Tony Cragg In And Out Of Material:

Ausstellung in Duisburg u.d.T.: Tony Cragg : das Potential der Dinge ; Skulpturen, Zeichnungen und Druckgrafiken Tony Cragg, Jon Wood, Christoph Brockhaus, Robert Kudielka, Christian Schneegass, 2006 The future of sculpture has only just begun Its potential is greater now than ever before and its possibilities are just starting Its language and its forms are just beginning to evolve So says Tony Cragg a believer not just in sculpture but in freestanding made from scratch abstraction Cragg refuses to accept the domination of installation and the ready made His dedication to the form as he works in it to its complexities to its ability to interrogate the world and heighten our sensitivity and his consistent espousal of that dedication have given him an intriguing and unusual role in contemporary art Cragg is a promoter of his medium in an age of anxiety about medium based definitions an age of crossover There are plenty of words here in an interview and three essays but it s the sketches watercolors installation views studio photographs and the sculptures themselves that make up the bulk of this new volume Tony Cragg ,2006 Art and the Home Imogen Racz, 2015-01-26 Our homes contain us but they are also within us They can represent places to be ourselves to recollect childhood memories or to withdraw into adult spaces of intimacy they can be sites for developing rituals family relationships and acting out cultural expectations Like the personal social and cultural elements out of which they are constructed homes can be not only comforting but threatening too The home is a rich theme running through post war western art and it continues to engage contemporary artists today yet it has been the subject of relatively little critical writing Art and the Home Comfort Alienation and the Everyday is the first single authored up to date book on the subject Imogen Racz provides a theme led discussion about how the physical experience of the dwelling space and the psychological complexities of the domestic are manifested in art focusing mainly on sculpture installation and object based practice discussing the work and ideas of artists as diverse as Louise Bourgeois Gordon Matta Clark George Segal and Cornelia Parker within their artistic and cultural contexts Hiding Making - Showing Creation Rachel Esner, Sandra Kisters, Ann-Sophie Lehmann, 2025-10-01 The artist at least according to Honor de Balzac is at work when he seems to be at rest his labor is not labor but repose This observation provides a model for modern artists and their relationship to both their place of work the studio and what they do there Examining the complex relationship between process product artistic identity and the artist s studio in all its various manifestations the contributors to this volume consider the dichotomy between conceptual and material aspects of art production The various essays also explore the studio as a form of inspiration meaning function and medium from the nineteenth century up to the present Tony Cragg: Material Thoughts ,2007 Breaking Down the Barriers Richard Cork, 2003-01-01 Item consists of collected criticism and essays on art in Britain written in the 1990 s for The Times Allegories of the Anthropocene Elizabeth M. DeLoughrey, 2019-06-28 Elizabeth M DeLoughrey traces how indigenous and postcolonial peoples in the Caribbean and Pacific Islands grapple with the enormity of colonialism and anthropogenic climate change through art poetry and literature by using allegorical narratives Contemporary British Ceramics and the Influence of Sculpture Laura Gray, 2018-01-02 This book investigates how British contemporary artists who work with clay have managed in the space of a single generation to take ceramics from niche interest craft to the pristine territories of the contemporary art gallery This development has been accompanied and perhaps propelled by the kind of critical discussion usually reserved for the higher discipline of sculpture Ceramics is now encountering and colliding with sculpture both formally and intellectually Laura Gray examines what this means for the old hierarchies between art and craft the identity of the potter and the character of a discipline tied to a specific material but wanting to participate in critical discussions that extend far beyond clay Tony Cragg - Material thoughts , 2007 Waste-Site Stories Brian Neville, Johanne Villeneuve, 2012-02-01 Ours is a wasteful society consumed with care for its remains according to the contributors of Waste Site Stories Here scholars from around the world probe current notions of waste and the ways in which remains of different kinds recover value in the act of recollection and recycling In the wake of destructive experiences that continue to trouble memory there is something compelling about today's theoretical and artistic interest in waste and recycling The two terms provide a purchase on changing conditions of cultural memory on technological development and its sometimes toxic ecological and social fallout and on the legacy of personal and historical trauma They suggest new resources for the stories of our engagement with the things of the past and the sites where traces of history survive
