Old, 2020-04-13 One Thing Needful Gary M. Mathena, DMin, 2016-02-16 In today's church there is growing interest in learning more about what constitutes genuine worship theologically, historically, and devotionally. However, worship is not just another spoke on the wheel of the church program but rather the very hub from which everything we do for God should emanate. In short, it is a lifestyle. In One Thing Needful, worship leader Dr. Gary M. Mathena aptly explains what worship is and why God wants us to practice it not just on Sundays but every day. He reveals how our current worship is built upon more than twenty centuries of worship heritage from the early church through the Reformation and contemporary worship cultures. Mathena shows why we should study worship as depicted in the Old Testament, especially tabernacle worship, the sacrificial system, the feasts and festivals, and the idea of covenant. He stresses that worship must be based on the Bible and includes scriptural references to support this conclusion. In addition, he introduces seven key worship disciplines: Introduction to worship, Theology of worship, History of worship, Tabernacle worship, Music and worship, The heart of the worship leader, Lifestyle worship. For pastors, music ministers, choir members, worship teams, and laypeople who desire to understand what it really means to worship God in spirit and truth, One Thing Needful offers an invaluable inspiring guide. Worship and Mission for the Global Church James Krabill, Frank Fortunato, Robin P. Harris, 2013-01-15 Worship and Mission for the Global Church offers theological reflection, case studies, practical tools, and audiovisual resources to help the global church appreciate and generate culturally appropriate arts in worship and witness. Drawing on the expertise and experience of over one hundred writers from twenty countries, the volume integrates insights from the fields of ethnomusicology, biblical research, worship studies, missiology, and the arts. This book is the first in a two-volume set on the principles and practices of ethnodoxology. The second volume, entitled Creating Local Arts Together, guides the practitioner through a detailed seven-step process of assisting a local community's efforts at integrating its arts with the values and purposes of God's kingdom.

Essays on the Real Church Dirk J. Smit, 2024-08-15 The spirit of the Reformation is often expressed in the well known slogan that Reformed churches are always being reformed according to God s Word ecclesia reformata semper reformanda secundum verbum Dei Over the last century the spirit of this slogan motivated someone like Dietrich Bonhoeffer to argue that the visible form and life of the church should reflect the truth and message of the church Already in his doctoral dissertation called Sanctorum Communio the communion of the saints the young Bonhoeffer combined theological claims and traditions with social theory and analysis in this spirit in an innovative way to study the nature and integrity and witness of the church At the time this was a radical claim with major consequences and challenges for Protestant churches Their life which meant their order structure actions statements convictions public presence and role was to be measured by their gospel which meant their message proclamation convictions claims They could no longer proclaim one truth yet live a different life It was this spirit which led to the well known Theological Declaration of Barmen in 1934 and to the formation of the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany Many called this a moment of truth a status confessionis It was this same spirit which later inspired the struggle in South Africa for the integrity and faithfulness of the church and for the credibility of its message proclamation and witness The contributions in this volume 52 papers essays sermons studies were all produced in this spirit Most of them have not been published before They were all occasional pieces written over several decades in different contexts and for different purposes and audiences yet they all breathe this self critical spirit of the Reformation considering whether the real church the concrete every day actual living church that people know and experience and perhaps belong to truly strives to embody the gospel itself the message which it claims and proclaims They all inquire under different circumstances and in diverse ways about different social forms of the real church from worship to congregation from denomination to ecumenical church from individual believers to movements and organisations whether and how they embody the truth of the church or not Together these contributions tell a story the story of this spirit in South African circles over several decades but also in the ecumenical church in our globalizing world They offer one small glimpse into different concrete moments in the story of this spirit in the life of this tradition and community of faith Hopefully some of these accounts may resonate with others who also shared the same spirit and still share it today in new and ongoing ways

From Fast to Feast Cas Wepener, 2009 Today some years after the first democratic elections in South Africa as well as the final report of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC it is clear that reconciliation is still needed on all terrains of South African society More and more people are becoming aware of unchanneled emotions such as guilt fury revenge and grief which are still alive in South Africa and which come to fore in different ways It seems as if reconciliation is a process that will in fact take years if not generations The task of the TRC has been completed but the task of reconciliation on all levels in South African society and the debate surrounding it are far from complete Very little research has been conducted to understand both the process and the kinds of reconciliation rituals that are needed And this is exactly the aim of the research described in this book The research described here aims at making a contribution towards the process of reconciliation in South Africa by specifically looking at one small but important element in that process namely ritual To this end several ritual probes were conducted including an ethnographic probe describing research by means of participatory observation in local South African communities as well as a cultural anthropological biblical historical and descriptive probe From these probes ritual qualities were distilled which can be used for the liturgical inculturation of rituals of reconciliation in South Africa
