Women Islam Apologies Feminist Critique:

Women and Islam Ibtissam Bouachrine, 2014-05-21 Muslim women of all ages economic status educational backgrounds sexual orientations and from different parts of historically Muslim countries suffer the kinds of atrocities that violate common understandings of human rights and are normally denounced as criminal or pathological yet these actions are sustained because they uphold some religious doctrine or some custom blessed by local traditions Ironically while instances of abuse meted out to women and even female children are routine scholarship about Muslim women in the post 9 11 era has rarely focused attention on them preferring to speak of women s agency and resistance Too few scholars are willing to tell the complicated and at times harrowing stories of Muslim women s lives Women and Islam Myths Apologies and the Limits of Feminist Critique radically rethinks the celebratory discourse constructed around Muslim women s resistance It shows instead the limits of such resistance and the restricted agency given women within Islamic societies The book does not center on a single historical period Rather it is organized as a response to five questions that have been central to upholding the resistance discourse What is the impact of the myth of al Andalus on a feminist critique What is the feminist utility of Edward Said s theory of Orientalism Is Islam compatible with a feminist agenda To what extent can Islamic institutions such as the veil be liberating for women Will the current Arab uprisings yield significant change for Muslim women Through examination of these core questions Bouachrine calls for a shift in the paradigm of discourse about feminism in the Muslim world Cover images provided by Tachfine Bouachrine

Secular Muslim Feminism Hind Elhinawy, 2024-12-26 For over a century Muslim women have championed their own brand of feminism rooted in human rights principles and a deep understanding of their diverse cultural contexts Yet secular Muslim feminism remains shrouded in misunderstanding and contention This book boldly confronts the complexities and controversies surrounding this contested concept offering a nuanced exploration of its potential to bridge divides and empower women The book challenges the simplistic portrayals of Muslim women dismantling the harmful narratives of oppression and victimhood propagated by both Western and Islamist agendas It critiques the selective glorification of religious agency by some feminists recognizing how this can inadvertently reinforce patriarchal ideologies Additionally it exposes the hijacking of the secular Muslim feminist movement by the far right disguised as advocates for women s rights but fueled by anti Muslim sentiments Drawing on over two decades of personal observations and interactions with diverse organizations in the Middle East and Europe the book delves into the heart of secular Muslim feminism dissecting its nuances and potential to reconcile divergent perspectives It amplifies these voices challenging the misrepresentation and limitations imposed by external agendas Secular Muslim Feminism emerges as a bold and transformative force redefining the boundaries of equality and empowering women to shape their destinies It offers a nuanced and critical framework for understanding the complex realities of Muslim women s lives paving the way for a more just and equitable future

Hoffman, 2019-02-28 Demands for freedom justice and dignity have animated protests and revolutions across the Middle East in recent years from the Iranian Green Movement and the Arab Spring uprisings to Turkey's March for Justice and the ongoing struggle in Palestine Although expectations raised by the Arab Spring were largely disappointed and protests that toppled entrenched rulers unleashed vicious counterrevolutionary forces there is no doubt that the landscape of the Middle East has changed Drawing from diverse disciplines this volume offers critical perspectives on these changes covering politics religion gender dynamics human rights media literature and music What ultimately has changed in the new Middle East Who are the actors pushing the direction of change How are aspirations for change being expressed through media and the arts With extensive analysis and thoughtful reflection this book gives readers an in depth portrayal of a modernizing Middle East which operates through an interconnected network of ideologies institutions beliefs aesthetics and cultural trends is too complex and too deep rooted to eradicate with superficial changes Like a national anthem misogyny in North Africa and the Middle East has acquired a sacred status It is accepted uncritically and woven effortlessly into daily practices creating a community of men of different ages educational levels and socioeconomic backgrounds who are united in their sense of entitlement to evaluate scrutinize deter question and expose women For women it is as if they are in a state of perpetual war forever on the verge of being accused of deviating from the norms and being punished These norms however are neither clear nor predictable This study of misogyny is written against a dominant orthodoxy in Western feminism Critics are accused of gendered orientalism savior complexes and even Islamophobia if they dare to bring up misogyny and gender based violence in North Africa and the Middle East in contexts other than calling it a Western created issue Rather than exaggerate Western agency this book is invested in making Muslim agency visible There are narratives of violence and injustice that produce discomfort anger and even despair These stories deserve to be told and those behind the injustices are entitled to an unfiltered portrayal because the non West too is deserving of unapologetic feminist critique Living Our Religions Anjana Narayan, Bandana Purkayastha, 2009 The population of the South Asian Diaspora in the US is over 2.5 million people Yet in a post 9/11 climate of opinion little is known about this group beyond images of Muslim and Hindu fundamentalists and terrorists This is particularly true of women where simplistic assumptions about veils and subordination obscure the voices of the women themselves Rarely are Hindu and Muslim American women many of whom are social workers physicians lawyers academics students homemakers asked about their everyday lives and religious beliefs Living our Religions brings out these hidden stories from South Asian American women of Bangladeshi Pakistani Indian and Nepali origin Their accounts show how diverse and culturally dynamic religious practices emerge within the intersection of histories and politics of specific locales The authors describe the race gender and ethnic boundaries they encounter they also document how they resist and challenge these boundaries Living our Religions cuts through the myths and ethnocentrism of popular portrayals to reveal the vibrancy courage and agency of an invisible minority Other Contributors Shobha Hamal Gurung Selina Jamil Salma Kamal Shweta Majumdar Bidya Ranjeet Shanthi Rao Aysha Saeed Monoswita Saha Neela Bhattacharya Saxena Parveen Talpur Elora Halim Chowdhury and Rafia Zakaria Encyclopaedia Iranica: Ethé Ehsan Yarshater, 1999 Encyclopædia Iranica Ehsan Yar-Shater, 1982 This encyclopedia presents alphabetically arranged scholarly articles on topics of archeological geographic ethnographic historical artistic literary religious linguistic philosophical scientific and folkloric interest The time span covered extends from prehistory to the present however biographies of living persons are excluded Introduction Feminist Frontiers Verta Taylor, Leila Rupp, Nancy Whittier, 2009 The most widely used anthology of feminist writings and the first to incorporate issues of sexual identity and sexual diversity Feminist Frontiers has stood the test of time With both classic and contemporary readings on cutting edge topics that cut across disciplinary and generational lines this text presents the full diversity of women s lives exploring commonalities as well as interconnected differences Feminist Frontiers offers analyses of the causes and consequences of gender inequality in interaction with class race ethnicity sexuality ability and nationality This anthology also introduces students to feminist theory and methodology This edition maintains consistent coverage of diverse ethnicities and a global perspective with greater attention to transgender issues and disability Sociological Abstracts Leo P.
