Unifying Educational Systems Leadership And Policy Perspectives:

Unifying Educational Systems Leonard C. Burrello, Wayne Sailor, Jeannie Kleinhammer-Tramill, 2013 Unifying Educational Systems encourages leaders to move beyond the traditional forms and rituals of leadership for special education that are caught within traditional definitions of a continuum of services Grounded in public policy debates research on teaching and learning and an emerging consensus throughout the leadership community that calls into question our current practices chapters in this volume provide a discussion of the purpose principles and paradoxes extant in the implementation of current special education policy Chapter authors discuss how students are currently served the feasibility of re conceptualizing special education leadership in the current policy context and the challenges for the future Ultimately Unifying Educational Systems calls for a new policy framework to integrate special education within the larger instructional support system in schools in order to support a social justice and inclusive practices agenda IJER Vol 27-N1 International Journal of Educational Reform, Charles J. Russo, Ed.D., J.D., Panzer Chair in Education, University of Dayton, 2018-02-09 The mission of the International Journal of Educational Reform IJER is to keep readers up to date with worldwide developments in education reform by providing scholarly information and practical analysis from recognized international authorities As the only peer reviewed scholarly publication that combines authors voices without regard for the political affiliations perspectives or research methodologies IJER provides readers with a balanced view of all sides of the political and educational mainstream To this end IJER includes but is not limited to inquiry based and opinion pieces on developments in such areas as policy administration curriculum instruction law and research JSL Vol 25-N6 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 2015-12-24 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement Transformative Inclusive Education Rick Freeze, 2023-08-25 Inclusive education is a critical issue at the forefront of educators minds Transformative Inclusive Education tackles the subject by reimagining current practices in education and renovating teaching strategies This collection demonstrates that inclusion is an educational reform movement that can only succeed if educational institutions and practitioners rethink the meaning substance and purpose of education and adopt the new missions patterns of decision making understandings of teaching and learning pedagogies collaborative roles and classroom practices that flow directly from the inclusive reform movement Featuring contributions from a diverse array of scholars practitioners and people with disabilities this text weaves together the historical legal theoretical and pedagogical currents that underpin the implementation of inclusive education and speaks to current research in the field From there it moves forward with a practical trajectory and guide for enacting lasting effective change in schools to create an inclusive environment for all students The authors integrate concepts such as RTI UDL MTSS and SEL and address issues such as collaborative decision making positive approaches to behaviour academic scaffolding and inclusive technologies and teaching practices They also look beyond schools extending inclusive education to families and communities and integrating self advocacy in practice Including case studies realistic examples and activities for further learning and reflection this volume is a vital resource for undergraduate and graduate students in education FEATURES Provides a framework to redesign teaching practice and enact positive lasting change for truly inclusive schools Connects theory to larger pedagogical constructs such as experiential learning social construction of knowledge student engagement and authentic learning Contains resources for further reading and activity boxes with essential takeaways for student review
