To Serve And Protect Elloras Cave:

Carving Devotion in the Jain Caves at Ellora Lisa Owen, 2012-04-03 Drawing on art historical epigraphical and textual evidence this book is the first full scale reconstruction of medieval Jain artistic and devotional practices at the rock cut site of Ellora in Maharashtra India Created during the ninth and tenth centuries Ellora's Jain caves are among the best preserved examples of medieval Jain art in India While this book briefly addresses traditional art historical issues of date and iconography it primarily considers the articulation of sacred space within the caves and the role of imagery in shaping devotional practices Building upon scholarship that examines Jainism within its larger South Asian context this book also explores connections between the Jain monuments and their Hindu and Buddhist counterparts to reveal a lived religious world at Ellora

Architectural Conservation in Asia John H. Stubbs, Robert G. Thomson, 2016-11-10 At a time when organized heritage protection in Asia is developing at a rapid pace Architectural Conservation in Asia provides the first comprehensive overview of architectural conservation practice from Afghanistan to the Philippines The country by country analysis adopted by the book draws out local insights experiences best practice and solutions for effective cultural heritage management that will inform study and practice both in Asia and beyond Whereas architectural conservation in much of the Western world has been extensively documented this book brings together coverage of many regions where architectural conservation has been understudied Following on from the highly influential companion volumes on global architectural conservation and architectural conservation in Europe and the Americas with this book the authors extend their pioneering global examination to the dynamic and evolving field of architectural conservation in Asia Throughout the book the authors and regional experts provide local case studies and profile topics that bring depth and insight to this ambitious study As architectural conservation becomes increasingly global in practice this book will be of considerable assistance to architectural conservation practitioners site managers and students of architecture planning archaeology and heritage studies worldwide
