English Ministry Crisis in Chinese Canadian Churches Matthew Richard Sheldon Todd, 2015-03-26 In this book Dr Matthew Todd looks into the anecdotal reporting of high numbers of Canadian born Chinese leaving Western Canadian Chinese churches what is termed the silent exodus Some of the fastest growing Canadian churches are Chinese yet reportedly the highest dropout rates are among Chinese and Asian church adult ministries This book recommends solutions towards the retention of Canadian born Chinese adults in Chinese bicultural churches through empowerment To address retention the key factors that contribute to a silent exodus are established through qualitative research with participants of diverse church affiliations Todd examines various models and proposed solutions the Chinese church has used to retain its English speaking congregants and gives attention to a theological basis for being inclusive in mission initiatives and for empowerment through passing the leadership baton Todd makes some recommendations on the new wave of an emerging congregational model that requires negotiation with Chinese church leadership to give power away to English ministry leaders and congregations He anticipates that this will permit transformational leadership practices that contribute to shalom community transformation and lasting congregations

Believing Identity Nicole Toulis, 2020-08-19 The complex and sometimes contradictory articulation of ethnicity religion and gender informs this book on the cultural construction of identity for Jamaican migrants in Britain The author argues that religion in this case Pentecostalism cannot be understood simply as a means of spiritual compensation for the economically disadvantaged Rather in the New Testament Church of God one of Britain's largest African Caribbean churches the cosmology of the church resolves the questions surrounding identity as well as suffering Religious participation is one way in which African Caribbean people negotiate the terms of representation and interaction in British society

Saints and Role Models in Judaism and Christianity Marcel Poorthuis, Joshua J. Schwartz, 2004-01-01 This volume deals with the role of saints and exemplary individuals in Judaism and Christianity Although sharing the Hebrew Bible and recognizing the same Biblical figures there both religions have developed widely divergent perspectives upon the significance of these figures although there are occasional common motifs and themes Moreover even the contrasting themes betray an underlying interaction between both religions as is clear from the contributions on for example Melchizedek Elijah the Desert Fathers Rabbis on clothing the Apostle Peter in Jewish tradition the Maccabees in Christian tradition and the Biblical examples in Saint Antony the Hermit The book examines Jewish and Christian perspectives upon saints and role models from the Biblical period to the present time It will be of special importance to scholars and general readers interested in an interdisciplinary approach to theology rabbinics history
