Universal Declaration Of Human Rights Little Books Of Wisdom:

Capitalism and Human Values Tony Wilkinson, 2015-07-15 Capitalism is not enough It has brought us prosperity and no other economic system can match its energy and innovation but it has a dark side of exploitation and instability Capitalism needs to be bounded by values But which values What indeed are values anyway and how do we locate and share values strong enough to balance the power of capitalism in society Relativism has swept away old certainties and we struggle to agree what should lie at the centre of our lives In this book we construct a foundation for values based on our common humanity and explore personal social and political values from a fresh perspective We show how with values placed on a strong foundation individual lives can reacquire meaning and purpose Politics can be transformed from the half corrupted subject of popular indifference it has become Above all capitalism can be a tool for good a servant rather than a master

Why Baby Boomers Turned from Religion Abby Day, 2022-08-18 Mocked vilified blamed and significantly misunderstood the Baby Boomers are members of the generation of post WWII babies who came of age in the 1960s Parents of the 1940s and 1950s raised their Boomer children to be respectable church attendees and yet in some ways demonstrated an ambivalence that permitted their children to spurn religion and eventually to raise their own children to be the least religious generation ever The Baby Boomers studied here living in the UK and Canada were the last generation to have been routinely baptised and taken regularly to mainstream Anglican churches So what went wrong or perhaps right This study based on in depth interviews and compared to other studies and data is the first to offer a sociological account of the sudden transition from religious parents to non religious children and grandchildren focusing exclusively on this generation of ex Anglican Boomers Now in their 60s and 70s the Boomers featured here make sense of their lives and the world they helped create They discuss how they continue to dis believe in God yet have an easy relationship with ghosts and how they did not as theologians often claim fall into an immoral self centred abyss They forged different practices and sites whether in this world or elsewhere of meaning morality community and transcendence They also reveal here the values practices and beliefs they transmitted to the future generations helping shape the non religious identities of Generation X Millennials and Generation Z
