Vietnamese Language, Education and Change In and Outside Vietnam Phan Le Ha, Dat Bao, Joel Windle, 2024-05-21 This open access edited book attempts to break new ground in investigating multiple facets of Vietnamese language education and change in global contexts engaging with global Vietnam through complex lenses of language and education Issues of language globalization and global identities have often been framed through the lens of hierarchical binary power relations and or through a dichotomy between hyper central languages such as English and revisualized or marginalized local language and cultures In this book this dichotomy is turned on its head by considering how Vietnam and Vietnamese are constructed in and outside Vietnam and enacted in global spaces of classrooms textbooks student mobility community engagement curriculum and intercultural contacts Vietnamese is among the world's most spoken languages and is ranked in the top 20th in terms the number of speakers Yet at the same time as a peripheral or southern global language as often seen in the Global North Global South spectrum the dynamics of multilingual and multicultural encounters involving Vietnamese generate distinctive dilemmas and tensions as well as pointing to alternative ways of thinking about global phenomena from a fresh angle Rather than being outside of the global Vietnamese like many other non central global languages is present in diasporas commercial and transnational structures of higher education schooling and in the more conventional settings of primary and secondary school in which visions of culture and language also evoke notions of heritage and tradition as well as bring to the fore deep seated ideological conflicts across time space communities and generations Relevant to students and scholars researching language education identity multiculturalism and their intersections particularly related to Vietnam but also in Southeast Asia and beyond this volume is a pioneering investigation into overlooked contexts and languages from a global southern oriented perspective This book presents an eclectic collection of 15 chapters unified by an interest in developing and teaching the Vietnamese language To my knowledge there has been no previous attempt to make the national language of Vietnam a focus for as many perspectives as are documented in the book In this regard the book makes an original and intriguing contribution to the literature on Vietnamese culture including the culture of Vietnam's expanding diaspora The book is pioneering in the extent to which it draws attention to the many roles played by a national language in a

nation's political, social and cultural development. It also documents the challenges of preserving a national language in settings where it is at risk of being marginalized. It is pleasing that so many of the contributing authors are young Vietnamese scholars who can provide a distinctly Vietnamese perspective on concepts and practices of global significance. Dr Martin Hayden, Emeritus Professor of Higher Education, Southern Cross University, Australia, Vietnamese Language Education and Change In and Outside Vietnam brings together an excellent collection of chapters that highlight the diverse and important but under-explored roles Vietnamese language plays in different settings within and outside Vietnam. The fifteen chapters of this much-needed book provide unique insights into various aspects and meanings of Vietnamese language. Collectively, the volume contributes to broadening our view about the evolution and transformation of Vietnamese language under the impacts of local, national, regional and global forces. The book invites readers to engage in a reflective and intersectional approach to rethinking and re-examining our understandings of the changes and developments of Vietnamese language over the history of the country. Dr Ly Tran, Professor, Centre for Research for Educational Impact, REDI, Deakin University, Australia, and Founder, Australia Vietnam International Education Centre, Our Voices, Our Histories Shirley Hune, Gail M. Nomura, 2020-03-10. An innovative anthology showcasing Asian American and Pacific Islander women's histories. Our Voices, Our Histories brings together thirty-five Asian American and Pacific Islander authors in a single volume to explore the historical experiences, perspectives and actions of Asian American and Pacific Islander women in the United States and beyond. This volume is unique in exploring Asian American and Pacific Islander women's lives along local, transnational and global dimensions. The contributions present new research on diverse aspects of Asian American and Pacific Islander women's history from the politics of language to the role of food to experiences as adoptees, mixed race and second generation while acknowledging shared experiences as women of color in the United States. Our Voices, Our Histories showcases how new approaches in US history, Asian American and Pacific Islander studies and Women's and Gender studies inform research on Asian American and Pacific Islander women. Attending to the collective voices of the women themselves, the volume seeks to transform current understandings of Asian American and Pacific Islander women's histories.

Intercountry Adoptees Tell Their Stories Heather Ahn-Redding, Rita James Simon, 2007-01-01. Intercountry Adoptees Tell Their Stories reflects the thoughts and experiences of adult transracial adoptees. The authors conducted in-depth interviews in order to understand and examine the adoptees. The men and women interviewed in this study offer the readers a detailed and personal glimpse into their worlds. They represent a range of positive and negative adoption stories and describe the complexities of ethnic identity formation. Reading South Vietnam's Writers Thomas Engelbert, Chi P. Pham, 2023-07-04. This edited book examines how South Vietnam's formerly the Republic of Vietnam 1955-1975 literary and journalistic writers were perceived and potentially influenced by Western thought led by thinkers such as Jean-Paul Sartre, Franz Kafka, Sigmund Freud, Thomas Mann, Martin Heidegger, Hermann Hesse, Edmund Husserl, Stefan Zweig, Graham Greene and Somerset

Maugham The book reveals the dynamism and diversity of Western thought in individual literary texts as well as among the authors themselves The volume considers how writers and their texts engaged with issues that are socially culturally politically and philosophically significant to Vietnam and beyond past and present This approach to South Vietnam s literary and journalistic tradition enables an alternative plural inclusive view of the significance of these texts which are shown to be neither exclusively anti Communist nor bourgeois individualist c nh n ti u t s n as they have so often been interpreted both in and outside of Vietnam Such an interpretation problematically retains the marginal position of South Vietnam s literature in mainstream Vietnamese literature and in the literatures of the host countries where these Vietnamese authors have migrated settled and continued to write following the Fall of Saigon This volume presents itself as a key text for those studying Asian and postcolonial literatures as well as scholars in the humanities researching Vietnam its history politics society and culture

Graduate employability in Vietnam: A loose relationship between higher education and employment market Thi Tuyet Tran, 2014-04-01 This book addresses the issue of graduate employability GE within the changing context of contemporary Vietnam GE has become a highly topical and contested issue in Vietnam Employers report that university students are not suitably prepared for work and universities are often criticised for their poor commitment to developing student employability assets However it is suggested that enhancing GE in Vietnam involves many factors that are often underplayed in the general literature In the Vietnamese context both the education system and the economy remain relatively underdeveloped students are schooled to be passive learners and corrupt employment practices remain rife Moreover Confucian cultural features of face saving hierarchical order in decision making and the role of rumour and hearsay in a collectivist culture each play an important part in the different ways university graduates negotiate their transition to employment Thus in order to enhance the development of GE in Vietnam all related stakeholders need opportunities to collaborate so that a mutual understanding of the problem is arrived at and feasible solutions are developed and implemented
