University of California Chronicle, Vol. 5 (Classic Reprint), 2018-01-16 Excerpt from University of California Chronicle Vol 5 Wherever men and women meet to do honor to a university they meet in the faith that education is a life long growth not an access to books and teachers for a few fortunate years but a process that keeps pace with life that broadens and deepens with experience We test books by no less magical a touchstone than life itself We search life unceasingly for the evidence of those great hopes which we have learned from literature I wish to take this tenet of our common creed and apply it to a somewhat wider field than that of the individual The national life too is a long process of education The nation like the individual tests by experience the value of its bookish theories and out of its experience in turn spring its Vital books The history of literature in America is the history more or less accurately translated of American life Not every phase of national existence it is true receives adequate translation into literature and yet most periods of heightened national consciousness have found some sort of literary interpretation About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve
