Emily Reimer-Barry,2015-04-09 Marriage for Life begins by listening to the lived experiences of Catholic married HIV positive women in order to better understand their struggles The eight women interviewed in Chicago Illinois USA shared their stories of marriage of family life of church involvement and of living with HIV Their candid reflections offer a fresh and grounded perspective on the challenges of living with HIV in a US context After listening to and learning from these women s experiences Reimer Barry constructs a theology of Christian marriage that is life giving in a world with AIDS While Catholic teachings have developed and now affirm the equal dignity of women and men troubling legacies of women s subordination remain embedded in liturgical practices and theological texts Arguing that self care is an indispensable component of a healthy marriage Reimer Barry constructs a life affirming theology of marriage that is sensitive to the struggles of her collaborators She argues that marriage for life must promote the full flourishing of both partners respect wives as equal partners with their husbands and offer a coherent and empowering sexual ethic Building on the wisdom of her collaborators lived experiences Reimer Barry examines the need for a more adequate Catholic response to HIV and AIDS arguing that church communities should promote comprehensive sexual education affirm both abstinence and condom use for HIV prevention and actively work to reduce stigmatizing behaviors within church communities She also unpacks the implications of marriage for life for Catholic liturgical practice marriage preparation programs sexual education programs and family ministries Modeling her method on what Pope Francis calls the art of accompaniment Reimer Barry argues that Catholic theology of marriage must be renewed and updated so that all can plainly understand that marriage is for life

Transfiguration and Hope D. Gregory Van Dussen, 2018-09-17 To read and visualize the transfiguration of Christ is to enter its mystery and encounter its hope Like the Gospel writers and the disciples who climbed the mountain with Jesus we struggle to tell the story and explain its meaning Yet this astounding event reveals God's ultimate purpose in sending his Son the complete restoration of humanity and all creation our transfiguration in Christ The light and glory of that moment reveal a destiny that is infinite and eternal made possible by the power of grace Transfiguration is the trajectory and goal of our spiritual journey Across time and space Christians have reflected on the mystery and hope epitomized in the transfiguration yet their voices have been heard primarily within their own cultural and ecclesiastical contexts This study gathers many of those voices from the panorama of Scripture and church history and finds in them the common theme of radical transformation in Christ The point of this theological conversation is spiritual transfiguration and hope for each of us as we reach toward the future Christ has shown us in himself
