was not sex it was just being with you a lady who made me feel like a woman Words fail me Travel, Translation and Transmedia Aesthetics Shuangyi Li, 2022-01-03 This book examines the works of four contemporary first generation Chinese migrant writer artists in France François CHENG GAO Xingjian DAI Sijie and SHAN Sa They were all born in China moved to France in their adulthood to pursue their literary and artistic ambitions and have enjoyed the highest French and Western institutional recognitions from the Grand Prix de la Francophonie to the Nobel Prize in Literature They have established themselves not only as writers but also as translators calligraphers painters playwrights and filmmakers mainly in their host country French has become their dominant but not only language of literary creation except for Gao yet linguistic idioms poetic imagery and classical thought from Chinese cultural heritage permeate their French texts and visual artworks reflecting a strong translingual and transmedial sensibility The book provides not only distinctive literary and artistic examples beyond existing studies of intercultural encounter French postcolonial and Chinese diasporic enquiries more importantly it formulates a theoretical model that captures the creative dynamics between the French francophone and Chinese sinophone spaces of articulation thereby contributing to contemporary debates about literary and artistic production interpretation and circulation in the global development of comparative world literature as well as intermediality studies

Love Under the Skin Cécile Coquet-Mokoko, 2020-04-15 The rising visibility of interracial couples calls for increased attention to the overlapping of culture and race in safe spaces centered on small group dynamics or in public spaces where peoples of African descent are under the public gaze This comparative study seeks to de center the U S centered viewpoint common to much of the literature on black white relations Based on nine years of fieldwork in the American South and in France Coquet shows many unexpected parallels between the two societies Gendered perceptions of cultural authenticity and sexual ethics are a guiding thread being inseparable from the historical and political contingencies re defining acceptable forms of dating marrying and parenting among cis heterosexual couples in both societies Her account emphasizes resilience and agency as couples seek to protect themselves and their children while their extended or symbolic kinship networks help white partners acknowledge the existence of racial privilege The English Illustrated Magazine ,1904

Love in America Lawrence R. Samuel, 2019-11-22 Widely considered the most complex of human emotions romantic love both shapes and reflects core societal values its expression offering a window into the cultural zeitgeist In popular culture romantic love has long been a mainstay of film television and music The gap between fictitious narratives of love and real life ones is however usually wide American s expectations of romance and affection often transcend reality Tracing the history of love in American culture this book offers insight into both the national character and emotional nature History of English Literature Taine, 1873 New York Magazine ,1986-02-17 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea History of France Jules Michelet, 1845 Unlocking the Love-Lock Ceri Houlbrook, 2021-01-13 Explores the worldwide popularity of the love lock as a ritual token of love and commitment by considering its history symbolism and heritage This is an eminently enjoyable and thorough investigation of a popular phenomenon through the lens of heritage and folk tradition Sara De Nardi Western Sydney University A padlock is a mundane object designed to fulfil a specific and secular purpose A contemporary custom has given padlocks new significance This custom is love locking where padlocks are engraved with names and attached to bridges in declaration of romantic commitment This custom became popular in the 2000s and its dissemination was rapid geographically unbound and highly divisive with love locks emerging in locations as diverse as Paris and Taiwan New York and Seoul Melbourne and Moscow From the introduction I was distractedly perusing the photo frame aisle my eyes skimming the generically sentimental stock pictures of happy families smiling at the camera pretty landscapes cute pets and couples walking hand in hand when I came across one that jumped out at me I recognised the image instantly as a photograph of love locks the padlocks that had been appearing en masse on bridges and other public structures on a global scale since the early 2000s And having been researching the custom known as lovelocking for about five years at that point it was with a peculiar sense of pride that I realised love locks had accomplished the status of a stock image Food and Language Richard Hosking, 2010 Essays on food and language from the Proceedings of the Oxford Symposium on Food and Cooking 2009
