Victoria Knut Hamsun, 2005-11-29 The Nobel Prize winner's poetic psychologically intense portrayal of love's predicament in a class-bound society A Penguin Classic Set in a coastal village of late nineteenth century Norway Victoria follows two lovers whose yearnings are as powerful as the circumstances that conspire to thwart their romance Johannes a miller's son turned poet finds inspiration for his writing in his passionate devotion to Victoria a daughter of the impoverished lord of the manor who feels constrained by family loyalty to accept the wealthy young man of her father's choice Separated by class barriers and social pressure the fated duo hurt and enthrall each other by turns as they move toward an emotional doom that neither will recognize until it is too late For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 800 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators Knut Hamsun, Novelist Sverre Lyngstad, 2005 This is the first comprehensive study in English of the novels of Knut Hamsun Nobel Laureate in literature for 1920 from the radically innovative Hunger 1890 to The Ring Is Closed 1936 The texts are discussed in depth with analysis of recurrent themes narrative modes and generic idiosyncrasies and are evaluated in terms of originality and artistic integrity Reviews and other critical opinions are cited to broaden the evaluative spectrum and throw light on the novels' receptions Although the book is scholarly its blend of commentary and summarizing description of settings characters and story lines will also interest the general reader
