Genealogies of Mahāyāna Buddhism Joseph Walser, 2018-06-28 Genealogies of Mah y na Buddhism offers a solution to a problem that some have called the holy grail of Buddhist studies the problem of the origins of Mah y na Buddhism In a work that contributes both to a general theory of religion and power for religious studies as well as to the problem of the origin of a Buddhist movement Walser argues that that it is the neglect of political and social power in the scholarly imagination of the history of Buddhism that has made the origins of Mah y na an intractable problem Walser challenges commonly held assumptions about Mah y na Buddhism offering a fascinating new take on its genealogy that traces its doctrines of emptiness and mind only from the present day back to the time before Mah y na was Mah y na In situating such concepts in their political and social contexts across diverse regimes of power in Tibet China and India the book shows that what was at stake in the Mah y na championing of the doctrine of emptiness was the articulation and dissemination of court authority across the rural landscapes of Asia This text will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students and scholars of Buddhism religious studies history and philosophy

Two Esoteric Sutras: The Adamantine Pinnacle Sutra, The Susiddhikara Sutra, 2001

Buddhism and the Senses Robert DeCrol, Donald S. Lopez Jr., 2024-09-24 Across Buddhist traditions the five senses sight sound smell taste and touch are perceived both positively and negatively Share our eminent scholars fascination and deep insight into what makes a sensuous experience good or bad Following on the exhibition Encountering the Buddha Art and Practice across Asia at the National Museum of Asian Art ten eminent scholars present their insights into Buddhism s fascinating relation with the five senses sight sound smell taste and touch which careens between delight and disgust rarely finding a middle way While much of Buddhist literature is devoted to overcoming the attachment that dooms us to rebirth in samsara primarily by deprecating sense experience and showing that whatever brings us sensual pleasure leads only to physical and mental pain in texts such as the Lotus Sutra sensory powers do not offer sensory pleasure but rather knowledge clear observation and ability to teach the Dharma Considering such religiously and historically contingent ambiguity this volume presents each of the five senses in two instantiations the good and the bad opening up the discourse on the senses across Buddhist traditions Just as the museum departed from tradition to incorporate sensory experiences into the exhibition this volume is a new direction in scholarship to humanize Buddhist studies by foregrounding sensory experience and practice inviting the reader to think about the senses in a focused manner and shifting our understanding of Buddhism from the conceptual to the material or practical from the idealized to the human from the abstract to the grounded from the mind to the body Discourse and Ideology in Medieval Japanese Buddhism

Richard K. Payne, Taigen Dan Leighton, 2006-04-18 The medieval period of Japanese religious history is commonly known as one in which there was a radical transformation of the religious culture This book suggests an alternate approach to understanding the dynamics of that transformation One main topic of analysis focuses on what Buddhism its practices and doctrines its traditions and institutions meant for medieval Japanese peoples themselves This is achieved by using the notions of discourse and ideology and juxtaposing various topics on shared linguistic practices and discursive worlds of medieval Japanese Buddhism Collating contributions from outstanding scholars in the field of Buddhist Studies the editors have created an important work that builds on preliminary work on rethinking the importance and meaning of Kamakura Buddhism published recently in English and adds greatly to the debate Chán Buddhism in Dũnhuáng and Beyond

Christoph Anderl, Christian Wittern, 2020-11-04 Ch n Buddhism in D nhu ng and Beyond A Study of Manuscripts Texts and Contexts in Memory of John R McRae is dedicated to the memory of the eminent Ch n scholar John McRae and investigates the spread of early Ch n in a historical multi lingual and interreligious context Combining the expertise of scholars of Chinese Tibetan Uighur and Tangut Buddhism the edited volume is based on a thorough study of manuscripts from D nhu ng Turfan and Karakhoto tracing the particular features of Ch n in the Northwestern and Northern regions of late medieval China

Esoteric Buddhism in Mediaeval Maritime Asia Andrea Acri, 2016-09-05 This volume advocates a trans regional and maritime focused approach to studying the genesis development and circulation of Esoteric or Tantric Buddhism across Maritime Asia from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries ce The book lays emphasis on the mobile networks of human agents Masters textual sources Texts and images Icons through which Esoteric Buddhist traditions spread Capitalising on recent research and making use of both disciplinary and area focused perspectives this book highlights the role played by Esoteric Buddhist maritime networks in shaping intra Asian connectivity In doing so it reveals the limits of a historiography that is premised on land based transmission of Buddhism from a South Asian homeland and advances an alternative historical narrative that overturns the popular perception regarding Southeast Asia as a periphery that passively received overseas influences Thus a strong point is made for the appreciation of the region as both a crossroads and rightful terminus of Buddhist cults and for the re evaluation of the creative and transformative force of Southeast Asian agents in the transmission of Esoteric Buddhism across mediaeval Asia Yoga Powers Knut A. Jacobsen, 2011-09-30 The book offers a number of new insights in the history of yoga powers in the South Asian religious traditions analyzes the position of the powers in the salvific process and in conceptions of divinity and explores the rational explanations of the powers provided by the traditions

Apocryphal Scriptures, 2005-06 This volume contains five scriptural texts that have been especially important and influential in the East Asian Buddhist tradition The Bequeathed Teaching Sutra The Ullambana Sutra The Sutra of Forty two Sections The Sutra of Perfect Enlightenment and The Sutra on the Profundity of Filial Love

Shobogenzo The True Dharma-Eye Treasury II 二巻, 2007 Shobogenzo The True Dharma eye Treasury Taisho No 2582 is the masterwork of the thirteenth century Zen master Eihei Dogen founder of the Soto sect of Japanese Zen Buddhism This reprint edition presents Volume 2 of the exemplary translation by Gudo Wafu Nishijima and Chodo Cross of the complete ninety five chapter edition of the Shobogenzo compiled by the Zen master Hangyo Kozen in the late seventeenth century

Interpretation of the Buddha Land, The Bandhuprabha, 2002-06 This fourth century commentary on the Buddhah mi s tra is one of the earliest texts of the Yog c ra tradition It includes an introductory description of the setting in which it was preached by the Buddha the main body of the text which treats the five factors that constitute a Buddha land i e the Pure Dharma Realm and the four wisdoms mirror wisdom equality wisdom discernment wisdom and duty fulfillment wisdom and a concluding section of two illustrative similes and four summary verses The overall theme of these texts is that the Pure Land is not a physical location but a symbol of the mind of wisdom constituted by the five factors of the Pure Dharma Realm and the four wisdoms These four wisdoms grounded in the Pure Dharma Realm present the varied structure of wisdom as conceived by Yogacara thinkers Mirror wisdom and equality wisdom are nondiscriminative while discernment wisdom and duty fulfillment wisdom distinguish the nature of bodhisattva tasks and carry them out in the world Thus the overarching context for these texts is the tension created between the critical awareness and deliteralization tendency of Yogacara and the Pure Land cultus with its veneration of many Pure Land Buddhas and its hopes of being born in the Pure Land

Esoteric Buddhism and Texts Jinhua Chen, 2024-02-08 This book explores trans cultural and cross border transmission and transformation of Esoteric Buddhism in East Asia focusing on its manuscript culture and the transborder transmission of Esoteric Buddhist texts In East Asia Esoteric Buddhism s influences can be seen across all levels of society not only in that it achieved a recognizable sectarian identity but also because elements of esoteric teachings were absorbed by other religious schools influencing their philosophical tenets and everyday practices The influence was not confined to the religious sphere scholars have been paying more and more attention to the significance of Tang Esoteric Buddhism in relation to material culture and the dissemination of Esoteric Buddhist technologies in South Central and East Asia No matter how one looks at a ma ala an integral feature of esoteric practice or the uncannily expressive statues of Buddhas Bodhisattvas or Yidam that come in all shapes and sizes or the murals that depict the variegated mysterious themes of the esoteric tradition one can always recognise the profound connection between art and Esoteric Buddhism Esoteric Ifluences also abound in East Asian literature across different genres displaying its unique characters both in poetry and prose Likewise in architecture one can readily make out the enigmatic colorful and distinctive elements characteristic of the esoteric tradition Monks initiated into the esoteric lineages not only brought Buddhist classics and practices to China but also advanced knowledge in astronomy calendrical calculations and mathematical theories The chapters in this volume focus on two major aspects of textual Esoteric Buddhism its manuscript culture and transborder transmission This book will be beneficial to advanced students and researchers interested in Religious Studies History and Buddhist studies It was originally published as a special issue of Studies in Chinese Religions Pramāṇakīrtiḥ, 2007 Kyogyoshinsyo; On Teaching, Practice, Faith, and

Enlightenment Shinran, 2003 This is the magnum opus of Shinran Shonin founder of the J do Shinshu school of Pure Land Buddhism This work is a collection of 376 passages from 62 sutras discourses and commentaries with Shinran s own notes and commentary organized into a coherent and comprehensive explication of the Pure Land teaching Treatise on the Elucidation of the Knowable, The; The Cycle of the Formation of the Schismatic Doctrines 'Phags-pa

Blo-gros-rgyal-mtshan, 2004-12 There are two titles in this volume The Treatise on the Elucidation of the Knowable was written in the Yuan Period by the Tibetan Phags pa for the Chinese Crown Prince at the time as an outline of Buddhist thought and deals with such subjects as the Buddhist view of life and Buddhist cosmology The teachings set forth are based on the whole on the Abhidharmakosa bhasya but there are also to be found ideas peculiar to this work The title Treatise on the Clarification of What is to be Known implies that all teachings which it is necessary to know are made clear by the contents of this work It was originally written in either Tibetan or Mongolian but only the Chinese translation is extant The Cycle of the Formation of the Schismatic Doctrines describes the course of the so called Basic Schism of Buddhism into the Theravada and Mahasamghika Schools which took place over 100 years after the death of Sakyamuni and the subsequent division of the Hinayana into 20 minor sects It is written from the standpoint of the Sarvastivadins but also describes in detail the doctrinal characteristics of the other sects This work is thus not only indispensable in the study of the history of sectarian division in Buddhism but when one considers that the majority of extant doctrinal treatises of Hinayana belong to the Sarvastivadins it is also an invaluable source of material in the elucidation of the tenets of sects other than the Sarvastivadins

Da Bi Lu Zhe Na Cheng Fo Shen Bian Jia Chi Jing, Chinois, 2005 The Vairocana bhisa bodhi Sutra is one of the two basic texts of East Asian Esoteric Buddhism Chapters discuss Tantic practices such as construction of a ma ala initiation rites mantras mudr s and visualization as well as the ten precepts and other Mahayana teachings Summary of the Great

Vehicle, The Asaṅga, 2003 The Summary of the Great Vehicle is perhaps the most representative text of the Yogacara school of Mahayana Buddhism It presents the classic argument for the basic Yogacara themes on conscious interiority attempting to reinterpret within this context the general Mahayana teachings of emptiness and dependent co arising It then proceeds to explain the etiology if imaginative illusion sketch its reversal by offering an explanation of the nature of conversion champion the recovered insight into depended co arising in terms of the converted other dependent pattern of consciousness and thus allow for a valid if limited role for language formed conventional discourse both commonsense and theoretical
