Family Violence and Criminal Justice Brian J. Payne,Randy R. Gainey,2010-04-07 The historical context of family violence is explored as well as the various forms of violence their prevalence in specific stages of life and responses to it made by the criminal justice system and other agencies The linkage among child abuse partner violence and elder abuse is scrutinized and the usefulness of the life course approach is couched in terms of its potential effect on policy implications research methods that recognize the importance of life stages trajectories and transitions and crime causation theories that can be enhanced by it Tables figures charts discussion questions and helpful boxes with supplemental information titled Tool Box From the Field and Research Shows enhance the text

Working with Survivors of Sibling Sexual Abuse Christiane Sanderson,2024-02-21 Sibling sexual abuse is considered to be one of the most common forms of child sexual abuse within the family setting yet it is often ignored downplayed or denied in spite the impact on survivors Shining a spotlight on the hidden phenomenon Christiane Sanderson provides a rigorous account of the nature and dynamics of sibling sexual abuse She provides a clear explanation of the difference between developmentally appropriate consensual sexual exploration and developmentally inappropriate non consensual sexual behaviour The focus is on how these behaviours impact the sibling being harmed the sibling who is harming the wider family and adult survivors This book is essential reading for anyone involved in assessing supporting safeguarding or treating individuals or families impacted by sibling sexual abuse and all those working with adult survivors

Restorative Justice and Family Violence Heather Strang,John Braithwaite,2002-07-08 This 2002 book addresses one of the most controversial topics in restorative justice its potential for dealing with conflicts within families Most restorative justice programs specifically exclude family violence as an appropriate offence to be dealt with this way This book focuses on the issues in family violence that may warrant special caution about restorative justice in particular feminist and indigenous concerns At the same time it looks for ways of designing a place for restorative interventions that respond to these concerns Further it asks whether there are ways that restorative processes can contribute to reducing and preventing family violence to healing its survivors and to confronting the wellsprings of this violence The book discusses the shortcomings of the present criminal justice response to family violence It suggests that these shortcomings require us to explore other ways of addressing this apparently intractable problem
