Ver La Poesia Or Seeing The Poetry:

Delirious Consumption Sergio Delgado Moya, 2017-10-11 In the decades following World War II the creation and expansion of massive domestic markets and relatively stable economies allowed for mass consumption on an unprecedented scale giving rise to the consumer society that exists today Many avant garde artists explored the nexus between consumption and aesthetics questioning how consumerism affects how we perceive the world place ourselves in it and make sense of it via perception and emotion Delirious Consumption focuses on the two largest cultural economies in Latin America Mexico and Brazil and analyzes how their artists and writers both embraced and resisted the spirit of development and progress that defines the consumer moment in late capitalism Sergio Delgado Moya looks specifically at the work of David Alfaro Siqueiros the Brazilian concrete poets Octavio Paz and Lygia Clark to determine how each of them arrived at forms of aesthetic production balanced between high modernism and consumer culture He finds in their works a provocative positioning vis vis urban commodity capitalism an ambivalent position that takes an assured but flexible stance against commodification alienation and the politics of domination and inequality that defines market economies In Delgado Moya s view these poets and artists appeal to uselessness nonutility and noncommunication all markers of the aesthetic while drawing on the terms proper to a world of consumption and consumer culture

After Translation Ignacio Infante, 2013-03 Translation from both a theoretical and practical point of view articulates differing but interconnected modes of circulation in the work of writers originally from different geographical areas of transatlantic encounter such as Europe Latin America North America and the Caribbean After Translation examines from a transnational perspective the various ways in which translation facilitates the circulation of modern poetry and poetics across the Atlantic It rethinks the theoretical paradigm of Anglo American modernism based on the transnational interlingual and transhistorical features of the work of key modern poets writing at both sides of the Atlantic namely the Portuguese Fernando Pessoa the Chilean Vicente Huidobro the Spaniard Federico Garc a Lorca the San Francisco based poets Jack Spicer Robert Duncan and Robin Blaser the Barbadian Kamau Brathwaite and

the Brazilian brothers Haroldo and Augusto de Campos José Lezama Lima's Joyful Vision Gustavo Pellón, 2014-08-27
 Cuba's José Lezama Lima became the most controversial figure in the flowering of the Latin American novel with the 1966 publication of Paradiso. Hailed as a seminal writer of breathtaking originality by Julio Cortázar, Octavio Paz and Mario Vargas Llosa, Lezama was also attacked by the Castro regime and others for his stylistic obscurity, erotic descriptions and violation of literary norms. Indeed, his experimental fiction, written on the very boundaries of the novelistic genre, resists classification. José Lezama Lima's Joyful Vision, a much needed critical study of Paradiso, Oppiano Licario and Lezama's essays, is thus an exploration in reading one that highlights and preserves the essential and persistent contradictions in Lezama's theory and practice of literature. Gustavo Pellón focuses his study on Lezama's search for equilibrium, clarifying such oppositions in Lezama's writings as the mystical quest for illumination through obscurity, the calculated cultivation of naïveté, the Proust-like fascination with yet ultimate condemnation of homosexuality and a modernist even postmodernist narrative style that conveys a mystical, essentially medieval worldview. Above all, Pellón shares his wonder at Lezama, who in an age of pessimism maintained his joyful vision of art and existence. The Poet's Art Julian Weiss, 1990 A study of literary theory in Castile between 1400 and 1460 This Ghostly Poetry Daniel Aguirre-Oteiza, 2020-03-20 This Ghostly Poetry explores the fraught relationship between poetry and literary history in the context of the Spanish Civil War, its aftermath and ongoing debates about historical memory in Spain. White Light Ronald J. Friis, 2021-11-12 White Light: The Poetry of Alberto Blanco examines the interplay of complementary images and concepts in the award-winning Mexican writer's cycle of poems from 1979 to 2018. Blanco's poetic trilogy A la luz de siempre is characterized by its broad range of form and subject and by the poet's own eclectic background as a chemist, maker of collages and musician. Blanco speaks the language of the visual arts, science, mathematics, music and philosophy and creates work with deep interdisciplinary roots. This book explores how polarities such as space and place, reading and writing, sound and silence, visual and verbal representation and faith and doubt are woven through A la luz de siempre. These complements reveal how Blanco's poetry, like the phenomenon of white light, embraces paradox and transforms into something more than the sum of its disparate and polychromatic parts.

Spanish Poetry of the Twentieth Century Andrew Debicki, 2014-10-17 Twentieth-century Spanish poetry has received comparatively little attention from critics writing in English. Andrew Debicki now presents the first English-language history published in the United States to examine the sweep of modern Spanish verse. More important, he is the first to situate Spanish poetry in the context of European modernity to trace its trajectory from the symbolists to the postmodernists. Avoiding the rigid generational schemes and catalogs of names found in traditional Hispanic literary histories, Debicki offers detailed discussions of salient books and texts to construct an original and compelling view of his subject. He demonstrates that contemporary Spanish verse is rooted in the modern tradition and poetics that see the text as a unique embodiment of complex experiences. He then traces the evolution of that tradition in the early decades of the century and its gradual disintegration from the 1950s to the present as Spanish poetry came to reflect features of the postmodern especially the poetics of text as process rather than as product By centering his study on major periods and examining within each the work of poets of different ages Debicki develops novel perspectives The late 1960s and early 1970s for example were not merely the setting for a new aestheticist generation but an era of exceptional creativity in which both established and new writers engendered a profound intertextual and often self referential lyricism This book will be essential reading for specialists in modern Spanish letters for advanced students and for readers interested in comparative literature

Of Love and Other Passions Guiomar Dueñas-Vargas, 2015-06-01 In Of Love and Other Passions Guiomar Dueñas-Vargas delves into the world of emotions among the bourgeois elite in Bogotá from the end of the colonial period to 1870 While most studies of the period focus solely on the country's political activity Dueñas-Vargas shows how Colombia's social cultural and political changes transformed the meaning of love which contributed to the evolution of new models of femininity and masculinity By examining sources such as personal letters and diaries Dueñas-Vargas presents the emotional profiles of families and couples demonstrating how their conduct challenged the established order As lovers insisted on choosing their own mates rather than marrying spouses selected by their parents they undermined the patriarchal structure of Colombian society Such decisions unveil the many functions women assumed in both public and private life and how they participated in the invention of a nation

Octavio Paz, Roberto Sánchez Benítez, 2020-10-29 Octavio Paz Ontology and Surrealism discusses poet Octavio Paz 1914-1998 one of Mexico's most controversial intellectuals Over several decades Paz has been celebrated for his impact on literature and culture as a poet as well as an essayist and he is recognized as a great thinker and as a student of German ontology and phenomenology Roberto Sanchez Benitez analyzes in detail Paz's training within the European philosophical thinking of the twentieth century as well as in the artistic avant garde to illustrate the way in which philosophical anthropological linguistic sociological literary and artistic proposals enriched his work and Mexican culture during the post revolutionary period Sanchez Benitez posits that Paz moved from a phenomenological ontology to a historicism of the human condition wherein morality politics and the arts all reside in an ideological context where dogmatism was imposed in the face of a lack of internal criticism This book explores the themes of the poetic act that Paz associated with his ontological and surrealist readings leading up to when they were transformed by his experience in India and the assimilation of Eastern philosophies along with going through a set of Western proposals relating to love eroticism and art Scholars of literature philosophy Latin American Studies and history will find this book particularly useful

Christian Allegory in Early Hispanic Poetry David William Foster, 2021-12-14 Distinguishing figural or typological allegory a method adapted from the Christian exegesis of the Old Testament from the broader Hellenistic concept of allegory this book examines its use in representative poems of early Hispanic literature The author focuses on the thematic and structural employment of this originally nonliterary device and comments on the literary problems it posed and the artistic effects which were achieved by it The development of this particular allegorical method in medieval Hispanic literature works in Spanish Portuguese Galician and Catalan he shows was fully equal to that found in the medieval Latin Italian and English literatures and an understanding of its use serves to clarify the interpretation of many individual poems Habits of Poetry.
