Time And Photography Time And Photography:

Time and Photography Jan Baetens, Alexander Streitberger, Hilde van Gelder, 2010 Despite our stereotypical ideas on photographic images as a snapshots slices of time photography is fundamentally a time based medium The relationships between photography and time are manifold time can be directly represented within the image it can be its theme and philosophical horizon but it can also represent the global framework in which photographic practices develop and change through time It is the ambition of this book to bring together the various aspect of time in photography as well as of photography in time and to illustrate them in a series of case studies that focus on seminal authors e g Fox Talbot Victor Burgin Robert Morris and genres e g spirit photography montage photobooks and tableau photography with examples ranging from the very first photographic pictures to the most recent cross medial uses of photography in and outside art

Stillness and Time David Green, Joanna Lowry, 2006 This collection of essays by leading photographic and film theorists considers the changing relationship between the still and moving image in contemporary culture The photograph has traditionally been seen as a quintessentially still image Its ability to freeze and hold a moment in time has been the source of its peculiar fascination and the foundation of much of the theoretical discussion about it New technological developments in digital media however have fundamentally altered the ways in which we think about photography in particular forcing us to reconsider our assumptions about the still and the moving image and their relationships to differing conceptions of time Amongst the topics addressed in these essays are the work of artists who extend the still image in time through the use of video or narrative sequencing the aesthetic and philosophical analyses of stasis the place of the pose and tableau in contemporary photography and film the iconography of photography in cinema and the notion of the cinematic fragment and cultural memory BOOK JACKET American Annual of Photography and Photographic Times Almanac ,1887 American
