Times Alone Antonio Machado,2012-01-01 Antonio Machado a school teacher and philosopher and one of Spain s foremost poets of the twentieth century writes of the mountains the skies the farms and the sentiments of his homeland clearly and without narcissism Just as before I m interested in water held in but now water in the living rock of my chest Machado has vowed not to soar too much he wants to go down to the hells or stick to the ordinary Robert Bly writes in his introduction He brings to the ordinary to time to landscape and stony earth to bean fields and cities to events and dreams magical sound that conveys order penetrating sight and attention The poems written while we are awake are more original and more beautiful and sometimes more wild than those made from dreams Machado said In the newspapers before and during the Spanish Civil War he wrote of political and moral issues and in 1939 fled from Franco s army into the Pyrenees dying in exile a month later When in 1966 a bronze bust of Machado was to be unveiled in a town here he had taught school thousands of people came in pilgrimage only to find the Civil Guard with clubs and submachine guns blocking their way This selection of Machado s poetry beautifully translated by Bly begins with the Spanish master s first book Times Alone Passageways in the House and Other Poems 1903 and follows his work to the poems published after his death Poems from the Civil War written during 1936 1939 The Soul of Place Michael Jones,2014-07-08 In The Soul of Place Michael Jones explores how our relationship with place aligns us with the underlying patterns of life He does so through stories that ask what is our experience of homecoming and how do we find our way there What is our pattern of belonging including our relationship with people and places that we hold sacred What are the conditions of regenerativity and craft that enable us to give birth to something new How can our stewardship of what is alive within and around us awaken the mythic imagination And how does this open a path for gathering together in a spirit of transformative celebration Poetry for the Earth Sara Dunn,Alan Scholefield,1992 While the state of the environment is a very current issue passion and concern for the world around us is nearly as old as the world itself Poetry for the Earth brings together a cross section of some of the most beautiful and haunting poetry ever written in tribute to or in mourning for our magnificent landscapes Poems That Make Grown Men Cry Anthony Holden,Ben Holden,2014-04-10 The best leave you with a renewed sense of how extraordinary it is that poetry can over the course of one sentence flood your circuit board with loss or anger or love Independent From J J Abrams to John le Carr Salman Rushdie to Jonathan Franzen Daniel Radcliffe to Nick Cave Ian McEwan to Stephen Fry Stanley Tucci to Colin Firth and Seamus Heaney to Christopher Hitchens 100 men confess to being moved to tears by poems that haunt them This remarkable collection of poems from the sixteenth century to the present day delivers private insight into the souls of men whose writing acting and thinking are admired around the world The Impossible Will Take a Little While Paul Loeb,2007-03-21 In a difficult time our most eloquent writers offer words of inspiration and hope
