The biker is on a mission to reunite with his fourteen year old daughter Justine the only surviving member of his family but a restraining order and condition of parole prohibits Blues from seeing her. The restraining order put in place by the maternal grandparents who have raised the girl since the death of her mother and brother mandates that Blues will return to jail if he contacts the teenager. Appearing to lead an exemplary lifestyle Blues has hardly become a model citizen. As he tries to rebuild his life he crosses paths with bikers who have anything but his best interest at heart. The biker breaks parole by contacting his daughter and learns in the process that she harbors a deep hatred for him as he begins the long hard journey to reconnect with the only family he has left.
