Thinking With Whitehead A Free And Wild Creation Of Concepts:

Thinking with Whitehead Isabelle Stengers, 2011 In Thinking with Whitehead Isabelle Stengers one of today's leading philosophers of science goes straight to the beating heart of Whitehead's thought Both an erudite yet accessible introduction and a highly advanced commentary it establishes the mathematician philosopher as a daring thinker on par with Deleuze Guattari and Foucault Thinking with the Harrisons Anne Douglas, Chris Fremantle, 2024-09-30 Helen Mayer Harrison and Newton Harrison known as the Harrisons dedicated five decades to exploring and demonstrating a new approach to artistic practice centred on doing no work that does not attend to the wellbeing of the web of life Their collaborative practice pioneered a way of drawing together art and ecology They closely observed often with irony and humour how human intervention disrupts the dynamics of life as a web of interrelationships The authors of this book think with the Harrisons critically tracing their poetics as a reimagining and reconfiguring of the arts in response to the unfolding planetary crisis They draw parallels between the artists poetics and rethinking in the philosophy of science particularly drawing on the work of Isabelle Stengers and Alfred North Whitehead Thinking with the Harrisons is for anyone concerned with the implications of ecology as part of a reimagining of public life including through the interaction of art and science Throughout their joint practice the Harrisons sought to engage policy makers governments ecologists artists and inhabitants of specific places sensitizing us to the crises that emerge from grounded experiences of place and time Affective Critical Regionality

Neil Campbell, 2016-08-17 Affective Critical Regionality offers a new approach to developing a sharper more nuanced understanding of the relations between place space memory and affect It builds on the author's extensive work on the American West where he developed the idea of expanded critical regionalism to underline the West as multiple dynamic and relational engaged in global local processes tensions between the rooted and the routed and increasingly as relevant to debates around the politics of precarity and vulnerability This book uses affective critical regionality to enable a re valuing of the local as a powerful means to appreciate the everyday and the over looked as vital elements within a more inclusive understanding of how we live Exploring a variety of cultural materials including fiction memoir theory poetry and film it demonstrates how this approach can deepen our understanding of and simultaneously provoke new relations with place Moving beyond the US context through its use of international theoretical voices and texts it will show how the concept is applicable to other cultural spheres The Cambridge Companion to Wyndham Lewis Tyrus Miller, 2016-02-09 The Cambridge Companion to Wyndham Lewis offers fresh insight into the fascinating and controversial works both literary and visual of Wyndham Lewis 1882-1957 Accessible to students and scholars alike this Companion illuminates key areas of Lewis's life and career Written by a team of leading experts this book examines Lewis's work in light of contemporary concerns with radical politics feminism and queer perspectives and the effects of mass media Individual essays further illustrate the author's early leadership of the British artistic avant garde his varying later phases as a writer and painter and his radical and changing political views in addition to his complex views on gender and race his relation to philosophy and theology and his idiosyncratic practice of cultural criticism

On the Verge of a Planetary Civilization Sam Mickey, 2014-09-18 On the Verge of a Planetary Civilization presents a philosophical contribution to integral ecology an emerging approach to the field that crosses disciplinary boundaries of the humanities and sciences In this original book Sam Mickey argues for the transdisciplinary significance of philosophical concepts that facilitate understandings of and responses to the boundaries involved in ecological issues Mickey demonstrates how much the provocative French philosopher Gilles

Deleuze contributes to the development of such concepts situating his work in dialogue with that of his colleagues Felix Guattari and Jacques Derrida and with theorists who are adapting his concepts in contemporary contexts such as Isabelle Stengers Catherine Keller and the speculative realist movement of object oriented ontology The book focuses on the overlapping existential social and environmental aspects of the ecological problems pervading our increasingly interconnected planet It explores the boundaries between self and other humans and nonhumans sciences and humanities monism and pluralism sacred and secular fact and fiction the beginning and end of the world and much more

Compression Mode Stephen Kennedy, 2025-01-09 This book examines how compression can be understood not only as a digital process enacted through computing but as a wider economic and political phenomenon that impacts on the ecology of waste diversity and social inclusivity Setting out from the linguistic underpinning of visual space it proceeds to the development of the MP3 algorithm and an examination of the waste it creates As it does so it challenges the received wisdom prevalent in western thought that human reason and logic enacted through language is uniquely capable of bringing order to chaos Returning to the idea of a sonic economy it seeks to reintroduce waste error and other discarded material back into our systems of thought or perhaps more accurately into systems beyond our thought Rethinking Whitehead's from a Whiteheadian Point of View Vesselin Petrov, 2019-03-28 The basic aims of contemporary thinking in education are to cultivate a proper comprehension of the meaning and purpose of education and the role of the teacher and to develop adequate theoretical and methodological frameworks that combine some of the positive sides of the leading theories while avoiding their disadvantages Toward these ends one excellent candidate for consideration is Alfred North Whitehead's 1861-1947 process relational philosophy of education as set forth in The Aims of Education 1929 and elsewhere The contributors to this volume analyze Whitehead's philosophy of education in a detailed and critical fashion including inquiring into the development of cycle based approaches to education like Whitehead's in intellectual history as well as its potential objective bases They also demonstrate how this relates to and can be integrated with other leading theories of education and contemporary pedagogical thinking and identify avenues for its positive practical application in schooling across the globe as well as in scientific research The book further critically evaluates current educational practices and the organization of educational institutions in this light and the effectiveness of teaching strategies that are founded upon some of its principles while also exploring the ramifications of its selection and application in education for society in general as well as for our common civilizational aspirations including humanity's addressing of global problems such as the ecological crisis In addition the volume also serves to lay some of the groundwork for its potential further development Creaturely Cosmologies

Brianne Donaldson, 2015-05-05 Metaphysics or the grand narratives about reality that shape a community has historically been identified as one of the primary oppressive factors in violence against animals the environment and other subordinated populations Yet this rejection of metaphysics has allowed inadequate worldviews to be smuggled back into secular rights based systems and into politics language arts economics media and science under the guise of value free and narrowly human centric facts that relegate many populations to the margins and exclude them from consideration as active members of the planetary community Those concerned with systemic violence against creatures and other oppressed populations must overcome this allergy to metaphysics in order to illuminate latent assumptions at work in their own worldviews and to seek out dynamic many sided and relational narratives about reality that are more adequate to a universe of responsive and creative world shaping creatures This text examines two such worldviews Whitehead s process relational thought in the west and the nonviolent Indian tradition of Jainism alongside theorists such as Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari Judith Butler Donna Haraway Karen Barad that offer a new perspective on metaphysics as well as the creaturely kin and planetary fellows with whom we co shape our future

Speculative Research Alex Wilkie, Martin Savransky, Marsha Rosengarten, 2017-02-17 Is another future possible So called late modernity is marked by the escalating rise in and proliferation of uncertainties and unforeseen events brought about by the interplay between and patterning of social natural techno scientific and political economic developments The future has indeed become problematic The question of how heterogeneous actors engage futures what intellectual and practical strategies they put into play and what the implications of such strategies are have become key concerns of recent social and cultural research addressing a diverse range of fields of practice and experience Exploring questions of speculation possibilities and futures in contemporary societies Speculative Research responds to the pressing need to not only critically account for the role of calculative logics and rationalities in managing societal futures but to develop alternative approaches and sensibilities that take futures seriously as possibilities and that demand new habits and practices of attention invention and experimentation

Contemporary Fiction Thom Dancer,2021-09-09 From climate catastrophe to pandemics and economic crises the problems facing humanity can feel impossible to solve Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction argues that contemporary fiction helps those who may feel despair at the enormity of such problems not as usually assumed through the ambitious search for grand solutions but rather by cultivating a temperament of modesty This new temperament of critical modesty locates the fight for freedom and human dignity within the limited and compromised conditions in which we find ourselves Through readings of Ian McEwan Zadie Smith J M Coetzee and David Mitchell Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction advances a claim for the value of temperament in general as a crucial analytic for understanding contemporary experience as well as for a particular temperament of critical modesty as crucial in negotiating the limits of critical and human agency that constitute our daily lives Exploring modest forms of entangled human agency that represent an alternative to the novel of the large scale that have been most closely associated with the Anthropocene this volume makes the surprising case that by adopting a modest stance the novel has the potential to play a more important socio cultural role than it has done In doing so it offers an engaging response to the debate over critical and surface readings bringing novels themselves into the conversation and arguing for a fictional mode that is both critical and modest reminding us how much we are already engaged with the world implicated and compromised before we start developing theories writing stories or acting within it Philosophy, Animality and the Life Sciences Wahida Khandker,2014-07-21 Using animals for scientific research is a highly contentious issue that Continental philosophers engaging with the animal question have been rightly accused of shying away from Now Wahida Khandker asks whether Continental approaches to animality and organic life will make us reconsider our treatment of non human animals By following its historical and philosophical development she argues that the concept of pathological life as a means of understanding organic life as a whole plays a pivotal role in refiguring the human animal distinction She explores the significance of this across philosophy and the life sciences through the work of a number of key thinkers of life and process from Henri Bergson to Donna Haraway The SAGE Handbook of Process Organization Studies Ann Langley,Haridimos Tsoukas,2016-12-14 The SAGE Handbook of Process Organization Studies provides a comprehensive and timely overview of the field This volume offers a compendium of perspectives on process thinking process organizational theory process research methodology and empirical applications The emphasis is on a combination of pedagogical contributions and in depth reviews of current thinking and research in each of the selected areas combined with the development of agendas for future research The Handbook is divided into five sections Part One Process Philosophy Part Two Process Theory Part Three Process Methodology Part Four Process Applications Part Five Process Perspectives The Crisis of Global Modernity Prasenjit Duara, 2015 Drawing on historical sociology transnational histories and Asian traditions Duara seeks answers to the pressing global issue of environmental sustainability Care and Design Charlotte Bates, Rob Imrie, Kim Kullman, 2016-09-28 Care and Design Bodies Buildings Cities connects the study of design with care and explores how concepts of care may have relevance for the ways in which urban environments are designed It explores how practices and spaces of care are sustained specifically in urban settings thereby throwing light on an important arena of care that current work has rarely discussed in detail
