza and Bill Cummings
