part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1958 Literature of Agricultural Research Harald Ostvold, Atlas of the Netherlands Flora J. Mennema,A.J. Quene-Boterbrood,C.L. Plate,2013-12-11 There is an element of fascination which many people feel about geographical maps because these maps allow fantasies about strange landscapes other peoples travels even adventures Distribution maps depicting the area which a plant or animal species occupies would appear to be less romantic but they are equally able to exercise our imagination or rather to stimulate our scientific curiosity Some distribution patterns are repeated time and time again although rarely fully identical and with their study comes the inescapable question what is it that determines a plant s area of distribution Almost immediately we find ourselves in the area of ecology for it is the plant s demands of its environment climate soil which determines where it will be able to grow and where not However that is not all there is to it for species as well as landscapes have their history and one needs to be informed about the climate and about the distribution of land and sea in the past for instance before one can understand present distributions This aspect of change in space and time historical plant geography is possibly the most fascinating part of plant geography However this atlas covering a minuscule part of the world is not meant to be primarily a book of historical plant geography It is true that a dynamic aspect is very prominent but this is on the smaller time scale of man made changes which mostly led to

Printed Books,1969 Five centuries of farming Jan Bieleman,2023-09-04 Where the lower reaches of the rivers Rijn Maas and Schelde have passed through the Northwest European plain to finally flow out into the North Sea a unique country of towns had come about during the Late Middle Ages Since then due to its natural and central location this country the Netherlands has turned into a true crossroads of European trade connections between east and west north and south A highly urbanised country emerged and as the urban economies prospered they have had a great impact on the surrounding countryside This in turn has affected the rural communities and has stimulated all kinds of agrarian activities Highly productive agribusiness complexes have been the result Today experts rank Dutch agriculture and horticulture as one of the most productive in the world Milk production per cow and arable farming and horticulture productivity per man hour is amongst the highest known This book is meant to give an overview of the historical processes of five centuries of farming and it makes clear that the old farming society was only seemingly static This account of Dutch agricultural history demonstrates how Dutch farmers and horticulturist have always been keen on resetting their aims when the ever changing economic environment induced them to do so *Veenman's Agrarische Winkler Prins.
