Understanding The Catechism Morality:

Understanding the Catechism: Creed Michael Pennock, 1998 Reconstructing Theological Ethics P. A. McGavin, 2024-02-19 Theological Ethics in the book title is intended to mark a departure from the manner of Catholic practice named Moral Theology This departure has two strands because the practice that the Second Vatican Council critically addressed was a manualist tradition while much of the practice following the Council has been represented as relativist This book is not manualist in that the focus is upon method rather than on codified specification of behaviours The work is not relativist in that the focus on method is firstly scriptural approaching scripture in a holistic or canonical manner and further is lawful in an approach of law that focuses less on precept and more on understandings of natural law that brings together phenomenological evidences and scriptural evidences The scriptural and natural law perspective present in the book also engages cross disciplinary and inter disciplinary learnings These streams of scripture natural law and inter cross disciplinary learnings have a confluence in discourse in the manner of dialogue a manner that is dialogical An essential aspect of dialogue under the banner of Reconstructing Theological Ethics is that it should engage contemporary culture not in a sense that contemporaneity or modernity should be determinative but in the sense that the reasoning argumentation and dialogue should have resonance with contemporary thinking and rethinking of issues that remain in contention for contemporary audiences Theological Ethics is a wide remit and the book provides a methodological focus on Selected Topics in Human Sexuality Natural Law and the Possibility of a Global Ethics Mark J. Cherry, 2006-04-11 Accounts of natural law moral philosophy and theology sought principles and precepts for morality law and other forms of social authority whose prescriptive force was not dependent for validity on human decision social influence past tradition or cultural convention but through natural reason itself This volume critically explores and assesses our contemporary culture wars in terms of the possibility of natural law moral philosophy and theology to provide a unique content full canonical morality the character and nature of moral pluralism the limits of justifiable national and international policy seeking to produce and preserve human happiness social justice and the common good the ways in which morality moral epistemology and social political reform must be set within the broader context of an appropriately philosophically and theologically anchored anthropology This work will be of interest to philosophers theologians bioethicists ethicists and political scientists A Study of the Moral and Religious Elements in American Secondary Education Up to 1800 Adrian Augustus Holtz, 1917 Appealing to Scripture in Moral Debate Charles H. Cosgrove, 2002 Arguing from scripture is one of the ways that Christians test their moral judgments But are all methods of appealing to the Bible equally valid and effective In this book Charles Cosgrove looks at the church's long tradition of moral debate and analyzes five important hermeneutical rules that guide contemporary use of scripture in ethical argument After introducing the nature of moral arguments generally Cosgrove devotes one chapter to each of the five rules of biblical interpretation that make ethical appeals to scripture persuasive He sets forth each rule's rationale provides examples of its operation and subjects it to critique Based not only on the work of biblical scholars and Christian ethicists but also on Cosgrove's own experience with debates in classrooms churches and other Christian contexts this volume is a valuable aid to readers who employ moral reasoning in real life settings Cementing Ethics with Modernism Shāfe' Qidvā'ī,2010

Moral Catechesis and Catholic Social Teaching Joaquim Parron Maria,2003-04-18 The purpose of this book is twofold first to examine whether and to what extent three representative catechisms widely used in Latin America have incorporated official Catholic social teaching and second to suggest ways in which Catholic social teaching can be further integrated into catechetical approaches In the same way this approach tries to grasp and give some contributions to the call of Pope John Paul II to the Church in the American continents Ecclesia in America for developing a catechesis for social justice and peace Thus this book addresses and proposes some lines of development to integrate social ethics into moral catechesis Apologetic Lectures on the Moral Truths of Christianity Christoph Ernst Luthardt,1881 The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics Ronald H. Stone,2023-09-26 The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics addresses themes in political philosophy in the context of a crisis in democracy after the denial of the 2020 election by the Republican candidate for president The refusal to accept the results of the election divided the electorate and drove the president's followers to fail in their attempted coup attempt in January of 2020 Democracy is defended in Reinhold Niebuhr's writing on politics and in Barack Obama's use of the theologian's thought It is developed further in the political theory of Paul Tillich The themes of just peacemaking are reviewed in Paul Tillich's critique of John Foster Dulles work and in the author's critique of just peacemaking in the work of Glen Stassen Domestically the issues of race inequality ecology and healthcare are addressed from the perspective of prophetic realism The book concludes in terms of Alfred North Whitehead's philosophy of education and religion and a vision of the good president In summary The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics is a volume of American Christian political theory in a period of overcoming the trauma of 2016 with Christian ethics and political philosophy Apologetic Lectures on the Moral Truths of Christianity. The Heart Doctrine is enshrined like a pearl within the shell of every religion Altruism or the universal code of Higher Ethics is its moral basis as embodied in Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself The Eye Doctrine is mere head learning a non issue for the masses and for those who though capable and fit are unwilling to serve anyone but themselves We are mad not only individually but nationally We check manslaughter and isolated murders but what of war and the much vaunted crime of genocide Theosophy is the pith and marrow of the Heart Doctrine for its noble aim is the Great Renunciation of self Service to and love of humanity is every true Theosophists religion and dogma For pure love creates selfish love corrupts The one is sympathy the other fascination The one is pure and holy the other evil and unnatural Self love is love misdirected and misapplied but love nonetheless For the loving essence can never be extinguished but only perverted Live for Humanity the great Orphan the only disinherited one upon this earth The White Lodge aims to help us humanise our animal nature and thus awaken compassion for our fellow men and all that lives After death one can choose between personal rest in Devachan and altruistic service on Earth Spurning Devachan and remaining on Earth for the salvation of mankind the Elect are the germ of a Hierarchy which never died since there was no more going up and down for Them All workers for the Lodge are helped out of Devachan if they consent Ethics and the Catechism of the Catholic Church Michael E.
