Unisa Courses For 2014 To 2015:

Transforming Higher Education Through Universal Design for Learning Seán Bracken, Katie Novak, 2019-02-21 Providing insight into the background theory and practical applications of Universal Design for Learning UDL Transforming Higher Education through Universal Design for Learning An International Perspective examines and shares best practice in UDL implementation worldwide to provide strategies for strengthening student accessibility engagement and learning outcomes through the development of flexible learning environments Drawing upon insightful research based contributions from educators and student service specialists in Australia Belgium Brazil Canada Ireland Israel Norway South Africa Spain the UK and all across the USA this book considers diversity in the form of disability minority ethnic groups gender identities first generation university students and varying socio economic backgrounds brings together key thinkers and actors in the field of UDL and expertly maps its practices to the higher educational domain explores the multiple means of representation expression and engagement that combine to create a successful UDL framework Each chapter not only provides a different perspective of how UDL has helped meet the needs of all students to ensure that education is accessible culturally responsive and socially just but also considers how this can then be implemented into higher education environments the world over This book is a crucial read for those who want to make a positive difference in higher education provision and outcomes

Trends in E-learning Mahmut Sinecen, 2018-08-01 This book presents a collection of different researches and results on e learning The chapters cover the deficiencies requirements advantages and disadvantages of e learning and distance learning So the authors reported their research and analysis results on e learning according to their areas of expertise

Engaging in Transnational Education Karen Mpamhanga, 2025-02-28 This book offers a clear and concise introduction to transnational higher education Drawing on research current sector guidance and policy it asks critical questions about the role and nature of transnational education motivations for engaging in transnational education how transnational education is quality assured and how it might develop in the future It unpacks some of the differences in practice and their inherent complexities in an accessible way encouraging the reader to consider their own role and context Critical Practice in Higher Education is a series which provides a scholarly and practical entry point for academics into key areas of higher education practice Each book in the series explores an individual topic in depth providing an overview in relation to current thinking and practice informed by recent research The series will be of interest to those engaged in the study of higher education those involved in leading learning and teaching or working in academic development and individuals seeking to explore particular topics of professional interest Through critical engagement this series aims to promote an expanded notion of being an academic connecting research teaching scholarship community engagement and leadership while developing confidence and authority Having spent my time researching practitioner both host and overseas interactions in TNE I passionately believe that practitioner engagement and participation is fundamental to the successful delivery of any TNE initiative I am therefore delighted to endorse this book and recommend it to any practitioner who wishes to understand the phenomenon of TNE in greater detail to improve their knowledge and practice Dr C M Bordogna The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser, 2016-09-20 The publication provides the first comprehensive text that reflects on a century of the development of geography as an academic discipline at South African universities The book showcases a broad and textured review of South Africa's geography departments their staff members their times and the different Geographies they engaged in The book lays the foundation from which more expansive individual departmental histories can be written in the future Universities as Living Labs for Sustainable Development Walter Leal Filho, Amanda Lange Salvia, Rudi W. Pretorius, Luciana Londero Brandli, Evangelos Manolas, Fatima Alves, Ulisses Azeiteiro, Judy Rogers, Chris Shiel, Arminda Do Paco, 2019-04-30 This book fills an important gap in the literature and presents contributions from scientists and researchers working in the field of sustainable development who have engaged in dynamic approaches to implementing sustainability in higher education It is widely known that universities are key players in terms of the implementation and further development of sustainability with some having the potential of acting as living labs in this rapidly growing field Yet there are virtually no publications that explore the living labs concept as it relates to sustainability and in an integrated manner The aims of this book which is an outcome of the 4th World Symposium on Sustainable Development at Universities WSSD U 2018 held in Malaysia in 2018 are as follows i to document the experiences of universities from all around the world in curriculum innovation research activities and practical projects as they relate to sustainable development at the university level ii to disseminate information ideas and experiences acquired in the execution of projects including successful initiatives and good practice iii to introduce and discuss methodological approaches and projects that seek to integrate the topic of sustainable development in the curricula of universities and iv to promote the scalability of existing and future models from universities as living labs for sustainable development The papers are innovative cross cutting and many reflect practice based experiences some of which may be replicable elsewhere Also this book prepared by the Inter University Sustainable Development Research Programme IUSDRP and the World Sustainable Development Research and Transfer Centre WSD RTC reinforces the role played by universities as living labs for sustainable development Tertiary Education at a Glance 2015, 2015 Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Paradise Lost, 2022-06-13 Paradise Lost Race and Racism in Post apartheid South Africa is about the continuing salience of race and persistence of racism in post apartheid South Africa The chapters in the volume illustrate the multiple ways in which race and racism are manifested and propose various strategies to confront racial inequality racism and the power structure that underpins it while exploring how through a renewed commitment to a non racial society apartheid racial categories can be put under erasure at exactly the time they are being reinforced Unisa Latin American Report ,1989 Mechanics of Masonry Structures Strengthened with Composite Materials Angelo di Tommaso,Cristina Gentilini,Giovanni Castellazzi,2014-09-12 Selected peer reviewed papers from the 4th International Seminar on Mechanics of Masonry Structures Strengthened with Composite Materials MuRiCo4 2014 September 9 11 2014 Ravenna Italy Kaapse bibliotekaris ,2016 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 Annual Report South Africa. Department of Cooperative Governance,2016 Annual Report South Africa. Department of Basic Education,2016 LETS ,2015 Namibia Presidential and National Assembly Elections, 28 November 2014 Commonwealth Expert Team,Commonwealth Expert Team (Namibia : 2014),2015 The report of the Commonwealth Expert Team for Namibia presidential and national assembly elections held on 28 November 2014 The team was led by Artemisa Franco former commissioner of the National Electoral Commission of Mozambique and included Victor Shale former Zimbabwe country director for the Electoral Institute for Sustainable Democracy in Africa These elections were historic not only for the country but for the entire African continent as they were the first elections to use entirely electronic voting The team found that despite a number of technical glitches which caused significant delays in the overall voting process the elections were competitive met key democratic benchmarks and election day was generally well administered Annual Report ... South Africa. Department of Higher Education and Training,2016 The Evolving Curriculum in Interpreter and Translator Education David B. Sawyer, Frank Austermühl, Vanessa Enríquez Raído,2019 The Evolving Curriculum in Interpreter and Translator Education Stakeholder perspectives and voices examines forces driving curriculum design implementation and reform in academic programs that prepare interpreters and translators for employment in the public and private sectors The evolution of the translating and interpreting professions and changes in teaching practices in higher education have led to fundamental shifts in how translating and interpreting knowledge skills and abilities are acquired in academic settings Changing conceptualizations of curricula processes of innovation and reform technology refinement of teaching methodologies specific to translating and interpreting and the emergence of collaborative institutional networks are examples of developments shaping curricula Written by noted stakeholders from both employer organizations and academic programs in many regions of the world the timely and useful contributions in this comprehensive international volume describe the impact of such forces on the conceptual foundations and frameworks of interpreter and translator education Bulletin of the National Library of South Africa ,2015 Journal of Dramatic Theory and Criticism ,2014 Zambezi Environment Outlook 2015 Zambezi Watercourse Commission,Southern African Development Community,Southern African Research and Documentation Centre,2015
