Unisa My Choice 2015:

Complacent Nation Gavin Ellis, 2016-08-12 New Zealanders are too complacent about the continuing erosion of their right to know what government is doing on their behalf Political risk has become a primary consideration in whether official information requests will be met and successive governments have allowed free speech rights to be overridden Drawing on decades of experience as a journalist and editor Gavin Ellis chronicles the patterns of erosion and calls for entrenchment of the Bill of Rights Act As supreme law it would set a high bar that politicians must hurdle before freedom of expression could be curtailed

Lugalla: Rethinking Teacher Education ,2023-06-27 Rethinking Teacher Education Improvement Innovation and Change is the result of the conference organised by The Aga Khan University Institute for Educational Development East Africa AKU IED EA on education in Uganda in 2017 The Conference gathered participants from nine countries to deliberate on a cross section of factors regarding teacher education in the region and landscaping the same on global perspectives The choice of the conference theme was inspired by a need to consider new systems policies structures and reforms to help drive sustainable education for the development of nations in the East African region A variety contributors participated from across the education landscape and included researchers working in higher education practitioners such as teachers in schools tutors instructors in colleges and lecturers and professors at universities Also contributing were non governmental organisations with interests in education and student learning outcomes civil society organisations whose interests navigate the role education plays in social and national development policy makers and curriculum developers librarians publishers booksellers and teacher trainees all of who shared their rich experiences and perspectives on teacher education in the 21st century in East Africa and globally

Superstition, Management and Organisations Joanna Crossman, 2024-04-30 This book addresses how people and organisations sometimes respond to uncertainty in making decisions Those decisions are rooted in beliefs and behaviours that are not always rational especially in response to perceived randomness chaos and unexpected circumstances The author uses a transdisciplinary approach to the study of superstition in the context of business and management taking care to acknowledge that what is regarded as superstition to one person may well be constructed as a spiritual belief by another Respect and sensitivity in explicating individual and social constructions of spirituality is a core value in structuring the narrative of the text The work also explores the interwoven relationships amongst superstition religion spirituality and empiricism and how cultural political economic and environmental factors are likely to influence organisations and those who are employed by them Further it examines the influence of beliefs related to topics such as feng shui astrology phrenology and the I Ching in recruitment This comprehensive treatment of the role of superstition in business will advance the scholarly conversation on uncertainty in decision making It points to the power of belief that defies empirical validation and how it can be used in a variety of contexts such as the marketing of products and images to manipulate unwary consumers or inhibit the implementation of health advice in times of COVID 19

Hayek: A

Educating Citizen Designers in South Africa Elmarie Costandius, Herman Botes, 2018-09-07 Educating Citizen Designers in South Africa is the first book of its kind to appear in post apartheid South Africa and it is therefore both overdue and extremely welcome The book aims at sharing critical citizenship design teaching and learning pedagogies by including contributions from a range of design educators and one student who work in different design disciplines such as architecture graphic and product design Critical citizenship education is explicated in relation to a range of theories and new and existing models Numerous contemporary case studies and examples of design projects from a range of South African Higher Education Institutions are included As such a variety of perspectives emerge including the consensual where the aim of critical citizenship education is viewed as promoting social justice shared values and critical thinking to the conflicting where critiques are levelled against conceptions of critical citizenship education Contentious contesting and contradictory views are inevitable and necessary given the South African context as it is only in open debate that the one point of agreement among the authors the need for social change can be worked towards Prof Deirdre Pretorius University of Johannesburg Global Servant-Leadership Shann Ray Ferch, Philip Mathew, Jiying Song, Larry C. Spears, 2020-11-12 In Global Servant Leadership Wisdom Love and Legitimate Power in the Age of Chaos leadership scholars and practitioners from around the globe share their insights on servant leadership philosophy representing diverse contexts and cultures and reflecting a variety of approaches to servant leadership through cutting edge research conceptual models and practice oriented case studies The contributors to this collection address some of the most significant leadership challenges of the twenty first century to reveal a path toward more healthy and sustainable individuals families organizations and nations Global Servant Leadership challenges not only the rigidly held assumptions of traditional hierarchical leadership approaches but provides an antidote to the cynicism so often present within workplaces political struggles and individual and family crises of contemporary polarized nation states Student Plagiarism in Higher Education Diane Pecorari, Philip Shaw, 2018-10-09 Student Plagiarism in Higher Education is a crucial read for any university teacher concerned about plagiarism It provides the tools and information needed to assess this often complex international phenomenon constructively and effectively from a variety of angles and provides a framework for further discussion and research Each chapter poses a question about an essential aspect of plagiarism and examines the central theoretical ethical and technical questions which surround it Providing a unique perspective on the topic of academic plagiarism this book addresses questions which are vexing in teaching practice but for which ready answers are not available in professional skills development materials relates plagiarism to wider issues of learning and intellectual development collates the thinking of international leading experts on the topic of plagiarism from different areas of the academy Student Plagiarism in Higher Education provides an excellent insight which thoroughly interrogates all aspects of the plagiarism argument Theoretically based and carefully considered contributions from international experts ensure that this volume is an invaluable asset to anyone wishing to read more learn more and think more about plagiarism Towards Consistency and Transparency in Academic Integrity Salim Razi, Irene Glendinning, Tomáš Foltýnek, 2019 This book aims to be a forum for sharing best practices and experiences by addressing issues of academic integrity from a wide scope global perspective It is dealing with consistent and transparent approaches to issues of academic integrity from several perspectives Kaapse bibliotekaris, 2015 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 Walking Along the Deep Maranda Tshifhumulo Khodani, 2015-11-01 Margret is a 22 year old young girl who has to choose between God her parent s wish and her dream to become an independent woman things started to be difficult for her when she met Simon a guy whom she fellowshiped with at church They fall in love with each other though it was hard for them to understand their feelings for each other They both wanted legitimate marriage yet they did not have finances and when the chemistry of their love started to arouse and took their love to the next level They decided to get married for the sake of their relationship with God Margret s father was angry and he hated both his daughter and Simon fortunately it taught him to allow his wife to be educated Margret and Simon even though they got married they were so surprised to learn that the deep was not sweet and safe as they thought no matter how much two people love each other there will always be opposition and challenges that will shake the marriage to draw inside the deep They struggled to have children and they did not give up they accepted that God s timing is the best Margret s mother was studying nursing at the University of Venda while Margret dropped out due to financial problem as thirsty as she was to be independent it was hard for her to accept Later at the end after going through much agony in their love they learned to be happy even in the dark deep that is raging at them they have learned that the best medicine is to love and laugh to provoke the devil who is trying to destroy their marriage they won t spend their time together frowning merely because God is not giving them the fruits of marriage which is children but they believed that sooner or later his word will come to pass and all their shame will be forgotten Forming, Recruiting and Managing the Academic Profession Ulrich Teichler, William K. Cummings, 2015-06-05 This book focuses on the changes in academic careers and their implications for job attachment and the management of academic work Against the background of an ageing profession with different demands on academic staff increasing insecurity accountability and internationalisation it discusses important common themes in detail This book examines such aspects as the nature of academic careers and recent changes in careers changing biographies rewards of academic work such as income and job satisfaction internationalisation of the academy and the organisation and management of academic work sites This book is the second of two books highlighting findings from research on the academic profession notably the Changing Academic Profession Study and the European project supported by the European Science Foundation on changes in the academic profession in Europe EUROAC An adapted version of the CAP questionnaire has been used to carry out the survey in those countries that had not been involved before in the CAP survey Altogether 19 countries are covered by the CAP project and an additional seven European countries are covered by EUROAC Democracy's Education Harry C. Boyte, 2015-02-01 Today Americans feel powerless in the face of problems on every front Such feelings are acute in higher education where educators are experiencing an avalanche of changes cost cutting new technologies and demands that higher education be narrowly geared to the needs of today's workplace College graduates face mounting debt and uncertain job prospects and worry about a coarsening of the mass culture and the erosion of authentic human relationships Higher education is increasingly seen and often portrays itself as a ticket to individual success a private good not a public one Democracy's Education grows from the American Commonwealth Partnership a year long project to revitalize the democratic narrative of higher education that began with an invitation to Harry Boyte from the White House to put together a coalition aimed at strengthening higher education as a public good The project was launched at the beginning of 2012 to mark the 150th anniversary of the Morrill Act which created land grant colleges Beginning with an essay by Harry C Boyte Reinventing Citizenship as Public Work which challenges educators and their partners to claim their power to shape the story of higher education and the civic careers of students the collection brings world famous scholars senior government officials and university presidents together with faculty students staff community organizers and intellectuals from across the United States and South Africa and Japan Contributors describe many constructive responses to change already taking place in different kinds of institutions and present cutting edge ideas like civic science civic studies citizen professionalism and citizen alumni Authors detail practical approaches to making change from new faculty and student roles to changes in curriculum and student life and strategies for everyday citizen empowerment Overall the work develops a democratic story of education urgently needed to address today's challenges from climate change to growing inequality
