Three Of Chinas Mighty Men:

Three of China's Mighty Men Leslie T. Lyall, 1973 Three of China's Mighty Men Leslie T. Lyall, 2000 There are many heroes in the Chinese church Today humanly speaking it should not exist having been stamped out by the pressure of authorities prior to and during the Communist era Yet today the church is larger than ever and still growing Some of this phenomenon can be attributed to the quality of leadership in the Church People suffered for their faith often in brutal and cruel ways yet God maintained their faith in remarkable ways Whilst there were many leaders of equally courageous stature in the church three men have stood out in the 20th century Wang Ming Dao Nee Duo Sheng Watchman Nee and Yang Shao Tang David Yang Leslie Lyall knew all three as a friend and worked with two of them He brings out their different personalities analyses the effect they had on the church and compares their views in some key areas All three worked outside the official church all three knew and respected each other Their stories are inspiring terrifying solemn and joyous They are an encouragement to us all The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume IV Jehu J. Hanciles, 2019-03-07 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in England as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and royal supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond England and also traces newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier English Dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent ecclesiastical organizations Volume IV examines the globalization of dissenting traditions in the twentieth century During this period Protestant Dissent achieved not only its widest geographical reach but also the greatest genealogical distance from its point of origin Covering Africa Asia the Middle East America Europe Latin America and the Pacific this collection provides detailed examination of Protestant Dissent as a globalizing movement Contributors probe the radical shifts and complex reconstruction that took place as dissenting traditions encountered diverse cultures and took root in a multitude of contexts many of which were experiencing major historical change at the same time This authoritative overview unambiguously reveals that Dissent was transformed as it travelled A History of Christian Conversion David W. Kling, 2020-05-05 In this first in depth and wide ranging history of Christian conversion David Kling examines the dynamic of turning to the Christian faith by individuals families and people groups Global in reach and engaging recent methods and theories in conversion studies the narrative progresses from early Christian beginnings in the Roman world to Christianity's expansion into Europe the Americas China India and Africa Although conversion is often associated with a particular strand of modern Christianity evangelical and a particular type of experience sudden overwhelming when examined over two millennia it

The majority of Christians in China over the course of the last century have worshipped not in missionary founded churches or in congregations affiliated with the contemporary Three Self Patriotic Movement or Chinese Catholic Patriotic Association but in independent and unregistered churches often labeled house churches From the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements within the mission church landscape of the early twentieth century to the Calvinist Reformed movement in the present day Protestant church the vibrant faith life and extraordinary church growth of this sector of Chinese Christianity offer a fascinating witness and lesson to the world church Yet despite the size of their congregations and the spread of their teachings the theologies of these independent and unregistered churches have drawn much less academic attention than those of mission church or state church theologians This volume presents a selection of new studies on house church theologians and theologies These begin in the early twentieth century with studies of the Spiritual Gifts movement in Shandong and the nature of Pentecostalism in Hong Kong and arrive in the present with essays on the changing role of women's leadership in the church given the spread of Reformed thought and the theological implications of Westminsterian Neo Calvinism in China The second section of the volume is devoted to the theological writings and lives of the two most prominent independent church figures of the twentieth century Wang Mingdao and Ni Tuosheng Watchman Nee These chapters include studies of spiritual theology of Ni's doctrine of humanity his views on salvation and his prison letters and of Wang Mingdao's life and moral thought his Confucian beliefs and his understanding of the relationship of Christians to the state The third section of the volume foregrounds church voices like the fundamentalist Samuel Lamb and the mediating figure Yang Shaotang and considers local developments in Roman Catholicism in light of Vatican reforms Biographical

Wickeri,2011-08-05 This is the most comprehensive treatment ever written of the history of the Protestant Church in China over the last forty years Philip Wickeri takes an unprecedented look at one of the most turbulent periods in Chinese history the years from 1949 to the present Wickeri explicates what Chinese Protestants have been saying about themselves in historical and theological perspective His interpretation is based on one particular dynamic how Chinese Protestants have sought to situate themselves in a socialist society within the unifying framework of the united front After an overview of church Marxism and Christianity in China Wickeri discusses the united front He focuses on ideology organization and religious policy Wickeri then explores the Three Self Movement as both a Chinese and a Christian movement His conclusion the Three Self Movement despite problems has made Christianity more accessible to the average Chinese and the church more acceptable to Chinese society Understanding Watchman Nee Dongsheng John Wu,2012-04-01 This book situates Nee s view within the rich heritage of the Protestant Catholic and Eastern Orthodox spiritual traditions and thus renders Nee s thought more intelligible to Christians of both evangelical and more liberal persuasions In this book Dongsheng John Wu examines Watchman Nee s thought on the spiritual life focusing on the relationship between spiritual formation and spiritual knowledge Different ways of acquiring spiritual understanding are explored including the respective roles of divine illumination intellectual studies and life circumstances Understanding Watchman Nee begins by synthesizing strategic aspects of Nee s teachings as well as formative events and sources in the development of Nee s own spirituality and theology It then utilizes the critical work of contemporary theologian Mark McIntosh to bring Nee s voice into dialogue with some important figures in the history of Christian spirituality Such interactions reveal that Nee s crucial theological convictions exhibit strong parallels with related themes found in the church s spiritual or mystical treasures 王德成,2022-01-31 90 2002
