

Read! STOP Think! Write!

Read the whole poem through once. Then STOP when it tells you to and write down what it says above the sticky note.

She lay peacefully
wrapped in a cocoon
wires, tubes, machines,
Surround her too soon

Day into night
Night into day
I wait and I wait
For something to say

STOP

Hoping she'll smile
Or tell me a story
Of days gone past
Or days of her glory

I hold out my hand
I ponder, I pray
Please show me you love me
In some special way

A grasp or a squeeze,
How I long for a sign
A sign that you hear me
A sign that you're mine

Your short silver curls
Your sweet crinkled face
I'll never forget you
I'll never replace

STOP

I know that it's time
I must let you go
Your deep tired eyes
Are telling me so

Can I ask one small favor?
One simple request
May I keep loving you
Even after you rest?
