Through The Valley The Journey Of An African Refugee:

Through the Valley Gerson Maso, 2011 We've seen the pictures on television and online as well as in newspapers and magazines. Photographs and stories of the helpless victims of genocide most recently in Africa stay in our minds for days. Eventually for most of us the memories fade and we may even forget about the atrocities. But what about those who are in the middle of the genocide, those whose lives are threatened every day? Through the Valley The Journey of an African Refugee is the story of a survivor. Gerson Maso lived through the civil wars and genocide that gripped Burundi. More than once he almost lost his life and many around him did, but through the grace of God he survived the civil war and came to the United States. Through the Valley The Journey of an African Refugee is a personal story with a universal truth: God is an amazing, trusting God. His will is not ours; He does what He wants because He is God, the Creator.

Slavery and Freedom in the Shenandoah Valley during the Civil War Era Jonathan A. Noyolas, 2022-11-01 This book examines the complexities of life for African Americans in Virginia's Shenandoah Valley from the antebellum period through Reconstruction, showing how enslaved and free African Americans resisted slavery and supported the Union war effort in a borderland that changed hands frequently during the Civil War.

Journey Into Darkness Thomas Paul Odom, 2005 In July 1994, Thomas P. Odom was part of the U.S. Embassy team that responded to the Goma refugee crisis. He witnessed the deaths of 70,000 refugees in a single week. In the previous three months of escalating violence, the Rwandan genocide had claimed 800,000 dead. Now, in this vivid and unsettling new book, Odom offers the first insider look at these devastating events before, during, and after the genocide. Odom draws on his years of experience as a Defense Attaché and foreign area specialist in the United States Army to offer a complete picture of the situation in Zaire and Rwanda, focusing on two U.S. embassies, intelligence operations, U.N. peacekeeping efforts, and regional reactions. His team attempted to slow the death by cholera of refugees in Goma, guiding in a U.S. Joint Task Force and Operation Support Hope, and remaining until the United States withdrew its forces forty days later. After U.S. forces departed, Odom crossed into Rwanda to spend the next eighteen months reestablishing the embassy, working with the Rwandan government, and creating the U.S. Rwandan Demining office. Odom assisted the U.S. Ambassador and served as the principal military advisor on Rwanda to the U.S. Department of Defense and National Security Council throughout his time in Rwanda. His book candidly reveals Odom's frustration with Washington as his predictions that a larger war was coming were ignored. Unfortunately, he was proven correct: the current death toll in that unfortunate country is close to three million. Odom's account of the events in Rwanda illustrates not only how failures in intelligence and policy happen but also shows that a human context is necessary to comprehend these political decisions.

Visions for an African Valley DR JONATHAN M. JACKSON, 2025-03-11 What was the effect of the numerous, albeit often unsatisfied, plans for development on the land and communities of the Kilombero valley throughout the colonial period and into the first decades of independence? This book traces histories of development in and crucially, visions of development for the Kilombero valley of south central Tanzania Taking the notion of development planning as a form of future making the book examines the many visions or past futures projected onto Kilombero by colonial and national governments by international organisations syndicates and individuals It examines how such plans were conceived evaluates their successes and analyses their shortcomings against changing political and economic landscapes Four key themes agricultural intensification ecology control infrastructure and re settlement are shown to persistently surface and continue to shape the valleyscape today By considering past future visions for the reorganisation of rural life in Tanzania the book reveals how even recent initiatives have suffered through their failure to learn from this history Offering fresh insights and approaches to the historiography of development Visions for an African Valley shows Kilombero to be a prism which refracts broader phenomena across more than a century

Official Report of the Niger Valley Exploring Party Martin Robison Delany, 2019-12-02 In Official Report of the Niger Valley Exploring Party Martin Robison Delany presents a meticulously documented account of his expedition to the Niger River blending scientific observation with passionate advocacy for African colonization Written in a vigorous style that reflects both the urgency of exploration and the broader social discourse of the mid 19th century the work reveals Delany s intricate understanding of geography anthropology and the socio political implications of his travels The text not only captures the ethnographic richness of the Niger Valley but also serves as a critique of European imperialism presenting an alternative vision of black agency and opportunity in Africa Martin Robison Delany a renowned African American abolitionist and one of the first black doctors in the U S synthesized his commitments to racial uplift and social justice with his zeal for exploration Influenced by his experiences in a pre Civil War America fraught with racism and oppression Delany viewed Africa as a land of potential for freed black individuals shaping his perspective in this ambitious exploration His work drew on both personal and political motivations aiming to redefine black identity and agency in the global context I highly recommend Official Report of the Niger Valley Exploring Party for those interested in African history exploration narratives and the complexities of race relations Delany s unique perspective as both a scientist and a cultural critic offers invaluable insights into 19th century thought making this work a foundational text for scholars and casual readers alike

Mission Studies ,1907 Cities in Contemporary Africa M. Murray,G. Journey to the Source of the Nile Christopher Ondaatje,1999-07-15 In a series of experiences between 1856 and 1877 several British born explorers tried to unravel the mystery of the source of the Nile This river the longest in the world flowed through the desert bringing life in its floodwater every year Where did all this water come from Christopher Ondaatje long fascinated with Richard Burton and wishing to relive his 1856 African exploration prepared for this journey by studying the expeditions of several Victorian travellers for each had returned with part of the answer to the Nile's riddle In 1996 Ondaatje followed the Victorian explorers routes to see for himself what they had seen Although acutely aware that their claims of discovering a mountain or river were ridiculous he quickly realized that he was indeed on a journey of discovery and that the search for truth is often about finding new and better questions not just answers His trek across the Serengeti Plains to Olduvai Gorge provides the most striking revelation of all the forces which shaped the Nile may also have triggered the evolution of the human race A Journey Through Christian Theology William P. Anderson, A non threatening entrance into texts from the Apostolic Fathers to Mary Daly Travels in southern Africa H. Lichtenstein, Anne Plumtre, Travels in southern Africa in the years 1803 1804 1805 and 1806 volume 2 Living with Mental Illness in a Globalised World

Ugo Ikwuka, 2021-05-03 Living with Mental Illness in a Globalised World systematically examines the manifold contributions to the burdens of living with mental illness in a developing and globalised world It explores the stigma of mental illness the burden of which compares to the symptoms of and is sometimes considered more disabling than the illness itself The book starts by reviewing the socio psychological and cultural processes that contribute to stigma and providing evidence based interventions to combat it Chapters critically investigate the ideological and instrumental barriers to mental healthcare and establish that determining the conceptualisations of mental illness helps to unravel the reasons for the underutilisation of mental health services A compelling case is made for a complementary healthcare model and bottom up approach that is sensitive to the spiritual and cultural needs of the people The text's specific examination of mental healthcare in African countries makes it a timely piece for assisting mental health professionals in understanding the inequities in care that Black Asian and Minority Ethnic groups face and how to improve mental healthcare and delivery to these groups Malta Country Study Guide Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments IBP USA, 2013-08 Malta Country Study Guide Strategic Information and Developments Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments African Review , 1896

Unraveling Somalia Catherine Besteman, 2014-01-27 In 1991 the Somali state collapsed Once heralded as the only true nation state in Africa the Somalia of the 1990s suffered brutal internecine warfare At the same time a politically created famine caused the deaths of a half a million people and the flight of a million refugees During the civil war scholarly and popular analyses explained Somalia's disintegration as the result of ancestral hatreds played out in warfare between various clans and subclans In Unraveling Somalia Catherine Besteman challenges this view and argues that the actual pattern of violence inflicted disproportionately on rural southerners contradicts the prevailing model of ethnic homogeneity and clan opposition She contends that the dissolution of the Somali nation state can be understood only by recognizing that over the past century and a half there emerged in Somalia a social order based on principles other than simple clan organization a social order deeply stratified on the basis of race status class region and language The Journal of the Manchester Geographical Society ,1890 My Lost Childhood Abraham Deng Ater,2013-11-15 My Lost Childhood is a memoir describing immeasurable suffering the author went through in his early childhood In the late 1980s the Islamic government began to systematically torture and kill Southern Sudanese families burn their villages and enslave young boys and girls As a result an approximately as numbers are largely unknown and only an estimate 27 000 plus boys from Southern tribes were forced to flee from their homes Traveling naked and barefoot they sought refuge in neighboring Fugnido Ethiopia where a few years later they were forced to flee yet another civil war Returning to Sudan the Islamic government forced them to travel for another five months ultimately arriving in Kakuma Kenya after four years of unthinkable hardship and walking over thousands of miles naked barefoot and ailing from starvation dehydration and diseases Many boys perished along the way and their numbers shrank into few thousands Abraham Deng Ater separated from his family in 1987 is one of approximately 3 800 boys now known as the Lost Boys of Sudan He left Kakuma Refugee Camp in Kenya after several years of massive suffering and was granted refuge in the U S in 2001 Many Lost Boys including Abraham have since become U S citizens and have continued to pursue their education Thousands more have also been granted refuge elsewhere and are scattered around the globe Graphic scenes in African story Charles Bruce (writer of tales.),1888
