Lord's Supper Baptist view memorialism Reformed spiritual presence Lutheran consubstantiation and Roman Catholic transubstantiation are fairly represented and debated to provide readers with an opportunity to draw their own conclusion on this important Christian institution Four Views on Moving Beyond the Bible to Theology Zondervan, 2009-12-01 Learn to identify evaluate and refine your approach to forming theological conclusions based on the biblical text The Bible has long served as the standard for Christian practice yet believers still disagree on how biblical passages should be interpreted and applied Only when readers fully understand the constructs that inform their process of moving from Scripture to theology and those of others can Christians fully evaluate teachings that claim to be biblical In this book part of the Counterpoints series scholars who affirm an inspired Bible relevant and authoritative for every era present models they consider most faithful to Scripture Walter C Kaiser Jr Principializing Model Daniel M Doriani Redemptive Historical Model Kevin J Vanhoozer Drama of Redemption Model William J Webb Redemptive Movement Model Each position receives critiques from the proponents of the other views Moreover due to the far reaching implications this topic holds for biblical studies theology and church teaching this book includes three additional reflections by Christopher J H Wright Mark L Strauss and Al Wolters on the theological and practical interpretation of biblical texts The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion Four Views on Christian Spirituality Bruce A. Demarest, 2012-05-08 How do Christians cultivate a vibrant and Christ centered spirituality that's rooted in biblical clarity Spiritual formation the cultivation of a relationship with God lies at the heart of what it means to be a Christian in the body of Christ But with the rise of diverse spiritual practices from Zen meditation to out of body experiences the idea of spirituality has become watered down by postmodern culture Christian spirituality on the other hand embraces devotion to the triune God abiding in Christ the pursuit of holiness and the cultivation of virtues But what exactly falls within the scope Christian spirituality This volume of the Counterpoints series focuses on the Church's search for spiritual identity meaning and significance as interpreted by four of the major Christian traditions Eastern Orthodoxy represented by Bradley Nassif Roman Catholic represented by Scott Hahn Progressive Protestant represented by Joseph Driskill Evangelical represented by Evan Howard The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion Five Views on Sanctification Melvin E. Dieter, Anthony A. Hoekema, Stanley M. Horton, J. Robertson McQuilkin, John F. Walvoord, 2011-04-19 Christians generally recognize the need to live a holy or sanctified life But they differ on what sanctification is and how it is achieved How does one achieve sanctification in this life How much success in sanctification is possible Is a crisis experience following one's conversion normal or necessary If so what kind of experience and how is it verified Five Views on Sanctification part of the Counterpoints series brings together in one easy to understand volume five major Protestant views on sanctification Wesleyan View represented by Melvin E Dieter Reformed View represented by Anthony A Hoekema Pentecostal View represented by Stanley M Horton Keswick View represented by J Robertson McQuilkin Augustinian Dispensationalism View represented by John F Walvoord Writing from a solid evangelical stance each author describes and defends his own understanding of the doctrine sanctification and then responds to the views of the other authors The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Four Views on the Role of Works at the Final Judgment Robert N. Wilkin, Thomas R. Schreiner, James D. G. Dunn, Michael P. Barber, 2013-07-09 Through a discussion of Biblical texts this book presents four perspectives on the role of works at the final judgment The final judgment is the last and final act before God dwells with his people forever Scripture makes that clear but what function do our actions play in the final assessment of our souls especially those of professing Christians The contributors each state their case for one of four prominent views on the effect of works at the end of time Robert N Wilkin Works will determine rewards but not salvation Thomas R Schreiner Works will provide evidence that one actually has been saved James D G Dunn Works will provide the criterion by which Christ will determine eternal destiny of his people Michael P Barber Works will merit eternal life This book allows each contributor to not only present the case for his view but also to critique and respond to the critiques of the other contributors allowing you to compare their beliefs in an open forum setting to see where they overlap and where they differ The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

A Biblical Theology of Water Eric R. Waller, 2024-05-30 Water It s in nearly every book of the Bible The world was made from water and was flooded by it People were both killed and saved by it Life requires water It was in Eden and will be in the New Jerusalem Moses David and most of the Old Testament prophets spoke about it as did Jesus Peter and John So why has no one yet figured out what all this water talk is about God is revealing something exciting using water as his means of communication In this book nearly all the uses of water throughout the Bible have been examined and organized into common categories The mentions of water have ramifications for other major biblical teachings such as on the work of the Holy Spirit salvation and baptism This work unveils something that has remained hidden to most until now a biblical theology of water

Five Views on Apologetics Zondervan, 2010-06-01 Of the most common approaches to apologetics which is most effective The goal of apologetics is to persuasively defend Christianity against charges of falsehood inconsistency or credulity It s an intellectual discipline that serves to bolster the faith of Christian believers and to aid the task of evangelism

but are some methods more effective than others Five Views on Apologetics examines the how to of apologetics putting five prominent techniques under the microscope Classical represented by William Lane Craig Evidential represented by Gary Habermas Cumulative Case represented by Paul D Feinberg Presuppositional represented by John M Frame Reformed Epistemology represented by Kelly James Clark Offering a forum for presentation critique and defense this book allows the contributors for the different viewpoints to respond to the others Your own informed conclusions can then guide you as you meet the questions of a needy world with the claims of the gospel The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

The Pastor's Library Robert A. Yost, 2017-09-21 In the spirit of Cyril Barber's classic work from the 1970s The Minister's Library Robert Yost provides students and pastors with expert guidance on building a working ministerial library From Old and New Testament languages lexical aids and grammatical tools to commentaries and theologies as well as pastoral resources Yost is a trustworthy guide through the multiplicity of books that seem to just keep rolling off the presses Far more than just a guide to commentaries as are so many works today this resource is a balanced pastoral tool for pastors and students who are overwhelmed by the proliferation of literature in the fields of biblical and pastoral studies

Two Views on the Doctrine of the Trinity Stephen R. Holmes, Paul D. Molnar, Thomas H. McCall, Paul Fiddes, 2014-09-02 Christians have always believed in the triune God but they haven't always understood or used the doctrine of the Trinity consistently In order to form a coherent view of trinitarian theology it's important for Christians to have a working knowledge of the two legitimate models for explaining this doctrine Classical presenting a traditional view of the Trinity represented by the Baptist theologian Stephen R Holmes and the Roman Catholic theologian Paul D Molnar Relational presenting the promise and potential hazards of a relational doctrine represented by the evangelical theologian Thomas H McCall and the Baptist philosopher Paul S Fiddes In this volume of the Counterpoints series leading contributors establish their models and approaches to the doctrine of the Trinity or the relationship between the threeness and oneness of the divine life Each expert highlights the strengths of his view in order to argue how it best reflects the orthodox perspective In order to facilitate a genuine debate and to make sure that the key issues are revealed each contributor addresses the same questions regarding their trinitarian methodology doctrine and its implications
