

Prayer of Confession

Heavenly God, you have called us to share ourselves, to get ourselves lost rather than first. Praise us when we find that we find, and when we find you in others. Praise us for the things we should have done, but have left undone. Praise us for the opportunities we have missed to share your love, and for our failure to serve you as we promised. Teach us by the example of your Son, who laid down his life for others, so that our lives may speak not of ourselves, but of you. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

Words of Invitation

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!
In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!
Glory to God, Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Offering

"The Gift" from Our Musical Group Ralph Vaughan Williams (4:58)

Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life, such a way as gives us breath, such a truth as sets us free,
such a life as is full of life.
Come, my Light, my Peace, my Strength, such a light as gives us breath, such a peace as makes us long,
such a strength as makes us good.
Come, my Joy, my Love, my Hope,
such a joy as sets us free, such a love as sets us free,
such a hope as gives us life.

The King of Love My Shepherd Is John Newell (4:58)

The King of love my shepherd is, whose goodness I feel Touching each of us this and this is our theme
When streams of living water flow, my heart and soul be led
And when the golden pasture grows, with food and drink be fed
In Jesus' dark and I feel with Him, dear Lord, be led
The red and white we cannot see, the cross before us guide
And so through all the length of days, the goodness I feel Lead me, dear Lord, my Shepherd, now I sing Thy praise with Thy loved ones.

United Methodist Prayers Of Confession:

American Methodist Worship Karen B. Westerfield Tucker, 2001-03-08 American Methodist Worship is the most comprehensive history of worship among John Wesley's various American spiritual descendants that has ever been written. It will be a foundational book for anyone who wishes to understand how American Methodists have worshipped. Sacramental Life. This groundbreaking study will help to reshape the way that we think about early American Methodist worship and how it connects to more recent trends. The Journal of Religion Karen Westerfield Tucker's exhaustive examination of the history of American Methodist worship may indeed launch a new genre in liturgical historiography: denominational liturgical histories. The genius of this contribution is its comprehensiveness in examining for the first time the worship life of an American ecclesiological tradition. Doxology

Just in Time! Prayers and Liturgies of Confession and Assurance Rev. Kenneth H. Carter JR., 2010-09-01 In a brief introductory chapter the author addresses the question of why we need to confess our sins and offers three reflections in response: Sin as Pride, Sin as Violation of Boundaries, Sin and the Possibility of Forgiveness. The book includes seventy prayers of confession and words of assurance with accompanying liturgies and music suggestions. Scripture and hymn indexes included. The prayers are offered in three sections: confession and pardon related to The Human Condition, The Holy Scriptures, The Liturgical Year. The Just in Time Series offers brief practical resources of immediate help for pastors at an affordable price.

United Methodist Worship Hoyt Leon Hickman, 1991 Guidebook clearly explains why United Methodists worship as they do. An ideal gift book for new members or useful to anyone seeking a deeper understanding of United Methodist worship and a renewed sense of vitality in his or her own worship experience. This book also offers information on the Christian year and on various rites of passage such as baptism, weddings, and funerals.

The Work of the People Marlea Gilbert, Christopher Grundy, Eric T. Myers, Stephanie Perdew, 2006-12-31 Worship is the work of the people of God. Patterns of worship shape how we pray and how we live. Despite its centrality to church life, worship is too often taken for granted as something a congregation experiences rather than collectively creates. The Work of the People simply and clearly explains the structure of worship, the actions and words we use in liturgy, the environment in which it all happens, in other words, what we are doing and why. This book will guide congregations in worshiping in a way that encourages participants' spiritual growth, welcomes new participants into faith, and sends people out as the body of Christ to transform the world. Respectful of local custom and the traditions and practices of the Church as a whole, The Work of the People will help worship leaders make the best use of their congregation's resources and clarify their choices about how they will worship together. Built around a basic service: gathering, service of the Word, Eucharist, and sending, this book is both theological and practical and encourages all worshipers' active participation in Spirit-led worship of the God of all Creation.
