computing Kenneth C. Laudon, 1996-06-01 How does the current System for regulating the Press Compare with the Recommendations of the Leveson Inquiry? Wahid Luvonga, 2018-03-26 Essay from the year 2018 in the subject Communications Ethics in the Media grade 95 Academy of Media Arts Cologne language English abstract This essay will attempt to evaluate how the Leveson inquiry recommendations improved or did not the press regulating environment It will start off by examining the background of the Leveson inquiry and go on to list its recommendations Subsequently the essay will assess the current regulating environment and discern if the Leveson recommendations have been effective in curbing unethical issues in journalism The press commonly known as the fourth estate acts as the guardian of public interest It is supposed to witness major events and report incidents that nobody else can proclaim. Indeed it also has the duty to entertain be opinionated contemptuous and disruptive if an occasion necessitates it. But not all press acts for the public good. Consequently the media have in several instances disregarded its own code of ethics and this has severely damaged the life of many innocent individuals. This led to a consensus by many stakeholders that the former watchdog Press Complaints Commission PCC was unfit to act as a regulator hence the setting up of various watchdogs such as IPSO and the Impress Project to help and bring back public confidence in the media.
