Beyond Backpacker Tourism Kevin Hannam, Anya Diekmann, 2010 Building on previous work on backpacking this book takes the analysis of backpacker tourism further by engaging both with new theoretical debates into tourism experiences and mobilities as well as with new empirical phenomena such as the rise of the flashpacker and alternative destinations

Constructing Cultural Tourism Keith Hanley, John K. Walton, 2010-11-15 This book is an interdisciplinary collaboration between a literary critic and cultural historian which examines and recovers a radical and still urgent challenge to the industrialisation of cultural tourism from the work of John Ruskin Ruskin exerted a formative influence on the definition and development of cultural tourism which was probably as significant as that for example of his contemporary Thomas Cook The book assesses Ruskin's overall influence on the development of national and international tourism in the context of pre existing expectations about tourism flows and cultural capital and alongside parallel and intersecting trends of the time examines Ruskin's contribution to the tourist agenda at all social levels and discusses Ruskin's significance for current debates in tourism studies especially questions of the place of the canon of traditional European cultural tourism in a post modern tourist setting and the various incarnations of heritage tourism

My Life in Travel Emeritus Professor Anthony S. Travis, 2013-04-30 With wartime schooling in New Zealand postwar schooling in Wales and later University in England's smog bound Manchester Travis had already travelled 14 000 miles by his 14th birthday From studying a new and experimental 5 year Hons Degree course in Town Country Planning his career was to lead on to developing Planning for Tourism as an even newer professional field After a town planning career climaxing in his first Planning Chair in Edinburgh and then a later Urban Studies Research Chair in Birmingham plus a Visiting Chair in Tourism in Glasgow he made a worldwide contribution From Consulting for the European Union the UN World Tourism Organisation and the Pacific Area Travel Association in places as varied as Poland the Maldives Michigan and the Algerian Sahara Travis has also lectured overseas regularly In over 50 years of work the stability has been given by his wife and family aided by a global village of friends A rich life that he can muse about in his 80s African Hosts & Their Guests W. E. A. van Beek, Annette M. Schmidt, 2012 Africa is a theme park for Western tourists to experience untouched wilderness untamed nature and truly authentic cultures where the hosts too are part of a discourse about the other and ourselves about wildness danger and roots Tourism is important for Africa international tourist arrivals to Africa continue to grow income from tourism is crucial to national economies and tourism investments are considered among the most profitable This edited volume deals with the interaction of local communities with tourists coming into their areas and villages Based upon a common theoretical approach fourteen cases of African tourism are discussed which involve direct contact between hosts and guests The viewpoint throughout is from the side of the locals establishing how the processes of interaction shape each small scale destination Crucial in Africa is the fact that the large majority of tourism is game oriented and the interaction between locals and visitors is very much tainted by this fact Central is the notion of the tourist bubble the infrastructure that is generated locally and internationally for hosting tourists as it is this institutional interface that tends to impact on the local society and culture not the tourists themselves directly The examples come from all over Africa from the Sahara to the Eastern Cape and from Kenya to Ghana All contributions are based upon original fieldwork Walter van Beek is professor of anthropology at Tilburg University and Senior Researcher at the African Studies Centre Leiden Annette Schmidt is curator of the African department at the National Museum of Ethnology in Leiden and is an archaeologist with a long experience in cultural management projects Contemporary Tourist Experience Richard Sharpley, Philip Stone, 2014-06-23 This significant and timely volume aims to provide a focused analysis into tourist experiences that reflect their ever increasing diversity and complexity and their significance and meaning to tourists themselves Written by leading international scholars it offers new insight into emergent behaviours motivations and sought meanings on the part of tourists based on five contemporary themes determined by current research activity in tourism experience conceptualization of tourist experience dark tourism experiences the relationship between motivation and the contemporary tourist experience the manner in which tourist experience can be influenced and enhanced by place and how managers and suppliers can make a significant contribution to the tourist experience The book critically explores these experiences from multidisciplinary perspectives and includes case studies from wide range of geographical regions By analyzing these contemporary tourist experiences the book will provide further understanding of the consumption of tourism

Women in Tourism in Asian Muslim Countries Nataša Slak Valek,Hamed Almhrzi,2021-03-15 This book focuses on women in tourism in Muslim countries specifically where a woman can be seen as a tourism consumer or a woman producing tourism This book discusses the role of women in the Muslim world and founds that socio culturally Islam has a greater impact on women than men The process of identity construction and the religious values of women have also been extensively researched But little is known about the role of Muslim women in the tourism industry and this book addresses these themes in the Asian context This book explores these ideas as defined key categories Muslim women from Asia travelling to a non Muslim country non Muslim women travelling to Asian Muslim countries and Women working in the tourism field in Muslim countries This book highlights Asian countries as holding a complex mixture of cultures and identities As Muslim communities are central in many Asian countries the tourism experience is different mainly because of cultural norms and religion Ultimately this book examines whether and how these complexities enrich both women and tourism industry within Asian context

Identity and Intercultural Exchange in Travel and Tourism Anthony David Barker,2014-10-14 This book looks at the relationship between questions of identity formation and modern practices in travelling and tourism Unprecedented levels of mobility and international exchange over the last 100 years have raised questions about the stability of national and personal identities and new and creative patterns of behaviour and self realisation are now emerging due to the enormous commercial interests that lie behind the modern travel and tourism industries The volume will consider these issues and the challenges they create in various geographical contexts Germany Spain Romania Italy Africa and concludes with a number of case studies from the Portuguese context where the revenues from tourism are integral to its economy and a lifeline in the current economic crisis

Alternative Tourism in Turkey Istvan Egresi,2016-12-08 This book takes inventory of and evaluates the available resources for the development of alternative tourism in Turkey It examines the role of alternative tourism in future tourism development plans and proposes public policies necessary to assure sustainability Although tourism started later in Turkey than in the Western Mediterranean countries it has grown very rapidly during the last three decades and today the country ranks among the top ten countries in the world in terms of both arrivals and receipts However most of the tourism development has been in the mass tourism sector or the so called sun sea sand tourism While crucial for the economic development of Turkey mass tourism in the absence of proper planning has happened in a haphazard manner leading to numerous environmental and socio cultural problems This book argues that in order to mitigate these problems Turkey should encourage the development of alternative forms of tourism

Current Issues in Asian Tourism Chris Cooper,C. Michael Hall,2020-06-09 This comprehensive volume was put together in response to the growing amount of research on tourism in Asia and an increasing number of authors from Asian countries It concentrates on two aspects of Asian Tourism first the Asian tourists themselves and second economic development and tourism in the Asian region The first part of the collection focuses on three areas the motivations of different types of Asian tourist the characteristics and behaviour of particular Asian tourist segments and finally an analysis of specific research issues The second part of the book then goes on to explore the governance and organisation of tourism in the Asian region and the nature of Asian growth and competitiveness as it relates to tourism The articles in this book were originally published in the journal Current Issues in Tourism
