| UNDERSTANDING | Listening          | I can recognise familiar words and very basic phrases concerning myself, my family and immediate concrete surroundings when people speak slowly and clearly.                                                                                                            | I can understand phrases and the highest frequency vocabulary related to areas of most immediate personal relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local area, employment). I can catch the main point in short, clear, simple messages and announcements. | I can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. I can understand the main point of many radio or TV programmes on current affairs or topics of personal or professional interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear. | I can understand extended speech and lectures and follow even complex lines of argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar. I can understand most TV news and current affairs programmes. I can understand the majority of films in standard dialect.                                              | I can understand extended speech even when it is not clearly structured and when relationships are only implied and not signalled explicitly. I can understand television programmes and films without too much effort.                                                                              | I have no difficulty in understanding any kind of spoken language, whether live or broadcast, even when delivered at fast native speed, provided I have some time to get familiar with the accent.                                                                                                                                                         |
|               | Reading            | I can understand familiar names, words and very simple sentences, for example on notices and posters or in catalogues.                                                                                                                                                  | I can read very short, simple texts. I can find specific, predictable information in simple everyday material such as advertisements, prospectuses, timetables and I can understand short, simple personal letters.                                                                     | I can understand texts that consist mainly of high frequency everyday or job-related language. I can understand the description of events, feelings and wishes in personal letters.                                                                                                                                 | I can read articles and reports concerned with contemporary problems in which the writers adopt particular attitudes or viewpoints. I can understand contemporary literary prose.                                                                                                                         | I can understand long and complex factual and literary texts, appreciating distinctions of style. I can understand specialised articles and longer technical instructions, even when they do not relate to my field.                                                                                 | I can read with ease virtually all forms of the written language, including abstract, structurally or linguistically complex texts such as manuals, specialised articles and literary works.                                                                                                                                                               |
| SPEAKING      | Spoken Interaction | I can interact in a simple way provided the other person is prepared to repeat or rephrase things at a slower rate of speech and help me formulate what I'm trying to say. I can ask and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics. | I can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar topics and activities. I can handle very short social exchanges, even though I can't usually understand enough to keep the conversation going myself.                   | I can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken. I can cover negotiated one-to-one communication on topics that are familiar, of personal interest or pertinent to everyday life (e.g. family, hobbies, work, travel and current events).                 | I can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible. I can take an active part in discussions in familiar contexts, accounting for and sustaining my views.                                                                        | I can express myself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. I can use language flexibly and effectively for social and professional purposes. I can formulate ideas and opinions with precision and relate my contribution skilfully to those of other speakers. | I can take part effectively in any conversation or discussion and have a good familiarity with idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms. I can express myself fluently and convey finer shades of meaning precisely. If I do have a problem I can backtrack and reconstruct around the difficulty or smoothly state what other people are hardly aware of. |
|               | Spoken Production  | I can use simple phrases and sentences to describe where I live and people I know.                                                                                                                                                                                      | I can use a series of phrases and sentences to describe in simple terms my family and other people, living conditions, my educational background and my present or most recent job.                                                                                                     | I can connect phrases in a simple way in order to describe experiences and events, my dreams, hopes and ambitions. I can briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans. Qui Italia
Paola Bosio, Italian School Committee Inc Staff, 2011-03-17

Qui Italia are Italian Language LOTE Support Materials developed by teachers for teachers. These books are specifically designed for students of Italian in Upper Primary first year level and are supportive of the current syllabus. Each book is designed to teach language fundamentals in a fun and accessible way. They have been developed to provide a framework to assist teachers in developing, implementing and evaluating an effective LOTE curriculum. Qui Italia books develop language skills which enable the learner to use the language in a confident manner and to demonstrate their knowledge with others. These activity books are designed for the individual student. They are cost effective, educationally sound and very easy to follow.

Qui Italia Activity Books 1 and 2 are a project of the Italian School Committee Inc. They have worked since 1985 to promote quality LOTE teaching and learning in schools across the Sunshine Coast. Further information on these books and other materials available online www.thinkingitalian.net.

Pronti, Via Marisa Minelle Katis, Antonia Rubino, 2000

Pronti via is a three stage course which aims to give learners of varying levels a thorough grounding in the Italian language and an awareness of Italian culture both in Australia and in Italy. Pronti via provides within each unit separate texts and associated tasks at clearly differentiated difficulty levels. Each unit has a theme but contains both beginner level and more advanced level work, the two sections being separated by a third which addresses cultural input. The main characters of Pronti via are young teenagers, members of a family network that spans three cities: Salerno, Sydney and Melbourne. This provides a natural context for the transmission of cultural knowledge. This full colour Student Book features lively presentation of key language through a variety of text types, plenty of guided oral activities, a variety of reading texts, grammar sections, cultural material and more. Each stage of Pronti via contains a Student Book, Workbook, audio material and teacher resource material.
