Transforming Otherness Peter Nynas, 2017-07-28 Today people in different situations and contexts face intercultural challenges These are a result of increasing mobility Sometimes such challenges are brought about by crisis situations and an international labor market However people also come in contact with each other through forms of new technology such as the Internet and through literature and film In these multicultural encounters misunderstandings and sometimes clashes are experienced This volume presents studies in culture communication and language all of which strive through a variety of theoretical perspectives to develop understanding of such challenges and perhaps offer practical solutions Encountering otherness may evoke fears negative attitudes and a corresponding will to dismiss the otherness in front of us either consciously or unconsciously This denial of otherness may also be subtle Thinking about otherness as described in this volume also raises questions about how otherness is represented and mediated and about the possible role of third parties in facilitating communication in such situations Sometimes a third party can play a crucial role in facilitating the communication process and serve as a channel of communication Trust in humanity as a bridge to community requires a subtle balance between representations of self and other Various problems arise in intercultural mediation which may be caused by cultural and political differences and these are sometimes used to validate stereotypical beliefs and images The editors argue that in both academic and art circles European perspectives have widely been understood as universal The Intersectional Approach Michele Tracy Berger, Kathleen Guidroz, 2010-01-01

Intersectionality or the consideration of race class and gender is one of the prominent contemporary theoretical contributions made by scholars in the field of women s studies that now broadly extends across the humanities social sciences and natural sciences Taking stock of this transformative paradigm The Intersectional Approach guides new and established researchers to engage in a critical reflection about the broad adoption of intersectionality that constitutes what the editors call a new social literacy for scholars In eighteen essays contributors examine various topics of interest to students and researchers from a feminist perspective as well as through their respective disciplines looking specifically at gender inequalities related to globalization health motherhood sexuality body image and aging Together these essays provide a critical overview of the paradigm highlight new theoretical and methodological advances and make a strong case for the continued use of the intersectional approach both within the borders of women s and gender studies and beyond Contributors Lidia Anchisi Gettysburg College Naomi Andre University of Michigan Jean Ait Belkhir Southern University at New Orleans Michele Tracy Berger University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Kia Lilly Caldwell University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Elizabeth R Cole University of Michigan Kimberle Crenshaw University of California Los Angeles Bonnie Thornton Dill University of Maryland Michelle Fine Graduate Center City University of New York Jennifer Fish Old Dominion University Mako Fitts Seattle University Kathleen Guidroz Mount St Mary s University Ivette Guzman Zavala Lebanon Valley College Kaaren Haldeman Durham North Carolina Catherine E Harnois Wake Forest University AnaLouise Keating Texas Woman s University Rachel E Luft University of New Orleans Gary K Perry Seattle University Jennifer Rothchild University of Minnesota Morris Ann Russo DePaul University Natalie J Sabik University of Michigan Jessica Holden Sherwood University of Rhode Island Yvette Taylor University of Newcastle United Kingdom Nira Yuval Davis University of East London

Rhetorical Agendas Patricia Bizzell, 2006-04-21 This volume represents current theory and research in rhetoric across disciplines and is of interest to scholars and students in rhetoric studies in speech communication English and related disciplines Feminist Collections , 2016 Bitch , 2003 The Rhizomatic West Neil Campbell, 2008 Neil Campbell analyses the American West as a constantly moving mutating idea within a complex global culture Female Mythologies in Contemporary Chicana Literature Nadine Gebhardt, 2007-08 Thesis M A from the year 2005 in the subject American

Studies Literature grade 10 Ernst Moritz Arndt University of Greifswald language English abstract In Mexican American Chicano culture feminine archetypes from the Mexican tradition play an important role for woman's subjectivity Traditionally such archetypes epitomize Catholic patriarchal constructions of womanhood Idolized by the figures of the Virgin of Guadalupe La Malinche and La Llorona the most prevailing representations of female sexuality and motherhood evolve around the passive virgin the sinful seductress and the traitorous mother Along the lines of Chicana feminism the traditional definitions of these feminine archetypes can be seen as promoting an image of woman that is detrimental to female subjectivity Although there are three figures these archetypes evoke a binary opposition that defines woman as either good woman or bad woman virgin or whore As such they limit and circumscribe the Chicana's development of subjectivity But these cultural icons may also epitomize feminine power and hence provide the Chicana with possible feminist role models to back up her emancipation Chicana feminists have employed creative writing to counter the Catholic patriarchal discourse on the Virgin of Guadalupe Malinche and La Llorona As they explore these cultural archetypes in their novels short stories and poems Chicana feminists attempt to reveal the mechanisms by which the original images of these mythic figures have been subverted disempowered and distorted But most importantly they seek to deconstruct the virgin/whore dichotomy by rewriting the mythic figures Through a revision of existing myths Chicana writers are able to create a feminist mythology that is rooted in cultural tradition but simultaneously serves as an act of resistance to the dominant discourse This Master's thesis will explore the mythic figures of Guadalupe Malinche and La Llorona in all Transforming Feminist Practice

Leela Fernandes, 2003 Cultural Writing Leela Fernandes years of teaching women's studies courses at Rutgers where she has seen frustration paralysis and depression take hold of young students grappling with the hard realities of social activism led her to examine the state of contemporary feminism and social justice movements The result is an accessible social critique that goes directly to the heart of the issues TRANSFORMING FEMINIST PRACTICE takes a hard unrelenting look at social justice organizations academia and identity politics refocusing the struggle and opening a dialogue for a new era

Chicana/Latina Studies, 2004 Great Events from History Lillian Faderman, 2007 Gay Lesbian Bisexual Transgender Events selects events that help to mark the definition of gender the emergence of social cultural and political movements and the struggles to gain civil rights In some cases one event represents and offers discussion of many For example the article on Illinois becoming the first state to abolish its laws against consensual homosexual acts in 1961 also discusses the effect of this action on other states In particular essays also include see also cross references to related articles within the set
