Union With Christ The New Finnish Interpretation Of Luther:

Union with Christ Carl E. Braaten, Robert W. Jenson, 1998 This book introduces the English speaking world to the new Finnish interpretation of the theology of Martin Luther initiated by the writings of Tuomo Mannermaa of Helsinki University At the heart of the Finnish breakthrough in Luther research lies the theme of salvation Luther found his answer to the mystery of salvation in the justifying work of Christ received through faith alone But Protestant theology has never enjoyed a consensus on how to interpret the Reformation doctrine of justification by faith In opposition to the traditional forensic understanding of justification Mannermaa argues that for Luther Christ is really present in faith itself Mannermaa s interpretation of Luther s view of justification is thus more ontological and mystical than ethical and juridical As such his work challenges a century of scholarly opinion concerning a foundational doctrine of Protestant theology Encyclopedia of Martin Luther and the Reformation Mark A. Lamport, 2017-08-31 The Encyclopedia of Martin Luther and the Reformation is a comprehensive global study of the life and work of Martin Luther and the movements that followed him in history and through today Organized by a stellar advisory board of Luther and Reformation scholars the encyclopedia features nearly five hundred entries that examine Luther s life and impact worldwide The two volume set provides overviews of basics such as the 95 Theses as well as more complex topics such as reformational distinctions Entries explore Luther s contributions to theology sacraments his influence on the church and contemporaries his character and more The work also discusses Luther s controversies and topics such as gender sexuality and race Publishing at the five hundredth anniversary of the Reformation this is an essential reference work for understanding the Reformation and its legacy today Justification and the Future of the Ecumenical Movement George A. Lindbeck, 2003 On October 31 1999 officials of the Lutheran World Federation and the Roman Catholic Church in Augsburg Germany signed an Official Common Statement with its Annex and the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification declaring publicly and in a binding manner that a consensus in basic truths of the doctrine of justification exists between Lutherans and Catholics A number of the essays in this book emanate from a conference at the Berkeley Divinity School of Yale University in 2000 that discussed the import of this momentous declaration for ecumenism The Holy Spirit and the Reformation Legacy Mark J. Cartledge, Mark A. Jumper, 2020-09-16 This collection of essays explores the legacy of the Reformation with regard to the person and work of the Holy Spirit Following the five hundredth anniversary of Luther s posting of his ninety five theses these essays consider this legacy with particular reference to the work of Martin Luther and John Calvin as well as broader Reformation themes as they are related to pneumatology and the life of the church today The contribution of this collection is to tease out and reflect on pneumatology historically but also to relate these findings to contemporary discussions especially among scholars of pentecostal and charismatic Christianity Together these essays invite readers to appreciate the contribution that the Protestant Reformation makes to life in the Holy Spirit today as well as offering critical and constructive reflection on this theme It is a timely and significant contribution to the discussions of the person and work of the Holy Spirit and the church

Theosis in the Theology of Thomas Torrance Dr Myk Habets, 2013-05-28 Torrance's vision of Theosis deification divinisation is explored through his doctrine of creation and anthropology his characterisation of the incarnation his accounts of reconciliation and union with Christ and his theology of church and sacraments Myk Habets study distinguishes Torrance's Reformed vision of theosis from other possible accounts of salvation as divinisation as they are found for instance within patristic thought and Eastern Orthodoxy This book presents the first critique of the theology of T F Torrance to focus on theosis and examines a model of theosis within the realm of reformed theology built upon Western theology The Doctrine on Which the Church Stands or Falls (Foreword by D. A. Carson) Matthew Barrett, 2019-03-14 Many factors contributed to the Protestant Reformation but one of the most significant was the debate over the doctrine of justification by faith alone In fact Martin Luther argued that justification is the doctrine on which the church stands or falls This comprehensive volume of 26 essays from a host of scholars explores the doctrine of justification from the lenses of history the Bible theology and pastoral practice revealing the enduring significance of this pillar of Protestant theology Sabbath Rest as Vocation Autumn Alcott Ridenour, 2018-06-14 Autumn Alcott Ridenour offers a Christian theological discussion on the meaning of aging toward death with purpose identity and communal significance Drawing from both explicit claims and constructive interpretations of St Augustine's and Karl Barth's understanding of death and aging this volume describes moral virtue as participation in Christ across generations culminating in preparation for Sabbath rest during the aging stage of life Addressing the inevitability of aging the prospect of mortality the importance of contemplative action and expanding upon the virtues of growing older Ridenour analyzes how locating moral agency as union with Christ results in virtuous practices for aging individuals and their surrounding communities By responding with constructive theology to challenges from transhumanist bioethical and medical arenas the volume highlights implications not only for virtue ethics but also for the goals of medicine Living in Union with Christ Kye Won Lee, 2003 This book gives a thorough synopsis and articulation of the theology of Thomas F Torrance one of the most consistent evangelical theologians of this century The inner structure of his theology reveals three concepts that revolve around an axis of union and communion perichoresis unio hypostatica and koinonia Torrance's central theme of union with Christ is established in his Christology and soteriology is confirmed by his epistemology and bears great fruits in his ecclesiology and sacramentology This intrinsic Christological pattern runs through the entire structure of his theology The recovery of such an understanding of union with Christ provides critical and constructive implications for the theological ecclesiological and liturgical renewal of the Church Affirmation & Critique

, 1999 Luther Between Present and Past Ulrik Nissen, 2004 Mid-America Journal of Theology, 2005 Luther Digest, 2009 Andrews University Seminary Studies Andrews University. Seventh-Day Adventist Theological Seminary, 2000 Nova Et Vetera, 2007 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991 Shall We Sin? Jeffrey K. Mann, 2003

The antinomian question which asks about the potential repercussions of sin when one is justified through faith apart from works appears with considerable regularity in the history of Lutheranism This book seeks to elucidate how Lutherans have responded to this question since the time of Martin Luther by discussing how they answered those who would use Christian liberty as an excuse for sin Beginning with Luther and continuing with Philipp Melanchthon Philipp Jakob Spener S ren Kierkegaard and Dietrich Bonhoeffer the theological contributions of these figures are evaluated on the basis of their strength originality and orthodoxy in responding to the antinomian question Wisconsin Lutheran Quarterly ,1999
