her time repairing the crumbling wall holding back the horrors she's not willing to face ever again. She's become a woman against the world. The one man who has the annoying habit of getting through her defenses is Jay Samuels, a military chaplain and soon to be pastor. Much as Ashley wants to leave him behind like she believes she has the rest of her past, Jay is ambitious to a fault where she's concerned. He hears only what he wants to hear and he doesn't want to hear that she doesn't love him as much as he loves her. But even Jay doesn't realize the extent of all she's buried deep inside her own subconscious and what keeps her from giving herself willingly to the God she knows is drawing her inexorably to Himself to the one place she can't run where she can no longer hide.

Baby, Baby Karen Wiesner, 2014-08-01 Book One: Family Heirloom. Accepting God's will. A Proverbs 31 wife wonders: does submissive mean giving up having anything of her own? Thirty-seven year old Tamara Wolfe married her childhood sweetheart Robert right out of high school and proceeded to have a passel of children who fill her life to capacity. With the last of her children in preschool, Tamara decides to make a business out of her long-time love of creating designer gift baskets. She doesn't expect Robert to be against it from her first word. Robert has always prided himself on giving Tamara the option of staying home to raise the children just as his father did before him. Since birth, it's been drilled into him that a man who doesn't provide for his family is the worst kind of loser. What will happen if her business takes off? She won't have time to take care of the family. Worse maybe she won't need him anymore. Although they'd agreed years before their family was complete, Robert considers that perhaps the cure for Tamara's restlessness is another baby. Tamara prays for wisdom. All she wants is a small space of time for herself. Is she being selfish? Or is God leading her to continue being an outdated model of the Proverbs 31 wife: submissive but never equal.
