Thriving Raising Exceptional Kids With Confidence Character And Resilience:

Thriving! Michael Grose, 2010-07-01 How to raise confident resilient kids Kids need strong confident leadership from their parents That's quite a challenge these days as they grow up at the speed of light and parents are unsure of their place in the lives of their children And today's kids live with pressures that previous generations didn't have to face They grow up with fewer siblings which means parents focus their attention more sharply on them No wonder so many children today are anxious and risk adverse But it doesn't have to be this way In this easy to read no nonsense book renowned parenting educator Michael Grose shows us how to be confident family leaders able to develop real character and resilience in our kids the keys to their future success in this ever changing world In this book you'll find Simple ways to achieve great family communication even when you're busy Easy ways to help kids cope when life throws them curveballs Why building a strong food culture keeps your family stay strong The secrets to working from the same page as your partner How to get cooperation from your kids without tears fears or bribery Why you must develop independence in your kids from an early age Thriving is the new roadmap for parents of children aged three to twelve years of age With clarity wisdom and insight Michael sets out a series of ideas and practical common sense strategies that will enable our kids to flourish The Self-Esteem Trap Polly Young-Eisendrath, 2008-09-02 Wise and packed with insight If you've wondered how to cut through our culture's obsession with perfect children this is the book for you Jean Twenge PhD author of Generation Me Kids today are depressed and anxious They also seem to feel entitled to every advantage and unwilling to make the leap into adulthood As Polly Young-Eisendrath makes clear in this brilliant account of where a generation has gone astray parents trying to make their children feel special are unwittingly interfering with their kids ability to accept themselves and cope with life Clarifying an enormous cultural change The Self Esteem Trap shows why so many young people have trouble with empathy and compassion struggle with moral values and are stymied in the face of adversity Young-Eisendrath offers prescriptive advice on how adults can help kids through the teen and young adult years develop self worth setting them on the right track to productive balanced and happy lives Her message rings true Publishers Weekly Resilient Kids Kathy Koch PhD, 2022-08-02 Children need to believe their future is bright The more disappointments they don't recover well from the less likely they are to dream When they do not process challenging experiences well it can lead to defeat rather than encourage them to grow and mature Far too many children don't grasp their strengths and as a result do not believe they can overcome negative encounters Apathy sets in Discouragement persists Arguments rage Mental health suffers Children need to be resilient and when they develop this ability and make wise choices it becomes part of their character Furthermore they need parents who help them to learn from negative experiences and who allow them a certain measure of struggle In Resilient Kids moms and dads will learn the power and purpose of resilience and how to parent so as to make it more likely their children will utilize this character quality Ethnicity, Religion, and Muslim Education in a Changing World

Karamat Iqbal, Tahir Abbas, 2024-06-14 This novel and contemporary anthology brings important topics about race religion and identity to the foreground to address the challenges facing Muslim schoolchildren today Through interviews and case studies the chapters explore topics such as multiethnic education teacher diversity and culturally responsive pedagogy providing insights into necessary changes and ways to enhance schools Taking into account cultural touchstones such as the Black Lives Matter movement and the Trojan Horse affair the book argues for an urgent transformative accommodation of Muslims to take place within schooling in order to improve the educational standards of Muslim children within the United Kingdom including several chapters that focus on Muslim education in locations such as Yorkshire Peterborough High Wycombe and Tower Hamlets and further afield This book will be of importance to scholars researchers and postgraduate students studying religious education secondary education and multicultural education more broadly Policymakers interested in education policy and politics as well as race and ethnicity in educational contexts may potentially benefit from the volume
