Intelligence Agency were prepared to ignore well established international law and human rights standards in prosecuting the war on terror It was less clear however that some of Eidelson s fellow psychologists would become part of the abusive and torturous operations at overseas CIA black sites and Guantanamo Bay Nor was it initially clear that this ruthless enterprise would garner acquiescence and support from the APA s leadership Doing Harm examines how and why the APA failed to join human rights groups in efforts to constrain the US government s unbridled pursuit of security and retribution It recounts an ongoing struggle one that has pitted APA leaders set on preserving strong ties to the military intelligence establishment against dissident voices committed to prioritizing do no harm principles

Police Matters Radha Kumar, 2021-05-15 Police Matters moves beyond the city to examine the intertwined nature of police and caste in the Tamil countryside Radha Kumar argues that the colonial police deployed rigid notions of caste in their everyday tasks refashioning rural identities in a process that has cast long postcolonial shadows Kumar draws on previously unexplored police archives to enter the dusty streets and market squares where local constables walked following their gaze and observing their actions towards potential subversives Station records present a textured view of ordinary interactions between police and society showing that state coercion was not only exceptional and spectacular it was also subtle and continuous woven into everyday life The colonial police categorized Indian subjects based on caste to ensure the security of agriculture and trade and thus the smooth running of the economy Among policemen and among the objects of their coercive gaze caste became a particularly salient form of identity in the politics of public spaces Police Matters demonstrates that without doubt modern caste politics have both been shaped by and shaped state policing Thanks to generous funding from the Andrew W Mellon Foundation through The Sustainable History Monograph Pilot the
