Handbook of Hospitality Operations and IT Peter Jones, 2008-09-10 Handbook of Hospitality Operations and IT provides an authoritative resource for critical reviews of research into both operations and IT management Internationally renowned scholars provide in depth essays and explanations of case studies to illustrate how practices and concepts can be applied to the hospitality industry The depth and coverage of each topic is unprecedented A must read for hospitality researchers and educators students and industry practitioners The Sustainable City IX N. Marchettini, C.A. Brebbia, R. Pulselli, S. Bastianoni, 2014-09-23 Containing the proceedings of the 9th International Conference on Urban Regeneration and Sustainability this book addresses the multi disciplinary aspects of urban planning a result of the increasing size of cities the amount of resources and services required and the complexity of modern society Most of earth's population now lives in cities and the process of urbanisation still continues generating many problems deriving from the drift of the population towards them These problems can be resolved by cities becoming efficient habitats saving resources in a way that improves the quality and standard of living The process however faces a number of major challenges related to reducing pollution improving main transportation and infrastructure systems New urban solutions are required to optimise the use of space and energy resources leading to improvements in the environment i.e. reduction in air water and soil pollution as well as efficient ways to deal with waste generation These challenges contribute to the development of social and economic imbalances and require the development of new solutions Large cities are probably the most complex mechanisms to manage However despite such complexity they represent a fertile ground for architects engineers city planners social and political scientists and other professionals able to conceive new ideas and time them according to technological advances and human requirements The challenge of planning sustainable cities lies in considering their dynamics the exchange of energy and matter and the function and maintenance of ordered structures directly or indirectly supplied and maintained by natural systems Topics covered include Urban strategies Planning development and management Urban conservation and regeneration The community and the city Eco town planning Landscape planning and design Environmental management Sustainable energy and the city Transportation Quality of life Waterfront development Case studies Architectural issues Cultural heritage issues Intelligent environment and emerging technologies Planning for risk Disaster and emergency response Safety and security Waste management Infrastructure and society Urban metabolism Hospitality Management, Strategy and Operations Lynn Van der Wagen, Anne Goonetilleke, 2015-05-20 Hospitality Management 3e covers the core competency units in SIT07 Tourism Hospitality and Events Training Package for the Diploma and Advanced Diploma in Hospitality Management It provides the foundation knowledge needed for the role of a hospitality manager The 3rd edition continues to combine theory with a skills building approach to explain the key principles of hospitality management at a supervisory line management and senior management level The text helps students develop the professional skills necessary to ensure quality products and services in all hospitality operations

Accounting and Financial Management Peter Harris, Marco Mongiello, 2012-05-31 Accounting and Financial Management developments in the international hospitality industry presents new and innovative research and developments in the field of accounting and financial management as it relates to the work of managing enterprises and organisations in the international hospitality industry. The content contains contributions from a rich source of international researchers, academics and practitioners including university and college lecturers, professional accountants and consultants and senior managers involved in a wide range of teaching, scholarship, research and consultancy in the hospitality industry worldwide. The material is drawn from their work and experience and relates directly to the management of hospitality undertakings. Therefore, the up to date case studies and examples used are taken from a wide ranging of companies across the industry including large international chains such as Sheraton, Holiday Inn and Intercontinental. Divided into three parts: Performance Management, Information Management and Asset Management, the book tackles the following issues amongst others: Performance management in the international hospitality industry; Benchmarking; measuring financial success; The profit planning framework; Making room rate pricing decisions; Hotel asset management: UK and US perspectives; Lowering risk to enhance hospitality firm value; Accounting and Financial Management developments in the international hospitality industry. Presents current developments drawn from a combination of live fieldwork and practical experience and therefore will appeal to a wide ranging readership including practising managers and financial controllers in hospitality organisations, professional accountants and consultants, postgraduate candidates studying for master's degrees in hospitality management and final year undergraduate students of hospitality management who elect to take an accounting option.

International Encyclopedia of Hospitality Management Abraham Pizam, 2012-06-25. The International Encyclopedia of Hospitality Management is the definitive reference work for any individual studying or working in the hospitality industry. There are 185 Hospitality Management degrees in the UK alone. This new edition updates and significantly revises twenty five per cent of the entries and has an additional twenty new entries. New online material makes it the most up to date and accessible hospitality management encyclopedia on the market. It covers all of the relevant issues in the field of hospitality management from a sectoral level: lodging, restaurants, food service, time share, clubs and events as well as a functional one: accounting and finance, marketing, strategic management, human resources, information technology and facilities management. Its unique user friendly structure enables readers to find exactly the information they require at a glance, whether they require broad detail that takes a more cross sectional view across each subject field or more focused information that looks closely at specific topics and issues within the hospitality industry today.

Hospitality Financial Accounting Jerry J. Weygandt, 2005. Feasibility Studies for Hotels Wolfgang Fercher, 2006-10-16 Inhaltsangabe Abstract The intensity of competition in the tourism business especially in the hotel industry has continuously grown during the last years This development leads to the situation that capital investments in the hospitality industry are connected with ever increasing risks In order to minimize these risk potentials a detailed evaluation of the competitiveness and market compatibility of a planned project is an essential part of any project development process Those analyses are covered in the course of a feasibility study which encloses all aspects that influence the success of a hotel project In this context a feasibility study serves as an information tool for project developers investors tenants hotel operators and financiers in order to make decisions with regard to a specific hotel project The preparation of a feasibility study requires the combination of a multitude of aspects hence input from all participants in the project development process Getting hold of information and the appropriate usage of this information is crucial in order to ensure the success of a study The main objective of this diploma thesis is to identify the most important and current issues in feasibility evaluation of hotel projects In practice many studies are prepared following a fixed model which has not been changed for years However the hospitality industry is highly competitive and dynamic new additions to the existing supply therefore need to be analyzed very carefully The focus of this diploma thesis is specifically put on the hospitality industry This means that feasibility evaluation for other types of project development in the tourist industry is not subject to this study The aim of the thesis is on the one hand to point out aspects that have to be taken into consideration in any study and to give suggestions for improvements on the other hand The author has laid down the following four hypotheses that serve as the main source for the research questions Hypothesis 1 The sensitivity analysis is the most important component of a feasibility study Hypothesis 2 A feasibility study is the most important decision making factor for the investor in a hotel project Hypothesis 3 If the results of a feasibility study seem to turn out negative then the operative concept of the project is changed Hypothesis 4 The level of the construction cost is the factor that is most difficult to estimate and is therefore

Building Public Trust Samuel A. DiPiazza, Jr., Robert G. Eccles, 2002-09-18 Business reporting in a post apocalypse global marketplace Clearly now is the time for creating an effective business reporting model appropriate for the markets of the twenty first century Rather than start from scratch after the Enron Andersen fiasco two leading consultants from PricewaterhouseCoopers present a plan that supplements the current model one in which executives accountants analysts investors regulators and other stakeholders can truly embrace the spirit of transparency The Future of Corporate Reporting highlights the best practices for global financial reporting explaining the concept of performance auditing which focuses on the real performance of the business as opposed to technical adherence to GAAS Eccles and Masterson also discuss the pros and cons of GAAP v IAS present new approaches to reforming financial reporting and outline a twenty first century model of accounting that will improve markets and benefit shareholders

Profit Planning Peter Harris, 2010-02-17 This new edition of Profit Planning is ideal for hotel restaurant and licensed house managers as it focuses on profit planning the major area of finance which the general manager needs to get to grips with The practical aspects of day to day profit planning are emphasized which means that the reader can understand the approach with the minimum of theory and technical jargon The examples and illustrations used can easily be translated into all aspects of the hospitality industry so this book has a wide appeal Unit managers now have high levels of finance responsibility at an early stage in their career This reflects the growth in strongly branded and market oriented chains of pubs and restaurants which need to achieve swift returns on their investments The financial management skills expected of unit managers are therefore growing in sophistication and this new edition takes full account of this
